Bishop Declared Dead When Dissected.

The coroner's jury in the matter of the inquest into the death of Washington Irving Bishop found the following verdict on Wednesday evening: "We, the jury in the case of Washington Irving Bishop, and: First, that he died at the Lambs' club on May 18, 1889; second, cause of death was coma; third, we further find that while Drs. Irwin, Ferguson and Hance acted in good faith in performing the autopsy upon the body of the decembed, we would state that Dr. Irwin, through overzeal, acted in some haste respecting the direction of the performance of the autopsy." Coroner Levy thereupon discharged the three doctors, who had been held in $2,500 bail each. Bishop Declared Dead When Dissected

Without loss of time when the intestinal anal is blocked up by reason of constipation, pronic or temporary. It should be borne in mind that this aliment is prone to become last-ing and obstinate, and breed other and worse complaints. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the precise remedy to remove the obstruction effect-ually, but without drenching or weakening ually, but without drenching or weakening the blockaded bowels, a consequence always to be apprehended from the use of violent laxatives, which are among the most pernicious of the cheap nostroms swallowed by the credulous and misinformed. The flat of experience, and of the medical fraternity, sauction the claims of this standard aperient. Not only as a source of relief and permanent regularity to the bowels, liver and stomach, but as a means of remedying and preventing kidney and bladder troubles, and fever and ague, it is without a peer.
