A LUNATIC IN CHURCH.

JOHN LANDERS DISTURBS THE SERVICES AT THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

He Rushes Into the Midst of Worshippers and Commands Them to Flee For their Lives—He is Arrested.

John Landers is a man who for some time past has been crazy on religion. He lives at No. 417 Lafayette street with his sister, his wife having left him. He spends much of his time reading the Bible and writing crazy things in a book that he has. At times he is much worse than at others. He is able to work, but seems to break out in spells. Last week he worked at hauling bark for Snavely's tannery, and sometimes he peddles through the county. When he becomes excited on religion, however, he is away off. Sunday evening he had one of these spells, when he made his appearance in the Presbyterian church on East Orange street and created the most intense excitement. Dr. Mitchell was about commencing the sermon, having just announced his text, when a man, with his arms extended and a very crazy look upon his face, walked up the western aisle of the church. He yelled at the top of his voice, telling the people to fly for their lives and repent or they would be lost—and made other wild expressions. When he reached the end of the aisle, near the pulpit, he suddenly jumped up and with a yell threw a book, that he carried, almost to the ceiling. By this time the church people were thoroughly aroused and the majority of the ladies fled in terror from the building. Samuel Mungall, Harry Williamson, George McNabb and George A. Lane seized the man and ejected him from the building. With the assistance of a police officer they landed him in the station house. There it was learned who he was. He was searched and a small sum of money was found in his clothing. A book that he carried was written full of nonsense. In the station house the man yelled, sang, prayed and whistled all night, and no one could get anything sensible out of him. About half past ten o'clock his mother and sister called upon him, and they did not seem worried at his being locked up. John spoke in the same wild manner to them that he had to others. His mother seemed to be a little off, too, as she said to him, "Never mind, John, you won't be in here long; the good Lord will take you out; the devil put you in." Turning to Sergeant Erisman she said: "They say he is crazy, but on the day of judgment you will wish you were as crazy as him." All the time his mother was there John preached on religion and prohibition. This morning he was as wild as ever and he made some convincing arguments to the officers and a couple of reporters. His brother called upon and tried to quiet him, but his efforts were of no use.

He acted in a similar manner at the prohibition amendment meeting on Friday evening. He was taken before the mayor this morning, and the testimony of Dr. J. Y. Mitchell heard. The mayor remanded him to a cell and he was afterwards examined by Drs. Boardman, Baker and A. J. Herr, who pronounced him crazy. He was taken to the county insane asylum.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Special Services at a Number of the Churches.

There were special exercises at a number of churches on Sunday. At St. Paul's Reformed the thirty-ninth anniversary of the Sunday school was celebrated, and the church was handsomely decorated in honor of the event. The exercises consisted of singing by the pupils, responsive readings, a history of the Sunday school, by D. C. Haverstick; an address by Rev. J. T. Rossiter, of Baltimore. The history showed that the Sunday school was organized in 1850 with 126 pupils and 28 teachers. In the evening Rev. Rossiter preached to a large congregation.

At the First Reformed Children's Day was observed. The altar was handsomely decorated with ferns, hydrangeas and flowers. The programme consisted of hymns, antiphonal readings, and an address by the pastor.

In the evening Rev. Dr. J. M. Titzel preached a sermon to the children.

At the Church of God Children's Day was also observed. The church was handsomely decorated, and the exercises were very interesting.

At a number of the churches the prohibition amendment was made the subject of the sermon.

Sunday was observed as Children's Day at St. Luke's Reformed church, Rev. Wm. F. Lichliter pastor. The chancel was adorned with beautiful floral decorations, consisting of tropical plants, ferns and cut flowers. In the morning eleven children were baptized, followed by a short sermon preached by the pastor. At 6 p. m. the German service was held, Prof. R. C. Schiedt officiating, who preached an appropriate sermon. At 7:30 p. m. the festival service of the two Sunday schools was held. Nine of the children delivered recitations and the pastor preached from the words of Isaiah, "He shall gather the lambs with His arms and carry them in His bosom." The children of the primary department of the Sunday school answered readily the questions of a catechism on Children's Day and at the close sang sweetly the hymn, "Savior Like a Shepherd Lead Us." At the 8 service, like in the morning, the church was well filled with an attentive and interested congregation, and a good offering was presented for benevolence.

CHRIST KLINE'S PISTOL.

It is Discharged While the Officer is Making a Train.

On Saturday night Christ Kline, constable of West Hempfield, who is well-known to the citizens of Lancaster, where he spends most of his time, almost killed a man accidentally on Saturday evening. Christ was taking in the town in the neighborhood of the court house when he suddenly looked at the big clock and found that the hands were almost at half-past five. This is the time at which Christ always takes the train for Rohrerstown, so he found that he would have to hustle. He started on a run towards the P. R. R. station. After turning into Christian street from Grant he slipped. A revolver fell from his pocket and was discharged, when it struck the curb stone. The ball went whizzing past the head of a gentleman who was passing and might have been killed, as he plainly heard the noise of the bullet. Christ was not in a condition to be worried in the least by the occurrence, so he quickly picked up the revolver and made the train.

An Impudent Negro.

Ben Cato is the name of a colored man arrested by Constables Shaub and Merringer on Sunday. He was drunk and alarmed several persons living on Rockland street near the Old Factory bridge. He resisted the officers and it was with the greatest difficulty that he was taken to the station house. Alderman A. F. Donnelly will dispose of the case. The supposition is that he is wanted elsewhere.

Returned to Court.

Wm. D. Walton, charged by Margaret Gillespie with surety of the peace and carrying concealed weapons, was required to give bail for his appearance at the August sessions by by Alderman Halbach. The assault and battery case against Walton was dismissed.

The charge against Mrs. Gillespie for keeping a disorderly house, preferred by Wm. D. Walton, will be heard by Alderman Barr next Saturday.

HER SUFFERING OVER.

Mrs. Schleeger Dies After an Illness of Two Years.

COLUMBIA, June 17.—Mrs. Elsie Schleeger, wife of William Schleeger, died last night at 10 o'clock, at her home, No. 743 Locust street, in the 39th year of her age. She had been sick for the past two years and had been confined to her bed for the past year. She was afflicted with scrofula, which caused her death. Mrs. Schleeger was born in Westphalia, Germany, and came to this country about thirteen years ago. She was confined to her bed ever since her arrival in town. She was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran church. A husband and four children survive. The funeral will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from St. Paul's Lutheran church.

Officer Wittick arrested Charles Wadsworth, of Harrisburg, at Mountville, on a description sent to him by Detective Erb, of Harrisburg. The fellow stole three boxes of cigars, tobacco, razor strop and four razors from a cigar and barber shop in that city. Officer Erb came to town this morning and secured his prisoner.

Officer Schill arrested John Moore, an umbrella mender, for being drunk and disorderly on Saturday night. Squire Solly gave him three days in jail.

Frank Kern sued Edward Hamaker before Squire Solly for being drunk and disorderly. The case will be heard this evening.

H. W. Schlegelmilch sued John Boyle and Terence McGowan for being drunk and disorderly. Squire Solly will hear the case this evening.

Messrs. Jos. W. Clymer, Jno. T. Thatcher, Julius E. Blamberg, George Rau and Wm. A. Rhoades, of Philadelphia, members of W. B. Snyder lodge No. 419, F. and A. M., came to town on Saturday evening. They were met by a committee of the local lodge and royally entertained. They were given a boat ride on the river and a banquet at Warren's restaurant. On Sunday they were taken in carriages to Chickies rock and shown the surrounding country. These gentlemen were in town some time ago to attend the funeral of their late member, W. S. Leaman, when they were well received by members of the local lodge. As a token of their appreciation they presented their photographs in a large frame to Andrew J. Kauffman, secretary, and Robert S. Conklin, at that time worshipful master of the lodge.

B. Frank Watson entertained the members of the Lark club at a shad supper at Hinkle' hotel, in honor of his birthday.

Several of the local clergymen delivered sermons in favor of the prohibitory amendment on Sunday evening.

SERVICES AT ST. JOSEPH'S.

A Class of Over 200 Confirmed—Cemetery Dedication.

Bishop McGovern officiated at St. Joseph's Catholic church on Sunday morning, and confirmed a class of over 200.

In the afternoon the new cemetery of the church was dedicated in the presence of a large audience. It is located beyond the city limits, on the road leading from the Millersville turnpike to the Wabank road, and contains six acres of level land.

The Catholic organizations that participated in the dedication exercises formed on St Joseph street and marched in the following order: Iroquois band, F. E. Shroad, chief marshal, Knights of St. John, school children, sodalities, members of the congregation St. Joseph's society, St. Peter's society, St. Anthony's society St. Michael's society, Bishop McGovern, Fathers Schmidt, Christ and Kaul.

The route of parade was from St. Joseph street to Mulberry, to West King, to Manor, to cemetery. After the dedication of the cemetery the societies returned to the church, where a sermon was preached by Father Kautz, of Philadelphia, of the Redemptorist order. The exercises closed with the benediction of the blessed sacrament by the bishop.

After the benediction the Knights of St. John marched to the grave of Father Grotemyer, who was their spiritual director, and after the band played a dirge, prayers for the dead were recited.

TO-MORROW'S ELECTION.

The Liquor Men Well Organized in This City—A Large Vote Expected.

If the weather is good to-morrow there is no doubt that a large vote will be polled in this city. All indications point to a large majority against the apendment.

The liquor men have been very active during the past few days and they claim to have the town as well organized as ever it was at an election between the two great parties.

There is very little doubt of this, as the active workers of both parties in nearly every ward are with the liquor men, and they are working very hard. John Schaum, president of the Licensed Liquor Dealers' association, who has had two or three men at work for several weeks past, has arranged to have a headquarters for news at the City hotel to-morrow night. An electric light will be erected, and the returns as they come by telegraph will be displayed on a large blackboard.

The second amendment to be voted on is termed the suffrage amendment. Its adoption will do away with the payment of poll tax. All the party workers favor this amendment and there will probably be few votes cast against it.

HE IS NOW A LAWYER.

Geo. S. Landis, Formerly of the Intelligencer, Passes a Good Examination.

George S. Landis, a former typo on the INTELLIGENCER, will practice law in the city where he has resided for several years—Memphis, Tennessee. He graduated at the recent commencement of the Memphis Law school at the head of his class, missing but four questions out of 1,017 propounded at the final examination. His speech was upon "The Contract of Marriage," and the Memphis Appeal says: "His delivery was graceful, and his articulation deliberate and distinct, and he succeeded in making a fine impression. Mr. Landis' matter was well written, and embellished here and there with touches of sentiment naturally inspired by his reverence for the subject." He received a gold medal for the best examination, and a gold pen and holder for oratory.

Mr. Landis and his bride arrived in Lancaster on Saturday. He will leave this evening for New York and Niagara Falls, and return to Lancaster next week, and after a brief stay with his relatives in this vicinity, he will leave for his Southern home. While here he received the congratulations of many friends on his success in his new home, and wishes that he may succeed in his new profession.

Tariff Celebration Postponed.

John H. Landis' committee of one hundred, appointed to make arrangements for the celebration of the centennial of the first tariff on July 4th, met this morning.

The reports made by those present indicated that the proposed celebration would be a fizzle, and it was decided to postpone it until September or October. The main reason given for the postponement was that the date now fixed would bring it in the middle of harvest.

Aroused by Burglars.

Thieves attempted to rob the house of, Joseph Gerlitzki, jr., No. 77 Locust street this morning, between 1 and 2 o'clock. The thieves were heard by Mr. Gerlitzki attempting to get into his bed room and he gave an alarm that aroused all his neighbors. The thieves hurriedly left the house through a window, on the first floor. Nothing was stolen.

Deserted His Family.

Monroe Mellinger, of Ephrata township, was committed for trial to-day by Alderman Halbach for deserting and failing to maintain his family.

Shot in the Hand.

Charles Smith, a four-year-old son of Charles Smith, a salesman at Julius Loeb's notion store, shot himself through the hand at his home, on New street, Saturday. The boy found a revolver in his father's room while looking for a toy pistol. While playing with the weapon it was discharged. The bullet passed through the hand between the thumb and forefinger.

Thrown From a Wagon.

Felix Zelinoux is employed at the brewery of Frank A. Ricker, on West King street. On Saturday evening he was driving a one horse wagon out West King street, when suddenly the single-tree broke, the horse wheeled around and upset the wagon, throwing the driver out. He struck on his shoulder, which was very badly injured, although not broken. Dr. L. A. Warren attended him.

Released From Jail.

James Kiscadden was before Judge Patterson this afternoon on a wait of habeas corpus. He served a term of 30 days for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, and there was an additional charge of larceny against him. He gave bail on that charge and was released from jail.

OPEN-AIR meetings in favor of the Prohibitory Amendment will be held at the following points in this city at 8 o'clock this evening:

At corner East King and Middle streets—Addresses by Revs. Swank and Shindle.

"AND THINGS ARE NOT WHAT THEY seem." Common sense and thirty-five dollars seem all right, and if you look into this nice little arrangement, its like the Keeley motor, it won't work. A mere smattering of Book-Keeping and the mere opening and closing of a set of books does not constitute the entire course of the LANCASTER BUSINESS COLLEGE, No. 10½ East King street. Thorough instruction in all branches essential to business education constitutes the course. Terms consistent with the instruction. Address
