While He Is Shooting Crows the Weapon Bursts-Three Pieces Embedded in His Face-The Iron Removed.

Cotumbia, June 18, Dr. F. Hinkle, assisted by Dr. Heuston Mfilin, performed a difficult surgical operation at his office, yesterday, on Frederick Tome, a farmer living at Newbridgeville, York county. About four weeks ago Tome was shooting crows with an old muzzle loader gun, which exploded. The breech in three sections, Il inches each, ntered the man's face. One piece struck him on the bridge of the nose and was em bedded in the head, another piece entered under the right eye, lodging under the brain, while the third piece lodged in the roof of the mouth. Tome came to town yesterday, and, after being etherized, and the breech removed. The man bled profusely, but is improving this morning and will no doubt recover.

Mary Henrich, a daughter of Charles Henrich, died last night, aged 2 years and 20 days. The death was caused by spasms after a day's sickness.

The funeral of Mrs. Elsie Schleeger will be held on Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, from St. Paul's Lutheran church. A meeting of the Keelev Stove company directors was held last evening, when Arthur Bennett, formerly of Marietta, was elected secretary. John Roberts, of Washington borough, was elected order clerk. Joseph Hiestand, a clerk, handed in his resignation, which was accepted.

A good vote will be polled in town to-day, and the result will doubtless surprise many. A majority of the voters come to the polls with their tickets already prepared. The polls present an unusual sight to-day, as the familiar ward workers are in the minority while many prohibition advocates can be seen. At the Second ward polls, Rev. George Wells Ely, of the Presbyterian church, was engaged in work for the amendment.

John Boyle, Terence McGowan and Edward Hamaker were before Squire Solly last evening for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. They were discharged upon the payment of $2 tine and costs. A meeting will be held in Orion lodge room on Tuesday evening, for the purpose of organizing a lodge of the Order of Tonti. A game of ball was played yesterday afternoon between the Ironsides and a nine of P. R. R. employes. The former club won the game by a score of H to 8.

THE STREET COMMITTEE.

What Was Done at Their Meeting -New Work Ordered.
The street committee of councils held their regular meeting last evening. It will be necessary to finish up the pikes made last year by giving them a top dressing, and this work will be done at once. A sufficient quantity of stone for this purpose, the repair and new work, cannot be obtained from Engle's quarries at present. The street commissioner was instructed to purchase the stones where he saw fit.

Michael Reilly, at North Queen and James streets, was given permission to raise his gutter several inches. A trap was ordered on the inlet in front of Frank Krauskop's residence on Mulberry street. The following work was also ordered: Repairs to inlet at Pine street mill, gutter on Marion street, near Charlotte, repairs to Pine street, below Spruce, and Middle street, from Rockland to Lime, crossings at Walnut and Lime, and Hazel and Beaver streets.

The contract for furnishing backing stone was recently awarded to Samuel Resh at 4 cents per foot. He neglected to give the necessary security and last evening the contract was given to William Westman at bid was 6 cents, but he agreed last night to

The clerk was ordered to advertise for the paying of North Christian from Orange to Chestnut with Belgian blocks, asphalt paving or blocks. Citizens owning property along this street have already subscribed $425 towards the work, and that sum is likely to be increased to $600. It was therefore resolved to proceed with the work.

The wages of B. F. Trout, engineer of the road roller, was increased from $2 to $2.50 per day on account of long hours,

THE LUTHERAN MINISTERIUM. Selecting Delegates to the Next General

Council at Pittsburg. After the opening service of the Lutheran ministerium in Lebanon on Monday morning the report on the orphans' home and asylum was presented. There are now seventy-rine orphans in the home, six having been admitted and six having gone out of it, and thirty-two aged and infirm people, three having been admitted and three having died. The total amount of the endowment fund is $39,791.76, of which $1,339 were contributed during the year and $38,000 on hand before. Current re-ceipts were $10,737.76 and expenditures. ceipts were $19,757,76 and expenditures $19,759,42. Rev. F. Wishan and Reuben B. Miller were re-elected as trustees.

The report of the Emans orphans' home, at Middletown, shows a total income of $5,256,30, and an outlay of $6,198,33.

A Constable Walks. Some time ago we had an item concerning the ability of some of the constables in the pedestrian line. About the best of these is Samuel Shaub, of Lancaster township, This morning he had business at Kirkwood, Colerain township, over twenty miles from here. He arose early and walked from that place returning to Quarryville, where he took the train and was in Lancaster at 10 o'clock.

IN MEMORY OF REV. A. P. DILLER. The Minute Adopted By the Episcopal Convention in Reading.

At the diocesan convention of the diocese of Central Pennsylvania in Reading on June 12th, the report of the committee on special memorial on the death of the late Rev. Alonzo Potter Diller, rector of St. Mark's church, Johnstown, diocese of Pittsburg, was presented and adopted by a rising vote. Following is the minute prepared:

In accordance with the touching words of the right reverend, the bishop of the diocese, in his address to the convention, this convention desires to express its heartfelt sorrow at the loss of Alenzo Potter Diller, once a priest of this diocese), in the late terrible flood in the valley of the Conemaugh, while expressing the warmest sympathy with all the sufferers and the sorely bereaved, in this, "the most awful catastrophe that has ever befallen the English speaking race," they feel desirous of placing on record their heartfelt sorrow at the loss of the brave, Christian soldier who fell at his post of duty, who, by his many labors in the Christian work has left an enduring record behind him.

Christian work has left an enduring resolu-behind him.

Born in the diocese, educated within its boundaries, and in the general theologi-cal seminary, a faithful, loving son of the church, ordained by the present hishop of the diocese, laboring for six years in the parish of St. John's, Marietta, where to-day there are numbers that rise up and call him blessed, in labors abundant in his aminter to the souls of his people, while call him blessed, in latters abundant in his ministry to the souls of his people, while ever tender, kind and belpful to their bodi-ly necessities, his memory will always re-main a blessed heritage in that parish and in this diocese, It should always be remembered the way ever present at the post of duty, which is well illustrated when it is remembered that he volunteered for active service, when the smallpox epidemic raged in South Bethlehem, although his services were not

Bethlehem, although his services were not required.

And now, carried away by the overwhelming flood, from his post of duty, loved and honored by all that even in that intense pressure of duty of clearing away in Johntown all labor ceased by special command, while his body and those of his loved ones were carried to their last resting place to hie in that beautiful cemetery on the hill-side overlooking the scene of the late disaster, the place where he so lovingly labored, and had done so much forthe church's life, not only amongst the memly labored, and had done so much forther church's life, not only amongst the mem-bers of his own communion, but in develop-ing in one part of his field "organic" church amon with the churches of several denominations that few of us could deem possible.

Of him we can feel sure it has been said, "well done, good and faithful servant, enter into the joy of thy Lord."

The convention desires to express its sympathy with the right reverend, the bishop of Pittsburg, and that diocese in the loss of so faithful a clergyman.

The convention desires to express its warm and loving sympathy to his father, mother and his family in this time of their mother and his family in this time of their sore affliction, and would direct the members of the committee personally to present to Mr. Issae biller this testimony of the appreciation of Alonzo Potter Diller's work, and its sympathy with their family in this hour of their sorrow. in this hour of their sorrow, Signed by order of the convention.

Rev. F. J. C. Moran, B. D., on Sunday, Police Cases. Charles Braungard was heard before Alderman Halbach last evening on a charge of malicious mischief preferred by Jacob

Heinrich. The people are neighbors, and the prosecutor says that Heinrich nailed up the hydrant so that they could get up water. The case was returned to court but was afterwards settled. Frederick Dickel has brought suit before Alderman Hershey against George Miller 5 cents per foot; Mr. Westman's original of the Fifth ward. He is charged with assault and battery, as the presecutor say: he slapped his mouth. Bail has been en tered for a hearing. William Gross, for being drunk and disorderly, was held for a hearing by Alder man Deen. Kate Simpson, an old offender, was very drunk on the streets last night and a crowd of little boys followed her through the Reported by J. B. Long. streets until she was arrested. The mayor gave her five days. Viola Lindsey has been committed on a charge of a lultery with John Craig, for a hearing before Alderman Spurrier. Craig gave bail to answer a similar charge. The prosecutor is Grant Lindsey, husband of the woman, and all are colored Martha Fell was held in bail to answer at court the charge of assault and battery on Sarah E. Henry. The charge of surety of the peace was dismissed. Descried by Her Husband. This morning a lady, with a seventeenmonths-old child, by the name of Osiman, called at the mayor's office. She stated that she formerly lived in Minersville. Four weeks ago her husband told her to go to Tobias Denlinger's, at Leaman Place, where he had secured work and he would meet her. She went there, but learned nothing of her husband. She came to Lancaster to see if she could find him. The mayor turned her over to Chief of Police Smeltz, who will take care of her and in the meantime try to find her husband. She is entirely destitute and she has been placed at the Sorrel Horse hotel and is anxious for work. Any person giving her employment will be doing a charitable net. It is believed that her husband has deserted her and took this ontemptible way of doing it. His name is Frank Osiman and be is between 28 and 21 years of age. He is of dark complexion, with dark hair and moustache; he is rather heavy set and is of medium height. When last seen he wore light striped pantaloons a mixed dark coat and light felt hat. Granted by the Register. The following letters were granted by

STRAF TIES AND OXFORDS. MEN'S LOW SHOES!

We've not forgotten the men in providing shapes in footwear essential to summer comfort, whether for every-day needs or for fine dress. Those we adverneeds or for fine dress. Those we adver-tise to-day are medium grades, and un-usually good values at their respective prices; the more they're examined the better they're liked. Men's real Calf-Strap Ties; London tee, with pretty tips, solid leather outer soles, standard screw fustened, good substantial counters and sheepskin trimmings; a pretty shee that fits neatly and proves a wearer every time. The price is $1.25; that hardly pays for the material in them. Another of the same style, a lighter and finer grade than the above; French toe, light, broad flexible proid flexible soles, sewed, ensuring positive case and comfort to the wearer; solid leather bottoms and heels, good counters, sheepskin trimmings. Pretty for dress and gives surprisingly good wear for a shee of its weight; $1.50—that's cheap, isn't it? The third to tell of—a Seamless Real Calf Oxford Tie, neat London toe and pretty tips, sheepskin trimmings canners; that will outskin trimmings, counters that will out-wear the shoe, solid leather soles, in and out, sewed, and a finish that gives it a handsome appearance. Fits well, and right for service; $1.50. Another a Buff Leather Oxford Tie, circular scam, hand-Leather Oxford Tie, circular seam, hand-some tip, solid soles and heels, sewed, and excellently finished; admirable for dress and more good wear in them than you'll expect; $1.50. We've a pretty Strap Tie in very light calfskin, too, at $1.50; French toe, broad, flexible soles; as light upon the foot as a slipper; case, comfort and durability combined. Finer grades from $2 to $6
