TWO PORTRAITS,
oyal heart, to love a lady,
Stardy hands to work for bread,
seedy will to help the needy,
Well used brains within his head;
herry voice, a laugh, a whistle,
Pleasant eyes that see—and smile,
are that hear—not tags or gristle,
Fearless tongue devoid of guile:

Gentie eyes, for love and laughter,
Handsome hands, because they work,
Form an artist might look after,
Sunny mouth where smiles lurk;
Sun-kissed cheek, not art-enameled,
Mind kept free by reason's away,
Waist by fashion never trammeled,
Soul for study, work and play;

This is the lady of my dreams,

TO WEALTH FROM THE WASH TUB

A Country Lass is Surprised by Fortune and Promptly Marries.

On board the steamer Fowler, which left Nashville, Tenn., on Saturday, were a young bride and groom on their way to their home in Jackson county. They were married on Friday. Years ago the bride's father and mother, who had been living in Jackson county, moved to Illinois. Their married life not being happy they separated, the mother going back to Jackson county, where, after a time, she procured a divorce and married again. The father left Illinois and settled in Massachusetts, where he engaged in business, and in the course of a few years he had accumulated considerable property. His business associate was a gentleman named Cleveland, to whom he told the story of his past life. About a year ago he made his will, in which he left his entire estate to his daughter, if she could be found, and in a short while thereafter he died. His partner engaged a lawyer, who succeeded in finding the girl in Jackson county, living on a farm a few miles below Gainesboro. He found her at the washtub, and perfectly contented with her condition, earning the frugal sum of 25 cents a day. The lawyer told her of his mission, and had no little trouble to convince her of the truth of the situation. She could uot realize that she was to be put in possession of so immense a sum as $100,000.

went to Massachusetts and was immediately put in possession of the personal property, consisting of $9,000 and notes to the amount of $31,000. Her father's real estate was found to be worth $69,000. Having secured matters satisfactorily they left for Tennessee and arrived in Nashville a few days ago.

eft for Tennessee and a few days ago.

A young man named Shores, who lived near the girl, had for some time been her devoted lover, and they were engaged. Knowing the time of the girl's return to Nashville from her Northern trip, he went there, where they were married on Friday. They took passage on the steamer Fowler there, where they were married on Friday. They took passage on the steamer Fowler the same day for their up-country home. The young man is about 25 years old, very much behind the world in manners and dress, but honest and clever. The girl is of the same type, modestly clad in a simple calico dress. Her good fortune has not turned her head a bit.

A Multitude of Allments.

The allments which afflict the kidneys and dder are so numerous, that merely to name hem would fill a space far outrunning the mits of this article. Suffice it to say, that hey are both obstinate and dangerous. To heir prevention Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is heir prevention Hostetter's Stomach Ritters is well adapted. The stimulus which it lends to he action of the kidneys when they are letharpic, serve to counteract a tendency in them to apse, first, into a state of pernicious inactivity, and afterwards into one of positive organic disease, which soon destroys their delicate integunents, poisons the blood and causes death. A louble purpose is served by this depurent. It promotes activity of the kidneys, and expels impurities from the blood which have no natural channel of outlet, except these organs Constipation, billousness, fever and ague, theunatism and dyspepsia, are also remedies by his medicine of thorough action and wide cope.

THE GENUINE DR. C. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS!

Intemperance a Disease

truth which the experience and observation of medical men is every day confirming. The many apparently insane excesses of those who indulge in the use of spirituous liquors may thus be accounted for. The true cause of conduct, which is taken for infatastion, is very irrequently a diseased state of the Liver. No organ in the human system when deranged, produces a more frightful entalogue of diseased. And if, instead of applying remedies to the manifestations of the disease, as is too often the case physicians would prescribe with a view to the original cause, hewer deaths would result from diseases induced by a deranged state of the laver. Three-fourths of the diseases enumerated under the head of Consumption have their seat in a diseased Liver. The ground Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills, prepared by Fieming Bros. Pittsburg, Pa., are a sure cure.

Mr. Jonathan Houghman, of West Union, Park Co., Illinois, writes to the proprietors, Fieming Brothers, of Pittsburg, Pa., that he had suffered from a severe and protracted stack of fever and ague, and was completely restored to healthlighy the use of the ground Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills alone. These Pills unquestionably possess great properties, and can be taken with decided advantage for many diseases requiring invigorating remedies, but the Liver Pills stand pre-eminent as the means of restoring a disorganized liver to healthy action; hence the great celebrity they have attained.

Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburg, Pa., All druggists keep them. Price 25 cents a box.

S. S. S.

Our little girl when but three weeks old broke out with eczema. We tried the prescription from several good doctors, but without any special benefit. We tried S. S. S., and by the time one bottle was gone, her head began to heal, and by the time she had taken six bottles she was completely cured. Now she has a full and heavy head of hair—a robust, healthy child. I feel it but my duty to make this statement. H. T. SHOBE, Rich Hill, Mo.
