A motion was made and adopted dir set-appointed to investigate the charges preferred against Mr. Gates: Mr. President and Members of the Lancaster City School Hourd:

GENTLEMEN: The committee to whom was referred the investigation of the charges brought by the city superintendent against Mr. Gates respectfully submit the following report:

Charge I. Negligence. Specification No.1.
In regard to Mr. Gates not "filling out the pupils' monthly reports," we can only sus-tain this specification so far as the month of May is concerned. There was no evishow that it had ever occurred before, and the explanation of this occur rence for the month of May by Mr. Gate to your committee appears to us sufficiently satisfactory, that he intended no violation of any rule but to benefit his school and encourage the pupils.

Specification No. 2. There was no evi ice to show that Mr. Gates had neglected the teaching of the second class in drawing and writing—only that the work did no present the appearance desired by the Therefore we cannot sus superintendent.

Specification No. 3, Mr. Gates admits that the attendance for June 11th was not marked as late as noon of the 12th of June. This we find to be neglect, as we think certain rules should be observed in regard to marking, and that every teacher should call his or her roll and mark promptly at the opening of each session.

Charge II. Dishonesty. On every specification in this charge there was no evidence brought forward to prove dishon-esty; therefore we find Mr. Gates not guilty of this charge. Charge III. Other immorality. After carefully hearing and impartially consid-ering all the evidence on both sides we cheerfully report to the board that Mr Gates was not guilty of this charge nor any of its specifications. Respectfully submitted, G. EDWARD HEGENER. ROBERT M. BOLENIUS, M. W. RAUB.

Mr. Hartman moved that the report be received and entered upon the minutes of the board. Dr. Levergood moved as an amendment that the report be received and adopted as the judgment of the board. The amendment was defeated by a vote of 17 to 16, as follows: Messrs. Bolenius, Darmstetter, Erisman, Kautz, Levergood, Lichty, Marshall, McDevitt, Ochs, Owens, Raub, Schnader, Schroyer, Shirk, White and Dr. McCormick-16, voted aye. Messrs, Breneman, Brosius, Brown, Cochran, Evans, Griest, Hartman, Hegener, Lippoid, McComsey, McElligott, Killips, Pontz, Reynolds, Stauffer, Wohlsen and Wolf-17, voted nav.

The motion of Mr. Hartman was then adopted. A motion was made and adopted to go into an election for a teacher of the boys' grammar school on South Duke street and the following were placed in nomination: Frank Shibley, R. S. Gates, Miss Mary Palmer and D. K. Stamy. The election resulted in the selection of Miss Palmer by the following vote:

Messrs, Breneman, Brosius, Brown, Cochran, Hartman, Hegener, Marshall, McComsey, McDevitt, McElligott, Mc

Dr. McCormick-14 voted for Mr. Gates. Messrs, Griest and Ochs voted for Mr. Shibley. McComsey moved that Miss Clara O. Spindler be promoted to the place vacated by Miss Palmer. The motion was adopted.

Mr. Hartman moved that Miss Stiffel be promoted to the place vacated by Miss Spindler. The motion was adopted. The further filling of vacancies was deferred until the next meeting.

Dr. Levergood's resolution inquiring into the propriety of appointing a special com-mittee to report the advisability of granting diplomas to those who complete a two years' course in the high school was amended by Mr. Cochran, so as to include a report as to granting diplomas to graduates of the grammar schools and adopted. Messrs, Levergood, Reynolds and Stauffer were appointed the committee to report on

An invitation from George H. Thomas post to participate in the 4th of July exerises at the court house was received and

To fill the two vacancies in the Franklin and Marshall college scholarship, to which the board is entitled, Harry I. Evans and Harry Myers were elected.

On motion of Mr. Evans the property committee was instructed to have necessary repairs made during vacation and to contract for fuel.

On motion of Mr. Hartman the committee on furniture and apparatus was au-thorized to contract for furniture for the Chestnut street building, with the same firm that furnished the other school furniture, providing it could be bought as cheap as the other furniture.

A communication was read from the officers of the Strawberry street African church praying the board to sell some of the school ground adjoining the church for a parsonage. The communication was referred to the judiciary committee.

CITY SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT. Following is the city superintendent's

LANCASTER, Pa., July 2, 1889, LANCASTER, Pa., July 2, 1889.

To the Board of School Directors.

GENTLEMEN—Your city superintendent submits the following report of the public schools for the month of June: The whole number of pupils enrolled was 239 in the high school, 333 in the grammar, 599 in the secondary, 829 in the intermediate, 36 in the ungraded and 1,367 in the primary, making a total of 3.463. making a total of 3,403, making a total of 3,403.

The average attendance was 225 in the high school, 305 in the grammar, 528 in the secondary, 713 in the intermediata, 28 in the ungraded, 1,126 in the primary. Making 2,025 in all. The average percentage was 89. The number of pupils present every day was 850. The number of teachers who attended the meetings was 61. The following were absent: Misses Huber, Bushong, Guthric, Cochran, Underwood and Weber. No meetings were called of the high school grade. The number of visits made by the city superintendent the high school grade. The number of visits made by the city superintendent was 67, those made by directors numbered 95, as follows: Geo. N. Reynolds 24, J. McKillips 17, Dr. J. Levergood 14, Wm. McComsey 12, C. J. White 14, C. Lippold 5, H. A. Schroyer 7, W. D. Stauffer and J. 1. Hartman each 1.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant, R. K. BUEHBLE.

Mr. Gates' Statement.

Whatever the result was for or against us at the meeting of the school board last evening we leave the matter with our fellowman to judge whether there was sufficient cause for R. K. Buehrle to appear in public print against me in terms so broad and suggestive as those which appeared in the daily papers on Friday evening, May 21. The terms made use of were of such a naure as to lead those who read them to the conclusion that I had been guilty of deeds of the darkest character immaginable. Many no doubt will be surprised when they become familiar with the matter to find the case so different from what their imaginations have painted. The question all no doubt be asked why were not settled in private. To my fellow-men who have expressed so much sympathy in my behalf as well as to my mer boys now young men, who exhibit so much kind remembrance and devotion I extend my most heartfelt thanks. My present school boys and their parents have my sincere regards for their various expressions of confidence and good will.

By treachery and a disreputable combination in behalf of a relative of a member of the school board I was defeated as a candidate for the position that I have held for over 20 years. It gives me pleasure to state that I had the signatures of all our school patrons as a vindication that I had given them full satisfaction in teaching. Respectfully, R. S. GATES.

Railroad Employes Discharged.

A thunderbolt has been thrown among the Reading & Columbia railroad em ploves at Columbia, On Monday the entire system of the road was changed, and hereafter the main line of the road will run between Reading and Quarryville, instead of between Reading and Columbia. By this change Columbia will have no direct communication with Reading, and passengers will have to be transferred at Lancaster Junction, as this point will be the terminus of the line. Hereafter freight cars will be attached to all the passenger trains that arrive and depart from Columbia. On the Marietta branch but one passenger train is running, the other trains having been dispensed with and their crews discharged. The shifting engines in the vards at Columbia have been taken off and their crows discharged. Many of the discharged men have large families and are much concerned at their discharge. Other changes are expected.

In the local about the changes on the Quarryville railroad, mention of one train was forgotten. It is that which leaves Quarryville at 11:45 a. m., and arrives at King street at half-past twelve, running on through to Reading. This train has lately been arranged and it will be a great benefit to lower end people.

Charged With Stealing Dry Goods. On Monday Harry Stamm, of the Boston core, in Centre Square, reported to Chief Smeltz that on Saturday he had sold to a farmer named Harnish, residing on the Old Factory road, a bundle of dry goods: On the way home the goods had been stolen. from the farmer's wagon. On Monday as man names Stranss, of Chester street, went to Stamm's store and told Mr. Stamm that a girl had brought a bundle of dry goods to his house and she wante I to sell them. He noticed a bill of sale from Stamm's store and took it from the package with a sample of the goods. The chief to-day made complaint against the girl, whose name is Lillie Franklin, before Allerman Hubach, ant had her arrested. Back From South America.

Harry Covode, formerly assistant supervisor of the section of the Pennsylvania railroad between Coatesville and Columbia, arrived in town last night. Since February list Mr. Covode has been in South America. He went to look after some railroad work that he contemplated doing in Chili. He crossed the Andes mountains and rode for days on the backs of mules. Mr. Covode was also in Argentine Republic and other countries of Brazil. He met Reah Frazer of this city, who is in the mayy, several times on the trip. Mr. Covode left this afternoon for Grand Rapids and will return to South America later.

A Large Fish.

The largest carp ever taken from the onestoga, which seems to be full of them, was eaught at the second lock by Al Nickel and Casper Kirchner, of this city, yesterday. It measured two feet in length, 17 inches around the belly, 11 inches around the gills and weighed 7 pounds 14 ounces.

MANY PEOPLE ATTEND THE EXERCISES AT THE MILLERSVILLE NORMAL SCHOOL.

A Class of Thirty-five Graduate-Thos Who Received Degrees-The Alumni Meeting and Class Reunions.

A meeting of the Alumni association of the Millersville Normal school was held on Tuesday evening, with a large attend-

Among the prominent alumni present were the following: Rev. B. F. Shaub, Ph. D., ex-principal of the school; Dr. Edward Brooks, ex-principal of the school; J. Zeamer, editor of Carlisle Volunteer ; J. S.

Barnett, editor of Delta Herald; Prof. R. M. McNeal, superintendent of Dauphin county; Prof. H. C. Brenneman, superinendent of York county; Wm. D. Weaver, district attorney of Lancaster county; J. H. Bikel, esq., Norristown, Pa.; Harry Strohm, Lancaster; Prof. J. S. Taylor, New York city; Dr. C. Lenker, Schuylkill Haven; Rev. N. C. Fetter, New Britain; Miss Marion Gibbons, of the Philadelphia Press; Prof. G. W. Krall, of the manual training school, St. Louis, Mo.

The Normal and Page glee clubs sang an introductory chorus, after which Mr. J. Zeamer, '68, of Carlisle, Pa., editor of the Carlisle Volunteer and president of the Alumni association, delivered a salutatory address, in which he pointed out many of the obstacles that meet young graduates when they go out into active life. False ambitions, the greed of getting, and political dishonesty were especially pointed out as the greatest enemies of our liberties and the greatest hindrances to true progress.

He thought that developing the intellecwithout developing the conscience consti-tuted no progress and emphasized the idea

Miss Jenkins, of Johnstown, Pa., sang beautiful vocal solo which was so much enjoyed that she was recalled, and as an encore sang very prettily "Crossing the Miss Lavinia J. Coates, '79, of West Grove, Pa., read the essay. Her subject was "Roots and Branches." Her essay was a temperance allegory. Under the figure of trees she represented the virtues and vices of the day. The tree of intem-perance in its early stages of growth was dwarfed and spread out over the ground, then a pruning knife called license was applied, which severed the lower branches. The tree thereupon grew taller, more dignified and robust. In time another pruning took place. High license cut away still higher branches and now the tree, deep rooted, tall, stately and protected, bears golden fruit and bids defiance to all measures which tend to uproot it.

Mrs. Taylor '79, of New York city, sang vocal solo. She sang a part of "Home Sweet Home," and was very much applauded.

A. Carson La Barre, esq., '71 of Easton, Pa., delivered the oration. His subject was "Sequence of Deeds," and he showed the power of right action and wrong action. The history of nations show that acts of courage, virtue and manliness have a long train cf vigorous, sustaining life giving followers. He showed how one ict leads to another, and how by reason of the sequence of deeds nations arose and fell, and closed by applying the same course of reasoning to the building of individual character.

At the request of President Zeamer, Dr. Lyte read the list of this year's graduates and recommended them to the friendship and confidence of the association. Th president responded for the association. velcomed them to the ranks of the alumni and expressed the wish that they as alumn would never forget their duties to their alma mater.

The officers elected for the ensuing year were: President, R. M. McNeal, '70 county superintendent of Dauphin county vice president, Harry Strohm, '70, Lancaster; secretary, Sarah H. Gilbert, '77, Millersville; treasurer, A. R. Byerly, '58 Millersville.

Executive Committee: Dr. G. W. Hull. Millersville; A. O. Newpher, Millersville W. D. Weaver, Lancaster; Miss Annie L. Hartman, Lancaster; Miss Sarah H. Gilbert, Millersville.

A. F. Hostetter, esq., Lancaster, was appointed orator for next year and Miss Rose Stewart, '80, Philadelphia, essayist. During the day there were reunions o the classes '59, '69 and '79 at which class histories were read. A. O. Newpher read that of '50, Dr. B. F. Shaub that of '69 and J. E. Baker, Octoraro, that of '79, COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

WILD FOR ART.

Exciting Scene At a Great Paris Sale of Paintings. Paintings.

A dispatch from Paris thus describes the sale of Millet's great painting, "The Angelus," at Secretan's sale on Monday: Auton Proust, French minister of fine arts, was bidding for the Louvre.

There was a profound silence when the "Angelus" was announced, and when the auctioneer, his voice trembling with excitement, asked for the bid, a voice in the rear auctioneer, his voice trembling with excitement, asked for the bid, a voice in the rear of the gallery cried: "one hundred thousand francs." "A bas, a bas?" shouted the audience, and there was a storm of hisses. Feral and Mannheim, the Hotel Drouot experts in charge, called out that no bid of less than 300,000 francs would be received, whereupon Proust and Knoedler simultaneously screamed" Troi cent mille?" There was a shout of applause, and then dead silence. When Knoedler, for the Corogan gallery, bid 400,000 francs, everydead silence. When Knoedler, for the Corcoran gallery, bid 400,000 franes, every-body who was in the room know who the bidders were and the American advance of 100,000 franes at a single coap disheartened the natives. When, however, Proust raised Knoedler 50,000 franes there was a dim of cheers, which again subsided when Montaignae, representing the American Art association, bid back 50,000 franes again, and thereby brought the price up to 500. and thereby brought the price up to 500, and thereby brought the price up to 500, and 500 francs. Proust's next bid was of only 1,000 francs, and Knoedler had evidently reached his limit, but Montaignae called back 502,000, and was at once met with Proust's 503,000. It looked as if the Louvre was telegraphen.

Chevalher, who was as anxious for French victory as any of his countrymen, called in tremendous tones for another bid, and, receiving none, called "once," "twice," and just as his hammer fell Montaignac shouted 504,000, but the bidders did not heed him, and a tremendous din arose. France had saved her picture, and that was enough for them. It was not sufficient for Montaignac, who pushed his way through the shouting mob and with wild gesticulations chamored for fair play. English and Amer i an dealers took up the cry, and finally some of the Frenchmen who had heard the bid added their voices to the demand that the picture be put up again. The auctioneer the picture be put up again. The auctioneer yielded, and the American gallery had another chance. Proust raised him another thousand, but it was evident from his man-ner that he had almost reached his limit And now an unprecedented scene occurred. The French were excited. They could not lose after having once been assured of victory. From all over the gal-lery they shouted subscriptions of 10,000, of victory. From all over the gallery they shouted subscriptions of 10,000, 20,000, and even 100,000 franes to Proust. The bidders caught the infection, and by 1,000 franes at a bid the price advanced to 54,000 franes, when it was knocked down without further opposition to the Louvre. The enthusiasm of the previous victory became frenzy. "Vive Proust?" "Vive ta France?" "Vive to Louvre?" "Vive Millet?" "Vive l'Angelus?" "Vive Part?" shouted the patriotic Frenchmen. They shouted the patriotic Frenchmen. They fell upon Proust's neck and wept They tried to lift him on their shoul ders; they almost wrung his hand off, and those who could not reach his hands leaned over the shoulders of the others and shricked frantically while they clawed at his clothes. It was a quarter of an hour before the sale could be proceeded with, Other prices realized at this, the most noted sale of the age, were almost equally good. The ninety-six paintings that were sold on Monday brought almost 3,700,000 francs, an average of about 30,000 francs each. There yet remained minety one pictures of the collection to be sole Fuesday.

The total sum realized from Tuesday's sale was $380,493, which added to the total of yesterday's sale, $743,720, makes a grane total for the two days of $1,124,212. Collectors and amateurs who were anx ious to secure for the Louvre Millet's pic-ture, "The Angelus," subscribed 200,000f. of the amount paid for the picture at the sale vesterday.

Mr. Sutton, an American collector, has offered to donate 50,000f. to the poor of Paris if Mr. Proust will resell the painting at the price he paid for it—553,000f.

Death of a Lutheran Divine.

Rev. William Rath, of Allentown, one of the oldest and best known Lutheran elergymen in the state, died on Wednesday at his summer residence near Centre Valley, in the 63d year of his age. Rev. Mr Rath studied theology under the late Rev. Jeremiah Schindel and was licensed to preach in 1851 at Lancaster. In 1852 he was installed as paster several congregations in Northampton county, where he remained until 1857. when he resigned, to serve the charges at Salisbury, Zionsville, Blue church and Apple's church, whose pastor he remained until the time of his death. He had been in feeble health for some years, but only two months ago did his condition become serious. Rev. Mr. Rath was recognized as a preacher of great ability and was twice elected president of the second conference of the synod of Pennsylvania. MANY LIVES ARE LOST.

PROBABLY TWENTY-FIVE OR THIRTY PER-ISH IN THE WRECK IN VIRGINIA.

Names of the Victims-Seventy Passen gers on the Train at the Time of the Disaster-The Boller Explodes.

The loss of life by the wrecking of a passenger train on the Norkfolk & Western railroad, near Thaxton's switch, about 30 miles above Lynchburg, Virginia, early Tuesday morning, was greater than reported on Tuesday. The water at the washout was about eight feet deep, and the engine dashed into this, carrying with it eight cars. The rushing of the water in the locomotive exploded the boiler, and the woodwork of the coaches was set on fire. It is supposed that some of the passengers were unable to extricate themselves from the wreck and perished in the flames. The number of persons killed is not known, but the most reliable estimates place it at between 25 and 30. There is no telegraph communication nearer than Liberty, and it was difficult on Tuesday night to get information from there, as the Norfolk & Western officials refused to permit reporters to go on a train which went there.

The Baltimore Sun says the baggage, express, smoker, passenger and two Pullman cars were hurned baying taken fire from press, smoker, passenger and two Pullman cars were burned, having taken fire from the explosion of a gasoline lamp in one of the coaches.

The train went into a chasm created by wash-out while it was going at the rate of wash-out while it was going at the rate of forty miles an hour.

The numes of the killed, as far as positively ascertained, are: Patrick Donovan, Lynchburg, Va.; Charles Bruce, Roanoke, Va., fireman; L. B. Summers, Abingdon, Va., mail agent; Nathan Cohen, merchant, Roanoke, Va., en route to Germany to visit his parents; W. C. Stead, Cleveland, Tenn., en route to Paris; A. M. James, Roanoke, Va., travelling engineman of the road; J. W. Linsay, Roanoko, Va., train dispatcher; John Kirkjatrick, Lynchburg, Va.; Dennis Melon, Roanoke, janitor of the general offices of the Norfolk & Western Railroad company, was en route to New York to be married; A. L. Little, of Staunton, Va.

It is believed that 15 or 20 others perished, as there were nearly 70 persons on ished, as there were nearly 70 persons on the train, and between 15 and 20 are unac-counted for. The dead were horribly crecounted for. The dead were horribly cremated.

The injured are: Bishop Alpheus W. Wilson, of Baltimore, wrist cut and body slightly bruised. He is at a hotel in Roanoke, and will be able to leave for Baltimore in a few days. The bishop lost his gold watch, all his clothing and $300. M. F. Temple, Pottsville, Pa, head and limbs burned. F. T. Dexter, Beverly, Mass., severely bruised on the head and body. J. B. Young, Radford, Va., arm mashed. Mrs. Judge Thompson, Staunton, Va., bruised and deranged with grief over the death of her little neice. Roland Johnson, Roanoke, Va., conductor, frightfully cut on the head and face. E. C. Dubarry, superintendent, bruised severely. W. C. Glass, Roanoke, baggage-master, arm broken W. H. Hayward, Pullman conductor, shoulder hurt. J. D. Tanner, Lynchourg, Va., badly bruised. Joseph Goldberg, New York, leg and shoulder bruised and hand hurt. Miss Inez, Jackson, Texas, bruised. R. B. Goedfellow, Roanoke, hand and foot injured. J. C. Cassel, Roanoke, superintendent, arm hurt. H. W. Marsin, Chattanooga, Tenn., cut and bruised. M. D. Temple, Chicago, back injured. Mrs. R. B. Young, Marshall, Texas, badly bruised. on the body of Mr. W. C. Stead, of Cleveland, Tenn., was found the sum of $14,000. He was on his summer vacation and was going to England.

Lynchruno, Va., July 3.—The scene of the terrible disaster near Thaxtons on the Norfolk & Western is beyond description There is hardly enough left of the train of eight cars that took the leap to the bo tom of the awful pit to make one car.

As soon as the boiler of the engine ex ploded, the entire mass of debris took fire those who went down who were not killed outright were burned to death. Portion of eight bodies have been taken out, and it is believed that fully fifteen others were entirely consumed by the fire.

DEATH OF DENNIS REILLY.

The Prominent Contractor Dies in Easton on Tuesday. Dennis Reilly, of Reilly & Oliver, pro prietors of the Easton sheet iron works, died at the United States hotel, Easton, or Tuesday afternoon, of cutarrh in the stomach. He was 53 years old and has been sick since February.

Mr. Reilly was born in County Cavan, Ireland, and came to this country when he was 12 years old. In 1864 he went to Easton as a member of the firm of Reilly McGrann & Co., contractors. He built th Lehigh & Susquehanna railroad bridge over the Delaware and Lehigh rivers and built five miles of track. Later Reilly, M. Mr. Reilly was well known to the people of Lancaster. He was an uncle of Richard M. and W. H. Reilly, of the firm of Reilly Brothers & Raub, having been a brother to their father, who has been dead many years. He was a partner of several Laneaster countians at different times in rail road work. He very frequently visited this city. The remains were brought to Lancaster this morning by W. H. Reilly, nephew of the deceased, and were taken to the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary A. Reilly, on East Orange street. The funeral will take place from there on Friday. TO-MORROW'S TOURNAMENT. A Big Day Promised For Wheelmen If the Weather is Good. The wheelmen of this city have been greatly worried over the condition of the weather for the past twenty-four hours-In case the sun comes out brightly, in time to dry the track at McGrann's park there will be tremendous crowd of people at to-morrow's races. It is certain to be one of the most successful events that have ever taken place in Lancaster, provided the weather man is with the wheelmen. It is no wonder that the latter are anxious about the appearance of the sun, as they have made the most extensive preparations for the tournament and have gone to considerable expense. A great many wheelmen from different parts of this and neighboring states will arrive early in the morning. The parade will take place at half-past one o'clock and all wheelmen in the city are invited to take of yesterday and last night flooded out five families in Cambria City. The water came pouring down the mountain last night, filling the first floors of the houses, destroying all the furniture that had been saved from the big flood. There is great alarm among the people over the condition of the Conemaugh river.

The water rose 5 feet this morning in 2 hours and carried away the foot bridge above the Pennsylvania railroad station. There was danger of the temporary bridge erected by the B. & O. going out. Six loaded freight cars were run out on the bridge to save it. About 10 o'clock the abutments began to sink. The temporary bridge erected at the lower end of the Gautier offices is almost a total wreck. Portable bridges over Stony creek were only saved after very hard work by the engineers. At 11:30 it was thought all danger had passed. Then a Tresh storm broke over the valuey. The rain is coming down in torrents and the people fear that the Conemaugh will yet sweep over its banks and flood the town.
