THE FATE OF A BOY.

BOWER AT HARRISBURG AND HIS BODY IS POUND OPPOSITE MARIETTA.

iains Buried After the Inquest. But Exhumed and Identified By the Brother of the Lad.

Thursday afternoon the body of an aknown boy, apparently about thirteen are of age was found floating in the aquehanna, just above Coyle's Ferry, sich is in York county almost directly posite the railroad station in Marietta. in Sharp was gathering wood along the ore when he saw a strange looking ob-et which had lodged in the willows a short ce from the river bank. He made a r examination and found that it was body of a boy and was stark naked, body, which was very greatly decomseed, was taken ashore and Deput roner Jacob Thuma was sent for. He pannelled a jury consisting of George inton, John Sargent, Burd Weaver, John cElroy, John Buchanan and Harry nitt. A verdict of accidental drowning rendered, but no one was able to tify the body. It was buried on the county shore near where it was

From the appearance of the body it is beed to have been in the water for at mest ten days. It no doubt came from some place up the river, and as it had no slothing the probability is that the boy Harrisburg came to Marietta to-day to look

Since the above was written the body as been identified as that of Eddie Windor, a thirteen-year-old boy of Harrisburg, rho was drowned while bathing on last Saurday. Israel and Christian Hanlen and Edward Wagner, of Harrisburg, were ning near where the body was yesterday, and they at once concluded that I was the Harrisburg boy. When they went home they informed the father who morning. He had the body disinterred, and at once identified it as his brother. He had it coffined and took it to Harris-

THREE CARS DERAILED.

A Tenin Strikes Another and Gives the Wreckers Two Hours' Work.
COLUMBIA, July 12.—A freight wreck ocurred yesterday on the Pennsylvania milroad in the west yards, blocking the tracks for about 2 hours. Engine No. 1,242 was pulling off main track with the train en engine No. 11 came up through No. I siding with train running about 12 miles an hour, evidently bent on beating engine No. 1,242 out of the yard. Engine No. 1,212 was at the Bridge street crossing when engine No. 11 went past and before No. 1,242 could be stopped ran into the train. Three cars were thrown off the track, one of the cars lying on its side. The wreek erow were in service and cleared the track in about 2 hours.

Getting Away From the Heat. The rush to the seashore, which was deliyed by the wet weather, has now commenced, and during the past few hot days people have been getting away from town ind many are preparing to leave.

H. S. Williamson, of Williamson & Foster, with his wife and children, of this city. and his uncle, Jesse Williamson, of Trenton, are at the Bristol hotel, Asbury Park. Among the guests at Curlew, Asbury Park, are: E. H. Brown and wife, Mrs. H. S. Gara, Miss Gara, Mrs. H. L. Brene man, Miss E. A. Brubaker, Miss H. Heitshu, of Lancaster, and Miss G. E. Heitshue of Portland, Oregon.

Penryn's Pientes.

Next week will be a lively one at Penryn, and Charlie Eckert expects to have his hands full. On Tuesday, July 16, Red Rose Commandery, Knights of the Mystic Chain, will go up, and they expect a great time. On Wednesday the Evangelical Sunday school, of this city, will be there, and on Thursday the Ridge Avenue Sunday school, of Harrisburg. Saturday the employes of the Cornwall iron company and Cornwall railroad will have their anpual reunion, and there will be quite a crowd of them in attendance.

The Tucquan Club. The Tucquan club left at 6:30 this moru-

ing for York Furnace to go into their encampment. They took a large party, and there is no doubt that they will enjoy themselves greatly. They are equipped for a good time and they are the boys to have it. Big fish stories will be heard for a Insulted Women.

Constables Merringer and Shaub arrested John Moore, a stranger, at the corner of Duke and Church streets last evening. He had insulted a number of women. Moore gave the officers great trouble to get him the station house. Alderman A. F. Donnelly committed him for five days.

Case Settled. George W. Conner, who was charged with embezzling $18 from Assembly No. 8,649, of Knights of Labor, has settled the the amount of the claim and costs.

Remembered On His Birthday. Fred Engle was 54 years old on Thurs-day, and a number of his friends decided upon a surprise for him. He was induced to go to Graeff's landing hotel in the evening and was surprised to find a number of his intimate friends there. He was still more surprised when Benjamin Simmons, in a neat speech, presented him with a Master Mason's pin. Mr. Engle was too surprised to reply, but City Solicitor Brown for him thanked the donors for the handsome gift. After the presentation dinner was served and a good time generally was had. The evening was pleasantly spent in speech making and singing and at the ad-journment all wished Mr. Engle many returns of his birthday anniversary.

Arrested for False Pretence. J. Wesley Kauffman, a former resident of this county, but who has been in Ohio for some time, came to Landisville to visit relatives a few weeks ago. He ran out of money and borrowed from his relatives by representing that he had money in Ohio, which he had sent and it would reach him in a day or two. He secured $5 from Simon P. Eby, of this city, by the same representations. Mr. Eby, after he gave him the money, investigated the matter and learned that Kauffman's representations were false. Complaint was made against him before Alderman Halbach and Constable Kline arrested him. Kauffman is endeavoring to raise money in this city to pay the claim.

He succeeded this afternoon in getting a friend to become surety for the amount of the claim and costs of suit.

Wonderful Jackets. From the Ladies' Gazette of Fashion.

Short jackets are very fashionable of black cloth, with various colored waistcoats black cloth, with various colored waistcoats trimmed with gilt buttons and braided with gold. Another favorite style has a turn-down velvet collar and semi-fitting fronts fastened at the throat with three large buttons. Many rather dressy jackets are of greenish-gray cloth, cut out in tabs and turned back so as to form loops, through which a soft silk searf is worn. These jackets are worn open with a yest of plain material fastened down the worn. These jackets are worn open with a vest of plain material fastened down the middle with gold buttons. The newest dust cloths are of silk or woolen material, almost tight fitting, very long, fastening at the throat and waist with metal clasps, three-quarter length sleeves, widening from the elbow and slightly turned back with the shot silk with which the mantle is lined. Another style has the back fitting to the figure, the lower one pleated, the flat sides of the lower one pleated, the flat sides of the cleak forming panels. Wide hood lined with silk and a ribbon holds the pleats in place, starting from the centre of the back. More dressy cloaks are trimmed with lace and passementeric.

Presbyterian Memorial Piente. The Presbyterian Memorial pienic at Littiz, on Thursday, was a great success. There were about 400 present. A heavy shower at 10 o'clock interfered some with the pleasures of the pienickers for a short time. Following was the result of the sports:

100 yard dash, (winner), Elmer Sing; spoon race, Geo. Beek; throwing the hammer, Edward Shank, 39 feet; barret race, Geo, Beck; half mile race, Jacob Stauffer; bag race, J. Humphreyville; girls' 50 yards dash, Miss Sadie Styer; senior 100 yards dash, H. C. Moore; three legged race, Ffautz and Plaster: running and standing broad jumps, Amy and Weaver; potato race, J. Humphreyville; one mile race, Wm. A. Brinkman. Time, 6 minutes and 3 seconds.

Jake Parkes On a Fishing Trip. Jake Parkes, the candy vender, was on a fishing expedition on Thursday. He sat in expedition on Thursday. He sat in moored at the ice houses near Reigart's landing all afternoon. A sunfish,' the size of Clem Kennedy's campaign boxes, was all he caught. He had three rods and lines and two hats, one of the latter being a straw fez. The other hat, a Barley big black felt, capped a post in the water a few feet from where his lines were cast. It is the custom to put scarecrows in corn fields and upon cherry trees, but Jake is the first person to introduce them to fishing Castle, No. 58, K. G. E., went to Marletta | Pools. Probably he placed the extra headgear on the post to keep alligators and whales at a safe distance from him.

Convulsions Among Children. Convulsions seem to be prevalent among children at present and they are attributed by many to the very hot weather. Quite a number of children have died of them recently. Frank Fritseb, of Laurel street, lost a child three months old yesterday from that cause and one four months old died for Harry Coble, of Water street.

Porters Race. This afternoon Charles Adams, a colored porter of the Hotel Lancaster, and Ed Clark, porter of the American house, began talking about their running abilities. This led to a wager, and each man put up a dollar. Just before the 2:35 train came in they ran from Duke street to North Queen, on Chestnut, and Clark got the money, defeating his competitor by several Funeral of Mrs. Mary Reiner. The funeral of Mrs. Mary Remer took place from her residence, No. 714 North Duke street, at 9 o'clock this morning. The remains were taken to St. Anthony's church, where a requiem mass was celebrated by Father Kaul. Interment was made at St. Joseph's cemetery.

Moore's Ball Reduced.

John Moore, against whom suit for $5,000 damages for slander was entered by Augustus Linton, was arrested by the sheriff and taken before Judge Patterson on Thursday. The court reduced the bail to $500. Moore gave bail for that amount and was released from custody.

Damaged the Crematorium Property. Harry Whitmer and Eiam Eisenberger have been prosecuted before Alderman Barr for malicious mischief and malicious trespass. The complainant is Charles Baldwin, superintendent of the Lancaster crematorium, and he alleges that these boys maliciously stoned the building and trampled the growing crops. Bail was enered for a hearing.

Attending a Conventi n.

C. W. Heitshu, of the Farmers' bank, who has been on a vacation for a week or more, is attending the state meeting of the Sons of Veterans at Renovo, which was in session Wednesday, Thursday and to-day, Interfering with the Harvest. The farmers in the lower end of the county have been unable to make much progress with the harvest on account of rain storms. On Wednesday afternoon there was a heavy rain storm, and on Thursday there were two, one shortly after noon and the second at five o'clock.

Threw Stones at a House. Wm. Herman was arrested to-day on a warrant issued by Alderman A. F. Donnelly charging him with malicious mischief. Andrew Kray is the prosecutor and he claims that Herman threw stones and dirt at his houses. The defendant gave ball for a hearing. Another Poor Family.

Fr on the Burlington Free Press.

Mrs. Dumpsey—For shame, Willie! You've been fighting again. Your clothes are turn and your face is scatched. Dear me, what a trial you are! I wish you were a girl girls don't fight.

Willie Dumpsey—Yes, but ma, don't you think it's better to have a good square fight and get all the mad out of you, than to carry it around, the way girls do, for months?"

A Neat Bit of Sentiment.

From the Washington Post.

Brander Matthews tells a good story of the ethical influence of the East on the wild and woolly West. A young Bostonian, reared beneath the brow of Bescon Hill and educated at Harvard, went to Texas and turned cowboy. He rapidly caught the spirit of the county and as rapidly shook of the outward semblances of tenderfooted Eastern habits. Rough beauded, leatherciad, sombrero as wide as the widest, forty-two calibre Colts on his hips, he was as wild as the wildest. Yes, within his bosom a ill burned the flame of Boston culture and refinement.

One day he was riding with a stranger across the prairie. Turning his he d sudde ply the was slightly ahead) he saw his companion make a suspicious motion toward his hip pocket. Without hesitation he drew his revolver and shot him. The stranger dropped like a log. The cowboy dismounted and looked at the body of his victim.

"I wonder if he was really going to shoot me?" he soliloquized. "I'll see." Turning the body over he discovered a flask of whisky protruding from the pocket.

"Poor fellow!" said he in a tone of regret. "I've made a mistake. I've killed an innocent man and a gentleman at that. He wasn't going to shoot me; he was going to invite me to have a drink. Well," he sighed, drawing his sleeve across his month, "the last wishes of the deceased shall be respected."

shall be respected."

FTEDERICK T. ROBERTS, M. D., Examiner in Medicine in the Royal College of Surgeons, Lon don, Eng., in speaking of Bright's Disease, says:
"Death is usually hastened by uric acid poisoning, scrous inflammation, bronchitis, pneumonta, dropsy, or by apoplexy." Warner's Safe Cure is a guarantee against fatality from these terrible maladies, because it cures the couse (diseased kidneys), and puts the kidneys in a healthy condition, enabling them to expet the poison or waste matter from the system.

Deaths.

SCHAEFFER.—In this city, on the 10th inst. Coursed F. J. Schaeffer, son of Conrad and Louise Schaeffer, in the 21st year of his age. The relatives and friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend the funeral, from the parents' residence, No. 202 West Orange street, on Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. In terment at St. Joseph's cemetery.

L. PFAEFFLE, Prop. BROAD-SOLED : EASY ! COMFORTABLE !

SHOES FOR HEAVY MEN!

Eight out of every ten large and fat men don't know that shoes to fit them are possible ready-made. They think ready-made are just made to fit the average sizes foot, that their only resort is the custom shoemaker, who makes for any size and charges accordingly. We have a number of broad-soled shapes, with plenty of room inside for the expansion of the feet that must needs bear and afford locomotion to the heavy weight that's often above them. Often, too, there's more comfort and less work. There's difference enough in price to warrant giving us a call, if not buying and trying these shapes. ($2 to

A word about Russet Shoes. A good assortment for your choice to-day. Sizes to fit babe, and make it feel fashionable and comfortable, as well as for all other members of the family between it and grandparents. Youths' line now full and complete to meet inquiries— sizes 11 to 2, inclusive. Better values, too, than you'll expect for your money. Our efforts are directed in creating surprises that way, whatever your pur-chase may be. Every other sort of Summer footwear you'll prefer for mountain, seaside or rural ramblings. Prices pleasing even to those economically in-clined.
