THE CRY OF THE DREAMER.

I am tired of planning and toiling
In the crowded hives of men;
Heart weary of building and spoiling
And spoiling and building again.
And I long for the dear old river
Where I dreamed my youth away,

For a dreamer lives forever. And a toller dies in a day.

I am sick of the showy seeming Of the life that is half a lie; Of the faces lined with scheming. In the throng that hurries by, rom the sleepless thoughts endeavor, I would go where the children play;

I feel no pride, but pity, For the burdens the rich endure;

There is nothing sweet in the city But the patient lives of the poor. Oh, the little hands so skillful, And the child-mind choked with weeds, The daughter's heart grows willful.

And the father's heart that bleeds.

No, no! From the street's rude bustle, From trophies of mert and stage, I would fly to the wood's low rustle And the meadow's kindly page. Let me dream as of old by the river, And be loved for the dream alway : For a dreamer lives forever, And a toiler dies in a day.

A Long Engagement.

Says a special from St. Cloud, Minn., dated the 10th inst.: "Mrs. Mary A. Thorp, of Washington, D. C., and Arthur W. Delany, of Sun River, Mon., were married here to-day. Twenty years ago Miss Thorp and the gentleman who is now her happy husband met in Washington and they became engaged. Delany moved to Sun River, Mon., where he amassed a fortune as a ranchugan. They corresponded, but for some unknown reason the marriage was delayed. A few weeks ago they agreed to meet at St. Cloud and be made one. The bride is a fine looking lady of about forty and prominent in the social circles of Washington, while the bridegroom is twelve years her senior."

Patent Nose Clamper. From the Chicago News. "I've made my fortune at last, " ex-

"Fve made my fortune at last," exclaimed the inventor, joyously. "Fve invented a combination eyeglass and clothespin and I'll sell a million of 'em right here in Chicago."

"What in the world will any one want with such a contrivance as that?" asked his sceptical wife.

"Why, the Chicago river is still manufacturing smells, isn't it? And there are a million people in Chicago, aren't there? Well, my invention fills a long-felt want, and that's all there is about it."

and that's all there is about it. Tough World. From the Binghamton Republican.

Flossic is six years old. "Mamma," she asked one day; "if I get married will I have to have husband like Pa?"
"Yes," replied the mother with an amused smile. "And if I don't get married will I have to be an old maid like Aunt Kate?"

"Mamma"—after a pause—" It's a tough world for us women, ain't it?"

In the Nutmeg Country.
From the Boston Record.

Up in Connecticut the grocers understand all the little tricks of the trade. A gentleman bought six pounds of sugar and found it sadly adulterated with sand. The next day a notice was posted reading thus:

"Notice—I bought six pounds of sugar of a grocer in this village. From it I have taken one pound of sand. If the rascal will send me six pounds of sugar I will not expose him."

The next day five six pound packages were left at the gentleman's residence, there being just five grocers in the village.

PROF. WM. R. THOMPSON, M. D., of the Un-versity of the City of New York, says that more adults are carried off in the country, by chronic kidney disease than by any other one except consumption, and yet many people look upon a slight kidney difficulty as of little consequence. Others take Warner's Safe Cure and remove any possible danger. When kidney dis-case becomes chronic or Bright's Diseage, it becomes a very serious matter.

Over the Pathless Ocean, Athwart vast continents traversed by mighty iron thoroughfares, many-armed like the fabled Briarcus, myriads set forth daily to encounter the vicissitudes of travel, change of climate, unaccustomed food, and an atmosphere, possibly miasmatic, yet with a calm confidence that their health will be preserved. When this confidence is based upon the pos-session of the supreme medicinal defense. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, it is indeed well founded, otherwise not. Brackish water, bad food, the wearying and other bad effects of railroad joiting, sea sickness and nervousness, aggravated by a journey and its attendant discomforts, are shorn of their pernicious influence by this sterling alterative, pacifier and compensating medicine, invaluable for dys-pepsia, feebleness, nervouncess, constipation, malarial disorders, rheumatism and kidney

A Woman's Discovery.

Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermind and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz. Thus write W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at H. B. Cochran's Drug Store, 137 & 139 N. Queen St., Lancaster, Fa.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the exeruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINS-LOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regu-late the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere, 25 cents a bottle. june25lyd&w

W. P. Sait, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and cured of Rheumatism of 10 years standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Beliville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 30 years experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Ricod. Only a half dellar a bottle at H. B. Cochran's Drug Store, 137 & 139 N. Queen St., Lancaster, Pa. The Verdict Unanimous.

SHOES FOR HEAVY MEN!

Eight out of every ten large and fat men don't know that shoes to fit them are possible ready-made. They think ready-made are just made to fit the average sizes foot, that their only resort is the custom shoemaker, who makes for any size and charges accordingly. We have a number of broad-soled shapes, with plenty of room inside for the expansion of the feet that must needs bear and afford locomotion to the heavy weight that's often above them. Often, too, there's more comfort and less pinch in ours than those of measured pinch in ours than those of measured work. There's difference enough in price to warrant giving us a call, if not buying and trying these shapes. ($2 to
