A Large Circle of Friends in Washington Borough Mourn Her Demise—A Body Washed From the Grave.

COLUMBIA, Pa., July 16.—Miss Henrietta Ortman, daughter of Isaac Ortman, a well known resident of Washington borough, died at her home at that place last evening at sunset. The death was caused by typhoid fever and consumption, after an illness of six weeks. The deceased was aged 17 years and a large circle of friends mourn her early death. The funeral will be held on Thursday morning at 10 o'clock, from the Church of God at that place.

A body of a man was found floating in the river above Wrightsville yesterday afternoon by three boys. It was thought from the man's appearance to be the same man who was found in the river several weeks ago. Deputy Coroner Hershey went to that place and found the body to be the same. The man who had buried the body placed it too close to shore and it was washed out by the recent flood. The remains were in a fearful condition and a portion of the right arm gone. The body was again buried.

W. W. Sandford's Explanation.

W. W. Sandford, who was arrested on the Fourth of July, for obtaining firecrackers by false representations, has been released from jail. Alderman Barr gave him two weeks' time to raise the money to pay the bills and costs, and held him in his own recognizance to appear and settle the claim.

Mr. Sandford called at the INTELLIGENCER office to-day and took exception to that part of the publication calling him a "pious fraud." He admits having procured the firecrackers, but denies having made false representations. He says he was given the goods on credit, but was unable to pay for them, having failed to receive money he expected.

He says he never played the pious racket to defraud anybody, and he is given the benefit of that statement. He is of opinion that he would have been out of this trouble several days ago, if the letter he sent his father would have reached him, but unfortunately was opened by his mother, who he says has no liking for him, and she took the responsibility of writing to Alderman Barr that nothing would be done for him.

When his father returned home and was shown the letter he promptly sent the young man money to pay his board and promised to send him sufficient to pay the claims against him.

A Lady's Sudden Death.

Mrs. Anna Maria Raub died very suddenly at her residence No. 27 West James street, on Monday evening. She seemed to be in good health last evening and up to the time that she went to bed. About 11 o'clock she was taken ill and rapidly grew worse. Dr. Levergood was sent for, but it was too late and she died in a short time. The physician pronounced the cause of her death heart trouble. Deceased was 63 years of age and a widow of John Raub, butcher, who has been dead for 20 years. She leaves two sons, Harry and Jacob.

Ran Away With $5.

Edward Sloat, of New Holland, was given $5 to get change yesterday. He went off with the money and failed to return. Upon inquiry it was learned that he came to Lancaster. Complaint was made against him and Constable Nagle went to the edge of the town to meet the stage, on which Sloat was a passenger.

The constable served his warrant on Sloat but by the time he had finished reading the document Sloat had skipped. The constable ran after his prisoner, but Sloat was too fleet of foot and escaped. He is still a fugitive.

Sold His Wife's Body For $10.

Helen May McGowan's parents, living at Dewitt, Mo., refused their consent to her marriage a year ago with Alexander Maggart. The young couple eloped, came to Texas and settled near Dallas. Last Wednesday Mrs. Maggart died and was buried Thursday. That night Mrs. McGowan arrived for the purpose of embalming the body and taking it to Missouri for burial. Maggart told the mother she could have his wife's body for $10, and said he would die before letting it go for less. The mother paid the price demanded.

The Oldest Man in the World.

The oldest man in the world, in all probability, is Nagy Ferencz, of Bares, Hungary. He was born in Hedrahelz 121 years ago. Twenty years of his life he spent as a soldier and fought against the 1st Napoleon in several famous battles. Early in life he was crossed in love and has been a misogynist ever since. He has used tobacco for 104 years, and has indulged more or less in beer or wine. He is in perfect health, has all his faculties and can recall events of his childhood readily. He likes to gossip, and his conversation is very entertaining.

THE TELEPHONE POLES.

The Manager Notified to Remove Those on North Christian Street.

The street committee met on Monday evening and decided to look at the streets this afternoon, for the repair of which petitions were presented at the July meeting of councils.

F. Aucamp, who had been awarded the contract for building the sewer on Mifflin street, between Christian and Duke streets, appeared before the committee and said that he could not build the sewer at the price bid because of the large number of spings in that half square.

City Engineer Herr stated that the sewer to be properly built should be cemented, on account of these springs. The committee decided to allow Mr. Aucamp $210 to build the sewer and he accepted the work at that price.

The clerk of the committee was instructed to notify the manager of the telephone company to remove within three days all the company's telephone poles on North Christian street, between Chestnut and Orange, and failing to do so the street committee will have them removed. The committee expect the telephone company to resist having the poles taken away. It is probable that there will be trouble, and it may end in the courts.

The committee placed Christian street, about being paved, under the control of Contractor Galbraith and he was authorized to close the street and prevent its being used until his work is done.

The time and place have not been determined. The details will be announced when all the arrangements are perfected.

Indications point to a large excursion on Monday next to Lauer's park, Reading, for the benefit of St. Anthony's church. This will be the fourth annual excursion to that city and the previous trips were enjoyed by all the participants.

On the Monday following the Young Men's Democratic society will run an excursion to the same place and all that were on the former excursion of this association will go this year, because they had a pleasant time. The excursion will be well managed and there will be lots of pleasure.

Forfeited His Bail.

William Oram gave bail for a hearing before Alderman A. F. Donnelly a month ago to answer a charge of assault and battery, preferred by Alice Eisenberger. He failed to appear at the time fixed for the hearing. The alderman forfeited his bail and issued an attachment for him. He kept out of the constable's way until yesterday when he was seen and arrested. He was taken to the alderman's office, where he entered new bail for a hearing.

The Schuetzen Verein.

The Lancaster Schuetzen Verein are having a shoot to-day, and there is quite a large crowd in attendance, including a number of members of the North End Rifle club and riflemen from Columbia, Quarryville and other places. There was some rifle practice this forenoon and the king shooting is taking place this afternoon.

A New Plug.

At the INTELLIGENCER corner Water Superintendent Frailey is putting in a new style fire plug. It is the make of the Eddy Valve company. One advantage of it is that if anything becomes wrong with it repairs can be made by simply taking off the top and if it has to be taken up the street need not be dug.

Plenty of Work to Do.

North Queen street is very busy just now. Three large buildings are being erected in the first three squares, and it keeps the voluntary superintendents very busy to look after all of them as well as the market house.

Chickens Stolen.

Last night a chicken thief entered the premises of Fred. Bender, barber, at 551 West King street, and stole a hen with a brood of five little chickens. They were game birds of the best breed and Fred. has good reason to be angry to-day.

An Always Welcome Visitor.

The employes of the Pennsylvania railroad are all smiling to-day. Their pay car came in early this morning and they received their cash for the month.

THE MUDDY CONESTOGA.

The Stream Was on the Rampage Yesterday and Overflowed.

Lancaster has had muddy water nearly all summer and no one will wonder at it if they take the trouble and a car to go out to the creek. The Conestoga is very muddy and it was higher last evening than at any time this season. The water began coming up in the morning and continued to rise until 6 or 7 o'clock in the evening. It began to fall about nine o'clock. Many people went out to Potts' to see the stream. None ventured in, as the water was not only high but very swift. It was all over Potts' pretty little grove, and the boat-houses looked like crafts, while the little dock was standing on its head.

Between Ranck's mill and Witmer's bridge the road was covered, and the water was up to the buildings at Tells Hain. A field, belonging to Philip Betz, on the opposite side of the creek, was covered completely, and to-day there is a good-sized lake upon it.

The stream has fallen, but is by no means low yet.

Could Save the City $10,000 a Year.

D. C. Sprucence, the electrician from New York, who made an examination of the old water works on Monday with a view of ascertaining whether it could be used as an electric light station, left for New York last night. He will prepare a plan of the works and submit a report to the August meeting of councils.

Mr. Sprucence thinks well of the proposed project. He says that he can take the power there, put in an electric light plant and with the necessary auxiliary steam power needed, light the entire city with electricity and save it $10,000 a year. To light the entire city he estimates would require 40 miles of wire, but then the gas and gasoline lights could be dispensed with. The dam he thinks should be raised one foot, but that, he says, could be done without damage to any other persons having water rights on the creek.

Two Charges Against Him.

Simon F. Albright, an old justice of the peace of Maytown, has been prosecuted before Alderman Deen for extortion. There is also a suit against Albright, Levi H. M. Young and Benjamin Koons, charging them with conspiracy. The prosecutor is John H. Sterner. He says that he owed a bill to one of the accused and Albright tried to collect it. He induced him to come into his office and threatened to lock him up on a criminal charge if he did not pay $15 and the costs. Sterner paid the money after having much trouble and he has now brought these suits.

Convicted of Malicious Trespass.

Alderman Barr heard Harry Whitmer and Elam Eisenberger last evening on a charge of maliciously trespassing upon the grounds of the Crematorium society and destroying property. Whitmer was convicted of malicious trespass, and was sentenced to pay the costs. The malicious mischief cases against both boys were dismissed.
