to his wide circle of relatives and friends, who sincerely mourn his loss. Few of our people are better known or more highly respected than Dr. Blair, and his death is generally lamented. His uniform kind-ness of disposition made him friends with all classes of society. Dr. Blair was the son of James and Jean (Campbell) Blair, and was born in Strasburg, Lancaster county, in 1826, and came to York in 1850. He received an academic education in the schools of Marviand and Southern Pennsylvania, and read medicine with Dr. Samuel Keneagy, of Strasburg, and Dr. T. N. Haller, of York, also attend-ing lectures at the Jefferson Medical college of Philadelphia, from which institution he graduated in 1853. He began the practice of medicine in York the same year and continued in successful practice until 1836, when he was elected superintendent of the schools of York county. He resigned in 1862, and was appointed acting assistant surgeon by General Wm. A. Hammond, surgeon general, U. S. A. He remained in this service until September, 1865, and immediately resumed practice of his profession. He was a member of the York County Medical association, State Medical association and American association. In 1864 he married Miss Cassandra Morris Small, daughter of the late Philip A, and Sarah Small, of York. One child was born to him, Philip S. The doctor was a member of the Presbyterian church. The funeral will take place to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock. Death of Geo. B. P. Bingwalt.

THE GORHAM CLUB.

They Will Not Locate Here Permanently

But May Play Some Games. The Gorham club, of New York, the rivals of the Cuban Giants, in the Muldle States League, appeared in York-vesterday and outplayed the home team, winning by the score of 6 to 4. This morning W. Pell, manager of the Gorhams, came to Lancaster to ascertain what could be gained in locating here. The Gorhams are not patronized well during the week at their grounds near New York, but on Sunday they can draw largely there. In case they played their week day games here they would like to play in New York on Sunday. That jump would eat up almost all they would get in ear fares. At present they do not think it advisable to loca's here (ermanently, but they will try and arrange to play some of their championship as well as exhibition games here. The ground was offered to them at very reasonable terms for the remainder of the year by Mr. Pontz.

· A MIDNIGHT MARRIAGE.

Jobs For Deputy Orphans' Court Clerk Kauffman and Alderman Barr.

Deputy Clerk of the Orphans' Court Samuel L. Kauffman was awakened shortly before midnight by a violent ringing of the door bell.

Mr. Kauffman got up, and was told that he was wanted at once to issue a marriage license. He thought to-day would do as well, and at first declined to come.

Upon being told that it was a matter of the greatest interest to the parties concerned that a license should be procured, he went to the office and issued the neces sary license.

The parties applying for the license were Frederick Atllebach and Mary S. Widmyer.

As soon as the license was issued the parties went to Alderman Barr's office and at midnight be united the pair in a jiffy. The ccremony was performed at that un usual hour because it was late at night when the constable arrested Mr. Attlebach for having wronged Miss Widmyer. Afflebach agreed to right the wrong and for that reason Mary was anxious to have the ceremony performed at once. The bride is from this city and the groom from Manheim township.

Died in Minnesota.

H. E. Anderson, of this city, received a telegram this morning bringing the news of the death of his brother, M. B. Andern. at Zumbrota, Goodhue county, Minnesota. The deceased was a sou of J. C. Anderson, late of Lancaster, who moved to Minnesota, one year ago. He moved West from Lancaster fifteen years ago. He was a farmer, and at the time of his death was deputy sheriff of his county. His wife, who survives him, was formerly Miss Ella Atkinson, of this city. He was 42 years of age, and leaves two sons and a daughter, the eldest of whom is 18 years of age. H. E. Atkinson will leave for his brother's home to-night at 11:10.

The Ropes Will Be Up.

The chief of the fire department says that it is the duty of the police force to watch the ropes at fires. The ropes have been carried by the hose carts. Several of these did not have them recently and they got out of the way of carrying them. The chief this morning supplied carts of Nos. 1, 2 and 3 companies and they will be put up in the future.

A priving Accident.

Last evening Capt. W. D. Stauffer had an ceident on North Queen street. He was out driving with his family and some visiting relatives in one of Powl's two-horse phatons. Just after he had crossed the milroad track on North Queen street the axie of the hind wheels snapped in two. That was the only dumage done.

THE BICYCLE TOURNAMENT.

The Town Will Be Full of Wheelmen the Remainder of the Week.

The bicycle tournament of the Lancaster Wheel club commences to-morrow and there will no doubt be a very large crowd in attendance. Wheelmen will be present from all over the eastern part of the state. as well as from New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland.

The team race promises to be the great event and teams will be entered from Reading, New York, Wilmington and Lancaster. The Lancaster riders will be D. H. Miller, George F. Kohler and Alvin Reist. The men are all in good condition and expect to make a very fine showing. The lantern parade, which takes place on Thursday evening, promises to be very pretty. The line will be headed by buglers on horse-back. The route of the parade will be as follows: Form on North Duke, right resting on East King, out East King to Queen, down Quren to Vine, to Prince. to West King, out West King to Mulberry, up Mulberry to Walnut, to North Queen, wn North Queen to Square and dismiss. There is much enthusiasm among local wheelmen in regard to the parade, and a number of clubs from a distance will participate in it.

More Suits Against Him.

On Saturday evening John alias "Cotty" Wagner raised Cain at the house of T. J. Armit, a neighbor. He was then arrested for surety of the peace and drunken and disorderly conduct on complaints made before Alderman Deen. He furnished bail before Alderman Pinkerton and was released. Sunday night he returned to Armit's house and acted badly. New suits have been brought against him before Alderman been and he is charged with disorderly conduct again as well as surety of the psace.

A Fine Crop of Tobacco. Martin Sharffer, of Intercourse, has a patch of over one and a half acres of Havana tobacco, the leaves of which measure from 32 to 36 inches in length, and from 18 to 29 inches in width. It is said to be the ficest patch of tobacco in the county, and Mr. Shaeffer has been offered three hundred dollars for it as it now stands. It was farmed by Geo. Wade.

Lancaster City School Statistics.

The annual report of the Lancaster city school district for the year ending June 28 was sent to Superintendent Higbee today by City Superintendent Buchrle. From it are gleaned the following statistics: Whole number of teachers 78, of which 8 are males and 70 females; the average salary of male teachers is $78.87, and of females $37.70 ; the number of male pupils attending the schools of the city were 2,245, and of females 2,258, making the total attendance 4,503; the average daily attendance of scholars was 3,184, and the average cost of each pupil per month was 33 cents. The financial exhibit of the board appeared in the annual statement of the finance committee published in the July proceedings of the school board.

The Knights of Mystle Chain Picnic. Although the crowd in attendance at the cnic of the Knights of the Mystic Chain at Peuryn yesterday was not as large as was expected, those present had lots of fun. There was dancing all day, and in the afternoon a game of base ball was played between a nine from Wilcox's eigar store and a team of the Knights. The score was as follows:

Back From the Conemaugh Valley, This afternoon twenty-six men, who for almost a month past have been working in the Conemangh valley clearing up the ruins for the Pennsylvania railroad, came home. The remainder of the 106 who were up will come back to-morrow. They were working under the charge of John E. Clark and received $1.20 per day and their ward.

Charged With Cruelty to Animals. Elias Beck and Christian Eckert, of Monterey, are charged before Alderman Pinkerton with crucity to animals and disorderly conduct. The prosecutor is David Fry, who says that on Saturday night these two men, while drunk, abused a horse. One was on the animal's back while the other was pounding him. Constable Ruth arrested Beck yesterday, but did not get Eckert.

A Circus On Saturday. Lancaster is to have another cheap circus. On Saturday T. K. Burk's show will be here, and will appear at McGrann's park. Big attractions are offered, and the prices are very small.

Two Sent Out. Jimmy Ryan, an old pencil peddler, who gets very drunk, was sent out for 10 days by Alderman Deen this morning forthe same old offense. Mash Nash, a very had looking darkey, got five days on a similar charge.

Crowds at the Flying Carriages. The flying carriages which have been put up at Lime and Chester streets drow a tremendous crowd of people last night and everybody seemed to enjoy the old style of fun.

A Lancaster Contractor Gets It. John Keller, of this city, has received the contract for making the new race track at Monmouth. It will be a mile in length and one of the finest in the country.
