And Love was gay;
"Well met, sweet Love," we said—
He tossed his golden head
Like a little child in play;
He said, "O happy day!
For not all hearts are dead,
Not all are old and cold; My silver chains enfold.

I wept," he said, "for loves not true;
I smile," he said, "for you and you"—
Then, lisping out some tender word,
And looking up and laughing low,
He snatched the bowstring from his bow
And bound us with the silver cord;
Nor ever shall the sad fates sever
The twain that Love made one forever,
—George Collevell in the Argosy.

Three Rebellions a Day.

Three rebellions, obstinate, though bloodless, occur in the stomach of the dyspeptic who partakes of food thrice a day. The digestive organ refuses on each occasion to perform the duty assigned to it by nature, and trouble ensues. How discipline, how regulate it? Simply with a wineglassful of the genial invigorant and appetizer, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, before each meal and before retiring. Digestion will, after a course of this pleasant regulator, become easy, and its forerunner, appetite, also improves. Nervousness and insommia, always induced by chronic dyspepsia, will disappear with its disappearance thus insured, and constipation and billousness, its usual attendants, also take their leave. Not only will the system acquire strength, but also substance by a more perfect assimilation of the food. Rheumalism, malarial and kidney complaints and neuralgia, yield to the Bitters. A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests but her vital organs were undermind and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle has been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus write W. C. Hamick & Co., of Shelby, N. C.—Get a free trial bottle at H. B. Cochran's Drug Store, 137 & 139 N. Queen St., Lancaster, Pa.
