THE AFFIDAVIT MAN.

Here lies the affidavit man
Who swore to circulation,
Although deceased he has increased

His worldly occupation.
In life he lied but once a day—
A petty little crime—
But since in death he's lost his breath
He now lies all the time.

The Toughest Fish Story Yet Told. om the Philadelphia Press. J. W. Kiesler, late commander's clerk, United States navy, now a resident of Honesdale, Pa., tells the following story of a remarkable experience of an American sallor with a whale. He says: George Leenard, an acting master in the United States navy during the civil war, and stationed on board the gunboat Katahdin, West Gulf block-dding sonadron, in 1893, told a story of sgunboat katahdin, West Gulf block-ing squadron, in 1863, told a story of rolam and exhibited marks on his body it corroborated his words. The year of found Leonard as one of the crew of sahip Enterprise, a whaler in the North cific. One day he was stationed in the bow Pacific. One day he was stationed in the bow of a whale boat a long distance from the ship with a brave crew, who had sighted a whale and made for the monster with all possible dispatch. When within proper distance Leonard threw his harpoon, striking the fish hard and deep. In some manner the line, as it was was running out, caught the body of one of the men in such a way as to throw him overboard. The man suchenly sank, whereupon Leonard transferred his line to a boatmate and sprang into the ocean in sid of the drowning sailor.

The whale, now maddened by his fast flowing blood, made a rush for the boat. Remarkable and horrible to relate, Leonard's friend had managed to regain the boat, while he himself was caught by the whale between his jaws, his position being inside the monster's mouth, with nothing protruding but one of his arms. In this manner the man was in reality within the jaws of death itself. The whale instantly plunged down into the deep, and, in the words of Leonard himself, "the fish seemed to be going down, down into eternity itself."

Itself."

The imprisoned man, after all this, had not lost his presence of mind. He mustered his entire bodily strength—and he was a powerful man—actually bracing himself in such a position as to compel the fish to spread his jaw; at the same time, with his arm that was free, he grabled the sheath knife out of its socket, slashing right and left. No sooner was there a sufficient opening made than Leonard forced his body outside.

Up to the surface he swam, when, most

Up to the surface he swam, when, most Up to the surface he swain, when, most strange to say, he found himself within an arm's length of his boat. He was saved. The marks of the whale's violence and the dents of his teeth were plainly visible on Leonard's arms, and he was always pointed out by his brother naval officers as "The Second Jonah."

The Closing of an Important Outlet. The blockade of a port is not more injurious o its commerce than is even the temporary obstruction of the bowels to the health of the system. Constipation necessarily arrests the se-eretion of bile, impedes and disorders digestion, and poisons the circulation. The safest and most effective, as it is also the most genial, laxative and anti-billous medicine in existence is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and it is more than probable that its sovereign efficacy as: preventive and remedy for intermittent and remittent fever is largely due to its reformatory action upon the liver, an organ prejudicially involved in all malarial complaints. Persons with a tendency also to rheumatic, neuralgia and kidney trouble can not do better than to antagonize it with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which invariably checks it at the outset. The weak moreover, are invested with strength by this fine invigorant.

Epoch.

The transition from long, lingering and painful sickness to robust health marks an epoch in the life of the individual. Such a remarkable event is treasured in the memory and the agency whereby the good health has been attained is gratefully blessed. Hence it is that so much is heard in praise of Electric Bitters. So many feel they owe their restoration to health to the use of the Great Alterative and Tonic. If you are troubled with any disease of Kidneys, Liver or Stomach, of long or short standing, you will surely find relief by use of Electric Bitters. Sold at 50c and 81 per bottle at H. B. Cochran's Drug Store, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa. Epoch.

Mothers! Mothers!! Mothers!!!

Are you disturbed at night and broken or your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? I so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINS LOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regu-ate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic, it is perfectly safe to use in all cases and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and urses in the United States. Intemperance a Disease

SWIFT SPECIFIC CO.

S. S. S.

Our little girl when but three weeks old broke out with eczema. We tried the prescription from several good doctors, but without any special benefit. We tried 8.8.8., and by the time one bottle was gone, her head began to heal, and by the time she had taken six bottles she was completely cured. Now she has a full and heavy head of hair—a robust, healthy child. I feel it but my duty to make this gatement.
