THE GRAND COUNCIL'S MEETING. Many Sons and Daughters of America Meet Here-Visit to Lancaster Council.

The Grand Council of the Sons and Daughters of America held their quarterly meeting in Odd Fellows' hall, this city, yesterday afternoon, and finished all of heir work before evening. Sixty-five representatives were present, among them being the twenty-three grand officers. Many of the delegates were ladies.

Fifteen delegates were admitted into the nd council from subordinate councils. The report of the grand secretary was read. It showed that there are twenty-eight cils of the order in this state, with a total membership of 3,389. The receipts of subordinate councils during the last quarwere $4,401.50. The amount paid out relief and funeral benefits was $3,672. The total worth of the order is $26,374.52. After the transaction of some other siness of a private nature the Grand Council adjourned. The grand officers visited Lancaster Council No. 25 last evening. They were cordially received by a large attendance of council's members, who entertained them in a handsome manner, after which they were treated to refreshments. Lancaster Council was found to be in a prosperous condition, having upwards of ninety memers and $800 in the treasury. The council is a little over four years old.

Merchants Pienie. The Retail Merchants' association of Octoraro will hold their second annual pienie in J. R. Townsend's grove, near yrna, on Tuesday next, and they expect a fine time. The exercises will commence at 10 o'clock in the morning. The presint of the association is John D. Harrar, of Christiana, and secretary F. W. Weaver. The executive committee consists of Edwin Brinton, F. W. Weaver, E. M. Townsend, Lewis Coates and M. P. Cooper. The reception committee is Samuel Carter, Harry Davis and Henry Rakestraw.

THE P. R. R. RULES. Hackmen and Hotel Porters Must Not

Annoy Travelers in the Station.

The backmen and hotel porters have just received their orders from the police offi-There has been complaint, for some time past, by the patrons of the road, who are annoyed by these men, and this station is the only one between New York and Philadelphia, from which they are not sint completely out. To-day Officer Wash Pyle, actively out. ng under the instructions of Wm. Brady, who is at the head of the officers, informthe hackmen and porters that hereafter none of them will be allowed to go past the iron posts on the Chestnut street side of the station to solicit customers. If they bring a trunk to the station they will be allowed to take it to the baggage room, but after they have attended to that business they must at once retire to the pavement. This rule applies to every backman in this city. Herotofore the employes of the City Transfer company have been the favorites, and the railroad people allowed them inside. They will have to stay out also in the fu-ture. Officer Pyle has been ordered to remain at the station for the present to see that the new rules are obeyed.

Wm. Bierbach, prosecuted for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, was sent to jail for three days.

He Assaulted His Uncle. Harry Springer, arrested on Tuesday for drunkenness and disorderly conduct, by Officer Shertz, was heard by the mayor this morning. It was reported that he had struck his mother, but the evidence failed to prove that fact. It was shown that he was under the influence of liquor, and he struck his uncle, John Potts, in the face with a stone. He was committed to the station house for twenty-four hours, and a fine of $1 and costs imposed.

Will Do Work On a Railroad. J. F. Stauffer, of this city, has received a contract for grading a portion of a railroad, near Easton, on the eastern shore of Maryland. To-morrow he will ship a lot of horses, mules and carts to that place to do the hauling. Charles E. Haberbush furnished twenty-five sets of heavy work harness for the stock, and they had them tried on this afternoon.

Quarreling at a Woods Meeting. A colored wood meeting was held in Sweeney's woods, near Rawlinsville, on Sunday. A man named Proctor appeared on the grounds during the afternoon with a bill for $2 that was owing for printing bills to advertise the affair. The presen tation of the bill raised a fuss and the minister came down from the pulpit to take a hand in it. On account of this trouble the meeting came to an abrupt close.

Will Prepare a Report. On next Friday morning there will be a meeting of representatives of all the companies of the 79th regiment, at Alderman Barr's office. Col. Hambright will also be there. The object of the meeting is to compare notes and prepare a report of the part the regiment took in the battle of Chickamauga, the record of which does not appear on file at the war department.

Started For Europe. J. L. Steinmetz, esq., of this city, left this afternoon for New York, whence he will sail to-morrow for Europe on the Augusta Victoria, the new and elegant steamer. He will travel through England, Ireland, Scotland, France and Germany, and will spend some time at the Paris Exposition. He expects to be gone about three months. Two Dead Dogs. Jacob B. Bunting was called upon Monday evening to kill a dog belonging to James Hudges, of Lafayette street, which was believed to be mad. Jake soon dis patched him with his trusty gun, and tored a big hole in him. This morning a dead dog, which was probably poisoned, was found on East King street near the Farmer's bank.

Now Behind Bars. George Kreiner, who has been on a drunk for some time, threatened to kill his wife this morning. He was complained against before Alderman Spurrier for surety of the peace and drunken and disorderly conduct and was locked up. Good Templars' Convention. A meeting of Lodge 64, Good Templars' was held on Tuesday evening. Arrangements were made for the county convention of Good Templars to be held at Strasburg on August 10th. The Vanderbills Now Own It. A representative of Vanderbilts on Tuesday in Shamokin purchased the in-terests of a number of heavy local stock-holders in the Beech Creek Coal company. Over $3,000,000 were involved in the trans-action. The Vanderbilts are now sole owners of the Beech Creek railroad.

A JOINT ENCAMPMENT OF U. S. TROOPS AND NATIONAL GUARD, AT MT. GRETNA PARK.
Army orders No. 187. Division Artillery. Department of War, directs two troops of cavalry at Fort Meyer, Va., and three light batteries of artillery from Washington Barracks, Fort Adams, R. I., and Fort Hamilton, N. Y. harbor, to march to Mt. Gretna from their respective stations, arriving at the Park not later than August 5th, and there go into camp in connection with the Cavalry and Artillery of the Nat'l Guard whose period of encampment is from Aug. 19th to 17th. After the termination of the joint encampment the Regular Troops will remain at Mt. Gretna for an indefinite period, for further strillery practice, thus affording additional attraction to Mt. Gretna each day during August. The Mt. Gretna Narrow Gauge Railroad is finished and in successful running order, contributing in its way to the pleasure and enjoyment of a day at the charming resort.

The trains over this division consist of Observations and the successful running contents.

The trains over this division consist of Observation Cars, affording an unobstructed view of the scenery en route. They pass in full view of the Military Parade Grounds, Lake Conewago, the State Guard Rifle Range, and over Horse ishee Bend, gradually ascending until GovernorDick is reached, four miles distant. From the stately new observatory on Gov. Dick, thirty feet higher than the old structure, which has been removed, a sight may be obtained than which there are few grander—forty square miles of view being presented, and points in five different counties being easily discerned.
