THE MEETINGS CLOSE. WORSHIPPERS DESERT THE GROVES AT LAN-DISVILLE AND AT LITITZ.

The Closing Exercises On Thursday Very Interesting-Officers of the Landisville Association.

LANDISVILLE, Aug.2 .- Landisville camp-About noon Thursday the clouds cleared away and the sun sent forth its warmth for the first time since Saturday. In the morning the indications for a large closing sitendance was not very promising, but as soon as the sun shone forth people began coming into the camp. They came in every direction in teams and on all the railroads in such numbers that when evening came the tabernacle was crowded and the circle on the outside was filled with people moving about unable to gain admission to the services. The usual children's losson was taught in the afternoon by the Rev. Charles Roads. That over he formed them into line and led them, singing, to the stand of the auditorium where the board of control and lotholders, who had just closed their session, greeted each of the little ones as they passed with a hearty handshake. It was a pretty sight as the column of children, some barely large enough to walk, passed the stand and placed a small hand in that of sturdy manhood or the venerable hand of declining years. At 3 o'clock the sucrament of the Lord's supper was celebrated in the tabernacle. About one I undred people partook of the communion. That service over Rev. Shoesmith, of the Mt. Joy church, preached the last sermon of the campmeeting. The farewell service began at 6 o'clock in the tabernacle. There was no preaching, but everybody, men and women, old and young, from every part of the tabernacle arose to give the experience he or she had in the service of the Almighty. Song was mingled with prayer, and short appeals were made to the sinner to leave the paths of sin and come to God. The invitation was accepted by quite a number, and the doxology sounded forth at short intervals as a soul pronounced its redemption.

The religious service over the congregation, headed by Presiding Elder Crouch and singing praises to God, formed into twos and, marching from the building through the centre aisle, encircled the inner circle of the grounds twice. They then marched back to the tabernacle and through it, where each shook the hand of the other in a farewell greeting. This over the assembly divided. The oldest campers retiring to their tents or cottages while the young people gathered into crowds, mached to nearly every tent and cottage on the ground, and gave it a farewell screnade. This was continued until about midnight, when each retired to await in slumbers the coming of the day of departure. So ended one of the best campmentings that Laudisville has ever had. The baggage master, the ticket agent, the telegraph operator and in short everybody in the village was kept bustling for ten days, and ably acquitted himself in each duty that fell upon him. Now the town will take up the even tenor of its way until the next camping season, when again the grove will throw off the veil of desolation that to-day finds on it.

The board of control and lotholders held its meeting on Thursday afternoon and elected the following officers for the cusuing year: President, Presiding Elder J. F. Crouch, Philadelphia; vice president, General Wm. Patton, Columbia; secretary, Wm. H. Bateman, Lancaster; treasurer, E. Hershey, Columbia ; board of centrol, A. Bruner, J. Shenberger, H. F. Bruner, Columbia J. Westley Aul, H. Hanshaw, T. Ensminger, J. W. Glover, Harrisburg ; Sam'l Burns, Jos. H. Selvert, Lancaster: H. D. High, W. Hagy, H. Crouse, Wm. Beideman, Reading ; J. Hildebrand, W. K. Bonder, Strasburg; C. H. Few, Lebanon ; George Park, Millersburg: W. S. Smith, Bainbridge: James Ferguson, Halifax: Edward Lebo, Lykens; John Bender, Lencock; finance and auditing committee, J. Hildebrand, H. F. Brungr, Sam'l Burns, H. Crouse, W. K. Bender; manager of grounds, H. F. Bruner, Columbia. It was resolved to give a lot of groun I, free of charge, for the purpos : of ere ting a temple of worship, to the Young People's association. The report of the treasurer showed the expenses for the past year to have been $724.60, and the receipts to date, $887.01, leaving a net credit of $162.41. Credits yet outstanding will swell the profits of the camp to $200. The receipts at the gate up to Thursday afternoon were $369,61.

German, taking for his theme the safety of the Christian life. Men are never secure from manifold dangers. The Christian is safe in life and death. Rev. E. J. Miller chose the same theme as Rev. Albright. No work brings such great reward as doing good for the Lord Jenus Christ, Many commence in the spirit and end in the flash. He prophesied that the compineet-ing would be followed by revivals as a direct result. Rev. B. F. Smoyer closed with a few words. He said he was glad that although the local campmeeting would close in half an hour the campmeeting spirit would live on. The compressing ended with the usual farewell exercises, marching, hand-shaking and singing. People stood on the board benches to see the closing scenes and many, rotted by much rain, broke down on all sides.

On Wednesday the Oamp Bugle, edited and published by the presiding elder of the district, B. F. Smoyer, was issued. It is a spicy little sheet.

In spite of the wet weather most of those present expressed themselves satisfied with the campmeeting and seemed sorry at the breaking up.

THE CHAMPION PUGILIST.

John L. Sullivan Passes Through Laneaster in Charge of a Deputy Sheriff. The most important man on the second section of Western Express last night was John L. Sullivan, the champion pugilist of the world, who was on his way to Mississippi, in charge of Deputy Sheriff Childs, where he is being taken to answer the charge of prize fighting. Before the train came in it was known that Sullivan was on board, and quite a number of persons gathered at the station. The majority of these did not get a glimpse of the big fellow, as they were on the north side of the train. He occupied a seat in the smoking compartment of the sleeping car Midvale, and by his side was the deputy sheriff from Mississippi. On the same car was Detective Adams, of New York, and Mr. McClune, proprietor of the Vanderbilt chestra. house, New York, who goes to Mississippi as the friend of Sullivan, and will look after his interests. When the train stopped here several Lancaster men, who said they the fighter, boarded the car and knew shook him by the hand. Sullivan sat next to the window, which was hoisted. He wore a light flauncl shirt with pepper and salt trousers and vest, but no cost. One of his hig arms rested on the window. The champion looked as though he was greatly worried. He was not inclined to laugh or in any way be pleasant, and he did not seem pleased that persons came into the car to see him. He is looking very well and his moustache, which was shaved off for the light, is just coming out again. Sullivan, as well as most of his friends, think the penalty will only be a fine, which, as Mr. Clune is with him, can easily be settled. JACOBS' SANITY.

All the Prison Officials Thus Far Examined say He Is Not Crazy. Notary Public John W. Appel reduced to writing on Thursday afternoon the testimony of a number of prison officials and ex-officials, who came in daily contact with Jacobs, Those examined were James H. Isaac N. Eaby, first underkeeper, Capt. P. L. Sprecher, ex-underkeeper, Albert Smith, one of the death watch, Isaac Lorah and J. Milton Hershey, night watchman, and Christian L. Hershey, baker at prison. All the above witnesses testified to conversations had with Jacobs," They believe him to be same and is playing off crazy to escape the death penalty. They say his conversation is rational, that he knows his former acquaintances, that he becomes noisy when strangers approach his cell, for effect and that when they leave he becomes quiet.

In all 48 pages of testimony were taken. The time for the next hearing has not yet been determined. There are a number of other witnesses to be examined. The testimony will be sent to the hoard of pardons when completed.

The next campmeeting will commence on July 22d, and end on July 31st, 1890, From the 18th to the 22d of July were allotted as days for society anniversaries

A meeting of the board of control and lotholders, and a picnic of themselves and friends, will be held on the camp grounds on June 4th next.

There were in all about fifty converts during the camp

The Lititz Camp Closes LITTIZ, Aug. 2.-It rained as usual yesterday morning till after 9 o'clock, when it stopped and no more rain fell all day. The consequence was that more outsiders were present and by evening an immense crowd had collected in spite of the bad roads. It was moving day in the camp ground and the deserted tents and wagon loads of furniture reminded one forcibly and sadly of the first of April.

The 9 a. m. prayer meeting was con-ducted by Rev. A. M. Sampsel. Rev. S. L. Weist preached in German from the text "Abide in Me." John 15, 4. The Lord's supper was partaken of immediately after. se services were all held in the tent.

The afternoon prayer meeting and experience meeting was conducted by Rev. H. B. Behnly. The youngest and the old-est testified for Jesus and it was a very solemn meeting.

Rev. W. F. Heil preached the afternoon sermon from the text ; "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God," Matthew 8, 5. The natural heart is not pure. It is impossible for man by any human agency to effect the purification of his heart. Nothing can do that but the blood of Jesus Christ. A pure heart is the condition of blessedness. This blessedness consists in seeing God in our own lives, our surroundings, our circumstances and in heaven hereafter, Rev. B. J. Smoyer followed with some remarks in German. We have many privileges in our day but people take them too much as a matter of course. Men expeet to pay for everything in this life but their religious privileges. A collection was now taken up for the benefit of missions ; subscriptions were also taken. Over $200 wore subscribed. Rev. F. Smith led the instructing prayer. After supper there was some singing by the quartette and

The last prayer meeting was held in the open air, the tent having been taken down. This was again an occasion of great solemnity. Some shouted and others wept. Many testified that they had been greatly blessed at this campmeeting. There was no regular sermon preached, but a number of ministers made short addresses intersporsed with hymns, Rev. J.B. Essenwein based his remarks on the words: "He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again bearing his sheaves with him." Let work for Jesus be the key-note of our lives. want to be there when we hold our harvest ome in heaven. Rev. B. D. Albright enlarged upon the words. "Be not weary in well doing, for in due season ye shall resp if ye faint not." He trusted that the people had gathered grace sufficient to serve God at home, and do some personal work, which is the work that tells.

STATES AND AND A DESCRIPTION OF A DESCRI

Sued For Larceny.

I. Diller Worst, of Netbyille, sold his hotel business to Abram Stiffel. The latter charges that Worst when he moved away look with him a number of orticles he had bought and paid for. A demand was made for them, but he refused to return them. Stiffel went before Alderman Halbach to-day and made complaint against Worst, charging him with larceny. Constable Price went to Unionville, Chester county, to-day to serve the warrant. Worst promptly gave bail for a hearing to-morrow morning.

The Bay Club Getting Ready.

From the appearance of the goods that the Bay club shipped to Baltimore by freight to-day the "sailors" will have plenty to appease hunger and thirst. There was about half a carload of it, but the big bulk was made by the mattresses, which the club had made here. The goosts made a huge pile on the payement in front of King's cigar store, and a large number of boxes labeled " Glass " attracted much attention. This evening the club will hold its last meeting at Hotel Lancaster at 8:30. when the fall list of members going on the cruise will be made out.

Reah Frazer, of the U.S. ship Alliance, now at Norfolk, who has many friends in the Bay club, writes that he will meet them at Fortress Monroe and be with them several days.

Another Wife Snes Her Husband. John F. Weaver has been sued by his wife before Alderman Spurrier for surety of the peace and drunken and disorderly conduct. He was arrested yesterday afternoon by Constable Yeisley, and he gave bail before Alderman Deen, as Alderman Spurrier was out of town. Already Mrs. Weaver, like all the women is endeavoring to settle the cases.

Promised to Go Home. John Himelsbach was found asleep on the pavement at the corner of Prince and German streets yesterday. He was discharged by the mayor upon promising to go to his home in the country at once.

Visited the Iroquois (lub.

Constable Price visited the Iroquoisclub, at their camp, near Montonsville, this morning. He reports the club having a good time, and catching lots of fish. Although inconvenienced for a time by the flood, they are all right now.

A Visit of Inspection.

Yesterday the county commissioners, acompanied by Capt. Elias McMellen, visited the county bridges at Earlyille, Wenger's and Bushong's mills. The bridges were badly damaged by the storms, and Captain McMellen repaired them. The work was found to be very satisfactory and in accordance with the specifications,

He Paid the Costs.

Patrick Conley, who boards on South Duke street, was heard to-day before Alderman A. F. Donnelly for abusing John Forrich. Patrick was given the option of paying the costs or going to jail. He chose the former, paid his bill and was discharged.

Needs Repair. The street cross at Plum and Orange streets was reported to the street commissioner to-day to be in bad condition. The ground has sunk two feet, and the crossing, as it now is, is dangerous. It will be repaired at once.

Robbed the Bank.

Teller Harry Seybold, of the Bank of Wheeling, Wheeling, W. Va., was arrested on Thursday, charged with the embczzle-ment of $50,000 of the bank's funds. Seybold has made a confession.

serve God at home, and do some personal work, which is the work that tells. Rev. F. P. Lehr spoke a few words in to the current it moves with resistless force. His working model is fixed in a small iron box that a babe might lift, but it was able to generate onchorse power in the comparatively slow cur-rent opposite Black Rock, while further down the river treble that power was readily obtained. Palmer calculates that one million horse-power can be generated by a number of his machines.

Will Be Appointed a Postal Agent. Some time ago A. L. Moyer was appointed postal agent between Harrisburg and Lancaster. He arrived in Lancaster each day at 9 a, m. and returned 5:30 p. m. He resigned some weeks ago to accept a position with Bowman & Musser, but is still on the route. Theodore Scheffer, of Harrisburg, is now learning the route and will be the appointee to take Moyer's place. Skipped to Europe. William Heida was prosecuted before Alderman Halbach a few days ago for desertion. Officers searched for him but were unable to find him. To-day it was learned that he left town, went to a station east of Lancaster where he took a train for New York. It is his intention to go to Europe Heida has been prosecuted several times

by his wife and was sent to jail on he
