MEN'S EVERY-DAY SHOES!

The shoemakers' troubles in the East bring to us bargains in Footwear. We found a spot where Shoes were thicker than buyers, where money was preferred to manufactured products, and prices fell to our liking—low down. Spick and Span Shoes, good for wear, with less fault in style than generally goes for so little. Among them, at $1, we have what the maker calls "The Wonder." (Half-soling and heeling costs quite as much). Have seamless uppers, with neat tips, good trimmings and linings. Nicely shaped and more durable than you'd think. Good Shoes for Shop, Mill or Foundry wear. Not so unshapely either that they might not do for dress. At $1.25 we've another line, Seamless Buff Vamps, with imitation Dongola tops, lace or Congress, as you'll prefer. Well made and finished, fitting the foot comfortably and neatly. The more you comfortably and neatly. The more you see them, the more you wear them, the better grows their liking. At $1.50, the

FOR THE SHOP, MILLOR FOUNDRY.

R. BRADLEY IN TROUBLE.

DR. BRADLEY IN TROUBLE.

He is Charged With the Embessiement of $5,000 or $10,000.

Dr. William H. Bradley, once reading clerk of the House of Representatives at Harrisburg, the founder and for many years proprietor of the Wilkesbarre Record, formerly state editor of the Philadelphia Press, and for the past three years the business agent for the Weckly Press, is charged with the embezziement of funds from the Press company, and has been placed under $4,000 ball to appear before Magistrate Lennon for a bearing next Monday. Captain Cook states that Bradley's business was to travel over the state for the purpose of extending the circulation of the paper, and he slieges that the manner of Bradley a operations was to present bills for traveling, hotel and the entertainment of state editors and managers without traveling at all.

The captain says he accidentally found all.

The captain says he accidentally found out that the doctor had not been at a certain point reported to have been visited in his expense account. He telegraphed to a number of editors up-the state whom his agent was supposed to have visited with the object of promoting the P-cas business. The result in a number of cases was the reply that they had never seen Dr. Bradley. By setting further watch upon his agent Captain Cook discovered that while he was in Beaver and Altoons and Reading in his bills he was in Philadelphia all the while in person.

in person.

In addition to the method, Captain Cook says he discovered that money advanced to Dr. Bradley for purchase of postage stamps was pocketed and used for private stamps was pocketed and used for private purposes.

Mr. Cook confronted the agent with the charge of embezzlement and fraudulent accounts. For a time the charge was strenuously denied, but finally the doctor broke down. He then wrote a letter to Mr. Cook, stating that he had done the Press a great wrong; that he had deliberately used money for private pleasures; that there were no extenuating feir-tum stances of his guilt, and that he would make every possible effort at restitution.

He was placed under st. 100 bail by Magistrate Lennon pending the investigation of accounts. The amount, Captain Cook states, will not exceed $10,000 or fall under $5,000.

One of the most mischlevous and most com-mon is the indiscriminate and too frequent use of purgatives. Such medicine, if well chosen and seasonably resorted to, are certainly useful, but many persons select the worst, fly from one to the other, and employ them when there is no occasion, or their utility ceased. To establish on a permanent basis a regular condition of the bowels, the finest alterative is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. It is botanic in origin and a safe succedaneum for those objectionable drugs, calomel and blue pill; it does not gripe or dreuch the bowels like the ordinary evacents, tivity of the liver and stomach, which usually accompany that condition. Rheumatism, kid-ney trouble, malarial complaint and nervous-ness are removed by the Bitters.
