WOMEN'S CAR FARE. Have you ever watched the warfare Of two women over car fare? Each affame with generous feeling, Depth of heart and purse revealing: Each inspired with gentle horror Lest the other should pay for her. Lest the other should pay for her.
But take note—the more insistent
Of the combatants persistent,
She whose hand most promptly snatches
At her pocketbook's stiff catches,

It's all right. I've got the change, dear !"
She—though I am sad to say it— Always lets the other pay it!
