THE COUNTY FAIR.

Some of the Many Attractions to Be Offered. The fair managers will offer a special rize for the most graceful lady equestrina. The day for this contest has not yet been determined. George B. Willson and W. U. Hensel are the sub-committee on this feature of the fair.

Mesars, Wilson, Hensel, Arnold, Baus man and Wenger are a sub-committee who will call upon busines men of the city and county to induce them to offer special A balloon ascension and descent by parachute will probably be one of the great features. The managers are negotiating with an aeronaut. Another new feature will be foot races for prizes. A daily paper will be published on the her grounds and distributed free. It will contain special notes of the fair. The space on the second floor of the main building has already been reserved and a great portion of the space in the other buildings.

They Were Mistaken. Albert M. Slade, of the New Erg, had an experience on Tuesday evening that he did not relish. He entered the house of Mrs. Marley, 122 East Chestnut street, and proceeded to the room he had engaged from A. H. Fritchey, esq., who leased it for Mrs. Marley, who is away from town on a visit. While Mr. Slade was arranging clothing in his trunk, a lodger, Joseph Hodgetts, appeared and thinking the strange occupant of the room was of the light-fingered gentry he objected to his presence. While the two were having wordy warfare over the situation Mr. Osborne, a friend of Hodgetts, appeared on the scene. He, too, thought the landlady's property was in jeopardy and proposed that the supposed intruder be taken to the station house. Mr. Slade exhibited the door key given by Mr. Fritchey, and produced other evidence to show that he was not to be suspected of evil intentions. Finally Mesers. Osborne and Hodgetts were convinced that the stranger had authority for his presence and after profuse apologies the lodgers agreed to make the newcomer's stay as pleasant as possible in the future. A Mysterious Man.

Last evening as a freight train passed east through the city a man was noticed lying on his back on a stock car. His hands were outstretched, and he oked very much as though he was dead A number of persons who saw him be came very much exercised, and they had the train stopped. Search was made for the man but he could not be found. He likely was a tramp, and was playing min to frighten some one. Railroad ad police officers were very sorry that they could not find the mysterious man.

DEATH OF JOSEPH C. RINGWALT.

A Native of New Holland Dies While On a Visit in Carlisle. Joseph C. Ringwalt, of Washington, D. C., died Tuesday morning at the Miller house, Carlisle, after a week's illness, of internal hemorrhage.
Funeral services were held in St. John's Episcopal church, Carlisle, at noon, and it rnoon his body was shipped to Cincinnati for interment. The deceased was a son of Jacob Ring-wall, and was born at New Holland, this county, July 31, 1809. He went to Cum-berland county with his father's family about the year 1827, and they settled on a farm, which afterwards was the Judge Watts farm, about two miles west o Carlisle. The family was an unusually large one-fourteen sons and four daugh ters-and there they resided until most of them left home. There are yet living there David and Levi Ringwalt, Margaret Ringwalt, and near Churchtown George Ring walt, brothers and sisters of the deceased. The subject of this notice went to Cincinnati in 1843, and remained there until 1876. He was there engaged in the carpet business, and succeeded in building up a very large business. In 1876 he decided to remove to Washington, D. C., and has there resided since. For several years past he has made annual visits to Carlisle to see his relatives and friends, and he was on such a visit when taken ill a week ago. He was prominent churchman, and was senior warden of St. Paul's Episcopal church, Cincinnati, of which he had been a vestry man for many years. Funeral services will be held there on Thursday.

His children are Lancing L. Ringwalt, of San Francisco; Mary C. Ringwalt, A. R. Ringwalt, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Bryan H. Morris, Charles G., and Joseph C., of Washington.

A CELEBRATED HORSE CASE. The Result of a "Swap" Between Mid-dictown and Elizabethtown Men. Sam Vance, of Middletown, swapped horses with a farmer named Landis, of Elizabethtown, this county, a few days ago, and the former received the best of the bargain. Landis wanted to get his horse back, and tried to persuade Vance to return it. Vance refused unless he was paid. Landis then went home and plotted with his brother to secure possession of the horse. With a wagon load of stones the Landis brothers drove to Middletown and stopped in the eastern end of the place. One of them went to Vauce's stable and stole the horse, which he rode back to where his brother was, Vance followed him, and was whipped in his efforts to recover the ani-The result of all this was that Vance sued the brothers for robbery and horse stealing. Yesterday the case was heard before Squire McClure, of Middletown After the testimony had been heard a compromise was affected. The Landises paid Vance $50 and the costs, amounting to $20 more, and they were allowed to keep the horse they had worked so hard to get.

Walking Around Undressed. Last evening complaint was made to Officer Lehr that a man, with nothing on but a pair of drawers and an undershirt, was parading around on West Chestnut street. The officer went to look for the man and found that it was James Zercher. who resides on West Chestnut street near the new school building. He followed him and he went into his house. He soon came out and began another walk when the officer took him into custody. Zercher was drunk and resisted for a time, but was finally landed in the station house. This morning he was still drunk when called before the mayor, and he was held in the station house to sober up.

He is Privileged From Arrest. Several weeks ago Wm. T. Colwell was prosecuted by Samuel P. Harley for felonions assault and battery and surety of the peace. Colwell brought a cross action against Harley, but the officer was unable to capture Harley. A subporna was served arloy to attend court as a witness against Colwell, and in obedience to that subporns he attended court on Tuesday and was arrested on the old charge pend ing against him. Harley's counsel went before the court with a petition praying that he be declared privileged from arrest, while he is here as a witness. The court made the order prayed for and the warrant on the old charge cannot be served until after he is discharged as a witness.

A Large Excursion. The excursion to the sea shore over the Pennsylvania railroad was the largest and most successful of the kind held this season. The crowd was so great that it was found necessary to run two trains from Lancaster. The first one left here at 6:25 and ran through, and the next one took people from stations east of here. For Atlantic City 191 tickets were sold from Lancaster, and the number for Long Branch and Ocean Grove was 122. In addition to these 240 people came down over the Mt. Joy branch and 250 over the Columbia branch.

A Pleasant Party. The Pickwick club, which is composed of young ladies of this city, gave a party last evening in Eshleman's hall to their young gentlemen friends. There was quite a large attendance and Dr. Franklin was the chaperone. Among the strangers present were Misses Florence Robinson, of Philadelphia; Lillie Bell, New York; Bessie Cochran. New York ; Annie Roberts, Amy Penny becker, Phoenixville; Anna Reinhold, Marietta; Kate Davis, Millersville, and others. The grand march took place at 8:30 and it was led by Miss Nan Calder and Ben Kendig. Dancing was kept up until half-past eleven o'clock, and everybody had a good time.

Opera House Attractions

The experiment tried last year of running a large number of thunder and lightning attractions at the opera house does not seem to have panned out well if one is to judge from the kind of shows that are booked for the present season. The list, as given out by the manager, contains the names of a great many very strong attractions. The opera house is to be supplied with opera glasses, which will be fastened to seats so that persons who "drop a nickel in the slot" can get a pair. This system has proved highly successful in New York and other cities.

The Manheim Bicycle Races.

There will be quite a number of good wheelmen in the race at Manheim driving park next Saturday, and the indications point to close and exciting events and a large attendance. Among the men who will be present and take part in the races are Wilhelm, of Reading, and Taxis, of Philadelphia. The one mile handicap promises to be one of the most exciting eces, and the men will start as follows:

W. I. Wilhelm, scratch; W. W. Taxis, 20 yards; Geo. F. Kahler, 80 yards; D. H. Miller, 100 yards; Murray Kellmer, 110 yards; Alvin Reist, 110 yards; E. L. Fry, 135 yards; Wm. Arnold, 165 yards; W. S. Oberlin, 165 yards; John Fissel, 165 yards.

Joseph H. Foard, of Elkton, Md., writes to Chief Smeltz that a sorrel roan horse, 6 years old, 16 hands high, with small white spot on forehead, was stolen from him last night. Chief Smeltz has instructed his officers to be on the lookout for the horse and thief. Chickens Poisoned. Gilbert C. Foltz, residing at 917 North Prince street, lost seventeen fine chickens within the past few days, and Ned Hunter, a neighbor, lost six. They are all believed to have been poisoned, and Alderman Pinkerton is looking the matter up.

Lightning Strikes the Eiffel Tower. Paris was visited by a violent storm on Tuesday. A thunder-bolt struck the Effel tower. No damage was done, John E. Wolf, of the watch factory, and Edwin Rothweiler left this morning on a trip to Long Branch, New York, Boston and Niagara Falls.

An Unusual Offense. Daniel Frey has been prosecuted before Alderman Barr by C. E. Eckert for barratry. This is is an unusual offense. The complaint sets forth that Frey is a common barrator, vexing others with unjust and vexatious suits, by bringing suits for the same charge before Aldermen Pinkerton and Deen against Mr. Eckert.

Frey is also charged before the same magistrate by Elias Beck with carrying concealed deadly weapons and surety of Successful Barn Raising.

The new barn on the farm of John Sigle near Monterey, to take the place of the one destroyed by fire, was successfully raised on Tuesday in the presence of a large crowd. The new structure is 124 by 55 feet and was raised by 110 men, under the direction of Peter Sours. About 130 people took dinner and 100 supper. The "boys" had their fun by carrying Mr. Sours around the building very much against his wish.

Democratic Nominations. Nominations for delegates will be made by the Democrats of the several wards of the city, this evening, at the places designated by the chairman of the county committee. The primary election will be held on Saturday evening, and the county convention next Wednesday. The place of meeting in the Seventh ward is at the hotel of John Gunzenhouser and the time between 7 and 8 o'clock. Will Open Their Season Here. The Refily and Wood Specialty company, which has the reputation of being one of the best that travels, will open their season in Lancaster, on Monday evening. The company will assemble here. John F. Byrne and wife, Matthew Byrne, and James Byrne, have already arrived here to join the company. They came through from San Francisco. A Lancaster Boy's Work.

Mr. Daily goes out with Louise Arnot again the coming season and will have a fine position.

Attacked and Robbed. Conrad Kempf is a stone mason whose home is on Manor street, this city. He is employed by the Pennsylvania railroad company and has been working in Philadelphia. Last week he was attacked in that city and robbed of a considerable sum of money. He was injured so severely that he is now in a hospital.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

EXCUSE US, But it makes us smile at the claims made by some dealers. They give nearly everything at cost. They have no profit if you believe all they say, yet make money reasonably fast. Can you account for it? We are trying to give customers full value for their money and will not humbing them by claiming to sell below cost. We claim to have the best Shoe for men at $1,90 to be had anywhere, and will put it against all others. A fine bright Dongola Button for indies at $2.00 and $2.25. We also have a tolerably full line of cheip shoes for men, women and children. It yus.
