Good Salmon Fishing.

It would appear from the following ngton borough that there is lively salmon ashing there. We presume the catch was of Susquehanna salmon, for which the open season is from June to January, as for bass. In salmon and speckled trout the season closed July 15th. By the way, who can tell us whether salmon other than squehanna salmon are caught in that river? We believe it has been stocked with California salmon.

That Bled Prothonotory Skiles and That Jere Rife Tries to Cut.

Mr. Christian Sharp has been sued, which is not remarkable; because Mr. Sharp has been sued before; and often. But this time Mr. Sharp has a defence to Mr. Jerc. Rife's claim of a hundred dollars. He says Mr. Rife gave it to him for hush He says Mr. Rife gave it to him for hush money. He had paid in '86 a bill of costs to John D. Skiles, prothonotary, which bill be carries around in his pocketbook, that showed a charge of illegal fees. For this Mr. Sharp sued Mr. Skiles, and for this he says that his friend, Jere Rife, came to his house and said that he must see him, though he, Sharp, was sick abed-being the worse for liquor; and thereupon the said Rife was admitted to his bedside, and taking a seat thereat he said to the sick man : "You brought suit against Skiles."

Yes." "I want you to withdraw it."

"I must have a hundred dollars if I do."
"Well, I will give you a hundred dolhis bed and walked out with Rife, and hied himself to Alderman Fordney's and withdrew the suit, but would not pay the costs; whereupon and not till then did he get his money from Rife: for which he gave him, however, his note; showing apparently that the transaction was a loan, as Rife now claims it and as in fact Sharp does not seem to deny it to be, strenuously claiming, however, that he would not have got the loan if he had not withdrawn the suit against Skiles.

tion; since Mr. Rife does admit he did ask the gracious Sharp to do the graceful thing by Skiles and withdraw the suit aforesaid. And furthermore there does not seem to have been any particular reason why the gentle Rife should penetrate to the bedside of the intoxicated Sharp to persuade him to secept a loan of a hundred dollars. Does

No! and so there may be music when Lawyer Roland tries to collect that $100 note; though it be justly due; and though Mr. Sharp had given Mr. Rife as security for it a claim on which he had brought snit against another man and on which the arbitrators had given him judgment for $175; and which his attorneys after wards settled for $100, giving him $50 and keeping $40, and leaving Jeremiah Rife out in the cold altogether; to the great scandal of the law and good citizenship. And the distinguished Sharp declares that he would have paid the extinguished Rife the $100 when "his girls got a little ahead" with his business; but now that suit has been brought he is going to show up that receipt of Prothonotary Skiles and tell all about the labors of Samaritan Rife to get Blackshoep Skiles out of the toils; and that these tears are the legiti-mate results of his successful labors. Though he declares that he made another $50 note off the same Skiles on th same score subsequently; and altogethe it appears as though Christian Sharp ma wholly deserve his Christian name since it is to be suspected that he lies i wait for the sinner and profits by his si

Partners Disagree. Brown & Hensel, attorneys for Henry Erisman, filed a bill in equity to-day against Metz. J. Erisman and Jacob B. Landis. The bill sets forth that on March 1, 1875, the orator and defendants associated themselves as partners in the business of dealing in sheep, bogs and calves. There were no written articles of partnership, nor any particular term or limitation, but a verbal agreement betweem them that they should be partners and have an equal interest. The partnership remained in active operation until April 1, 1889, and during the time the partnership existed the defendants received large sums of money; that there has been no final settlement on account rendered. Plaintiff prays that a decree be made dissolving the partnership, and that the defendants render an account of the firm's business. Sale of the Crozler Iron Works. The property and franchise of the Crozier Steel and Iron company in Virginia were sold at auction at Roanoke, Virginia, on Tuesday to settle the estate of the late Col. D. F. Houston who died so suddenly in Lancaster, and discharge a deed of trust. Samuel A. Crozier, of Chester, Pa., became the purchaser for $300,000. It Was a Large Piente.

The picnic in Long's woods on Saturday by the Neffsville Union Sunday school was very largely attended, about two thousand persons being present. The Rothsville orner band furnished excellent music, Addresses were delivered by Revs.Lewars and Eckert. A neat balance over and above expenses was realized for the benefit of the school.

An Excursion to Southern California Direct.

Mesers. Raymond & Whitcomb have planned a trip d'rect to Southern California, via. Kansas City and the Santa Fe Line, on Monday, Oct. 14, as the date of leaving Philadelphia. The journey will be made as expeditiously as may be consistent with comfort, the brief sojourns by the way being solely for rest. The very finest accommodations in the way of palace sleeping cars will be provided, and every detail of the trip will be carried out as claborately as in the winter transcontinental excursions. On arrival in California the excursionists can exercise perfect freedom regarding their time and place of sojourn; and not only are the return tickets good for six months, but there is a choice of four different homeward routes. In addition to this excursion there is to be a tour addition to this excursion there is to be a tour across the continent by the Northern Pacific railroad, with the same date of leaving; and a series of trips to eastern resorts is announced for the month of September. Descriptive circulars of the various tours may be obtained of Ray-mond & Whiteomb, Ill South Ninth street, under the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia.

READ THIS!

Persons who are in search of comfort should consider that a great deal of it is to be found in the kind of shoe they wear—an ill-fitting shoe will put the whole body out of fix.

We have just received a very fine Ladies' Dongola Button in square toes, which we sell at $1.50, $2.00 and $2.25, but the $3.00 grade is immense and will give the most particular persons satisfaction. We have also received this week, another big lot of our Men's Celebrated $3.00 Shoe. This beats all other shoes at that price on the market.

School Shoes for the Children, strong and serviceable, at the lowest possible price. Don't be deceived by the advertisements of dealers who promise so much for nothing. Common sense will tell you that you don't get more than you pay for.

We are practical shoemakers and know what we sell. Try us.
