Enginese, Dunn, of the lighter, was badly wounded. Captain Moore was blackened by the explosion. He is in a state of mind almost bordering upon insanity by the fate of his son. The explosion was heard for miles around, and caused an upheaval of water and tremor of the earth. The lighter was found one mass of wreck and ruins. The machinery and engine were completely demolished. Moore's vest and pants were found torn into shreds. Moore was 22 years old and unmarried.

Twenty-two Insurrectionists Riddle With Bullets By Regulators.

With Bullets by Regulators.

A dispatch from Greenwood, Miss., says: Twenty-two negroes and possibly more, who were working on a cotton plantation on Monday morning, rest beneath the sod in Leflore county to-night riddled by bullets. The names of those killed, so far as ascertained, are John Boyker, Doi Wharton, Monroe Jones, Scott Marsh, Warren Snell, Theyton Lock, Ben Lock and Warren Beckworth. They were killed for resisting arrest. One was killed on Monday or Tuesday and the others yesterday and to-day.

The leaders of the insurrection, Joseph Allen and Oliver Cromwell, have both escaped, though it is thought that Allen was captured this evening. Cromwell was caught in Jackson yesterday, but for some reason was turned loose. He is an ex-convict, having served ten years in the penilentiary for burglary. He was a leader in the Clinton (Miss.) riot in 1875, in which a number of white people were massacred.

This temple did not originate from any

(Miss.) riot in 1875, in which a number of white people were massacred.

This trouble did not originate from any political differences, but is the outcome of labor troubles. Cromwell was the organizer of negro alliance lodges in this county. He behaved badly on Shell Mound on the 30th of August and was ordered to leave. His alliance friends replied that they were a thousand strong and were rendy for a fight.

His alliance friends replied that they were a thousand strong and were ready for a night.

The haughty message alarmed the whites and their families were sent to this place for protection. Then the war commenced. The militia came on Sunday, but were sent back. Hundreda of white citizens began to arrive on Sunday, armed with Winchester rifles. The negroes were routed and fled to the woods.

They were surrounded. Several were killed and others were wounded. This was on Tuesday. On Wednesday a black skin could scarcely be found in the northern part of Leflore county.

Major General Leddell, who led in the killing of the thirteen blacks in Carrollton in 1886, has command of the white regulators. He is cool and brave. State Senator Southwork is his lieutenant. Both are young men and are at Minter City in command of a squad. They captured fifty guns on Thursday. The possessor, A. D. Bird, was spared, because he had just lost his wife and had seven little children.

The negroes are in a frightful state of fear and two have gone crazy over the excitement. The negroes have threatened to burn every house in Leflore county, and every house is being closely guarded. D. D. James' store and house were burned on Tuesday night because he refused to sell the negroes cartridges. His loss was $10,000.

Republicans Bankrupt an Ohlo County The county treasury at Lebanon, Ohio, shut down on Thursday, and not a single order was honored. Usually there are at least $40,000 available funds to meet current demands. This is one of the biggest Republican counties in the state, and the disclosures have completely demoralized the party. A ring of Republican officials has been running the county for years, and bankruptcy is the result. Some startling disclosures are promised and important arrests will come next.

Runaway on North Queen Street. The horse of John Kendig, contractor oft untied on North Queen street, near Walnut, this afternoon, became scared and ran off. He was hitched to a dog eart. Who Killed the Empire? A dispatch from Columbia, S. C., umpire in a game of base ball between Darlington and Wadesboro clubs. The North Carolinans claim that Dargan rushed upon Marshall and struck him with a bat, but the Darlington men say that Marshall, who was a large man, called little Dargan a blank liar because Dargan objected to one of his decisions and then advanced upon him, whereupon Dargan struck him on the back of the neck with his bat. Congressman Dargan will secure the best of legal talent in the country

He failed in his examination in June but was successful in August, when he re-ceived his commission and was assigned to ceived his commission and was assigned to the Tenth cavalry in Arizona. He visited Laneaster to have his uniform made by John G. Haas, the Orange street tailor. Young is 25 years old and a tail, good-looking young fellow. He is a native of Ohio and comes from the same county from which Gen. Grant went to West Point. He is one of only three colored army officers in the United States.

Improvements to Au Oyster Saloon.

The Metifett Brothers, keepers of the wellknown oyster saloon under the Northern market house, made great improvements in their large room during the summer, and it is now one of the prelifiest of the kind in the city. The walls have been covered with beautiful paper walls have been covered with beautiful paper and the woodwork is handsomely painted and grained. The small rooms for dining have been made much larger than they were before, four of them having been turned into three. They are a great deal longer and each has a new table.

The gas fixtures are new and of the latest designs and everything looks bright and cheerful for the opening of what promises to be a great

Persons who are in search of comfort should consider that a great deal of it is to be found in the kind of shoe they wear—an ill-fitting shoe will put the whole body out of fix.

We have just received a very fine Ladies' Dongola Button in square toes, which we sell at $1.50, $2.00 and $2.25, but the $3.00 grade is immense and will give the most particular persons satisfaction. We have also received this week, another big lot of our Mon's Celebrated $4.00 Shoe. This beats all other shoes at that price on the market.

School Shoes for the Children, strong and serviceable, at the lowest possible price. Don't be deceived by the advertisements of dealers who promise so much for nothing. Common sense will tell you that you don't get more than you pay for.
