He Bit Two Kittens' Heads Off.

Henry Malz was arraigned before Justice Gosling, of Brooklyn, charged by Officer De Nice, of the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, with a horrible act of cruelty. It appears, according to the complaint, that Malz, who resides with his brother-in-law, made a wager with Mr. Peck, living in the same house, that he could bite off a kitten's head.

He tossed the kitten in the air, and catching it, placed the neck in his mouth. There was a sickening sound of grinding flesh and bones and then Malz held up his hands wide apart. The head was in one the body in the other, and the blood was dripping from both. He had bitten off the kitten's head. The woman shrieked and Malz grinned and bit off the other kitten's head. Malz was held in $500 bail for cruelty and sent to jail.

Sued For $50,000.

Farney S. Farbell, in Pittsburg on Saturday, entered suit against the Pennsylvania railroad for $50,000 damages for the loss of his wife and three children. Farbell purchased tickets for his wife, Mary E., and three children, aged 2, 5 and 7 years respectively, from Cleveland, O., to Tyrone, Pa. They came to Pittsburg and boarded the fatal Day Express for Tyrone.

The papers in the suit allege that when the train reached Conemaugh, two miles east of Johnstown, the railroad officials were notified of the anticipated bursting of the South Fork Lake dam, but the train was held for six hours and no attempt was made to run it to a place of safety. It was overwhelmed by the flood and Mrs. Farbell and her children were drowned. It is claimed that their deaths were due to the negligence of the railroad company.

Very Risky Indeed.

To tamper with symptoms indicative of growing kidney disorder; to neglect for a brief time needful stimulation of the renal organs when their inactivity points, as it always and unmistakably does, to their eventful permanent disease, is certainly very risky indeed. This is, however, a risk that many persons perceptibly drifting into Bright's disease, diabetes, catarrh of the bladder, &c., constantly incur. So those who read, reflect and heed the lessons of recorded experience, the advisability of using Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as a diuretic, need scarcely more than a suggestion. No fact is more generally admitted by the medical profession and the public than its efficacy for the prevention of serious renal disease. The unmedicated excitants of commerce, no matter how pure, bear in mind, react prejudicially upon the kidneys when inactive. The Bitters subdues malaria, constipation and rheumatism.

FLANNELS.

Be sure you are right, then go ahead. The last two seasons we had the reputation of selling the Best Flannels for the money in the city. This season wool is higher. To sell the same kind at same price as last season means we have to pay more for it. Last season our profits were small, and it means smaller profits this season. Those who bought our Medicated Red Twill Flannel at 25c last season know what a good article it was, some saving it was better than they saw at 35c., others said it was as good as they saw at 37½c, although with the advance in the price of wool we will give you the same identical makes of Flannels at the same price you bought them of us last season, and we know when we say, you never bought as good Flannels in your life for the money, we know we are right. In all colors, Navy Blue, Grey, Red, Yellow or White, in plain or twill, in wool or half wool, you will find us the lowest. We do not occupy as much ground floor as some others do, our expenses are small and so are our profits. All-Wool Shrunk Skirting Flannels in striped, with or without borders, that will not shrink when you wash it, at $1.50 per skirt, or you can buy by the yard as much as you like. Cotton Flannels in remnants at 5, 6¼, 8, 10 and 12½ cents.

BUSTED!

The Great German Sugar Trust!

Reist's

PREDICTIONS BEING FULFILLED!

ASTOUNDING NEWS!

Claus Spreckles says he will fight the American Trust, and the combination must break

Sugars Have Declined Over One Cent a Pound Already!

We told you so at the beginning, take a gentle hint and profit by it!

Sugars Will Surely Tumble Another Cent!

HARD ON THE TRUST,

but Spreckles' feelings cannot be touched. He says that when his new refinery opens, which will be shortly, he will begin a war on the Sugar Trust that will eventually break the combination. The new refinery will turn out one thousand tons of sugar a day, and this increased out put will cause cutting of prices to sell goods, and compel some of the refineries to shut down. The Trust will put down the price of refined sugar so far that the opposition can make no profit, perhaps, but in that case the Trust itself will make little or no profit. Having to carry idle works, with heavy capitalization, it would seem likely to be a disadvantage in that case also.

The failure of the German Sugar Trust, which has tried to control the sugar markets of all Europe, and which was in a measure dependent upon the American Sugar Trust, will now be the means of throwing a large quantity of raw sugar overboard, and cause a break in the price of refined. Keep your eyes wide open.
