AN ENRAGED NEGRO.

HE FIRES TWO BULLETS AT A MAN, BUT FAILS TO HIT HIM.

The Residents of Tow Hill Excited Over the Attempted Murder—Martha Malson Tries to Hang Herself.

COLUMBIA, Sept. 16—Martha Malson, a well-known colored woman, attempted suicide at the borough lockup on Saturday afternoon. She had been placed in the lockup in the morning, on the charge of stealing a clock from Harriet Brown. Officer Schill went to the lockup in the afternoon to release a drunken man, and heard a peculiar noise coming from a cell. When he went to investigate he found Martha hanging from a bar running across the cell. He quickly released the woman and laid her on a bed, sending for Dr. Craig. The physician stated she would soon be all right. The woman had stood on the bed and twisting her apron had thrown it over the bar and tied the ends together, placing the loop around her neck. She then stepped off the bed and hung until discovered by Officer Schill. She was unconscious when found and her hands were tightly clenched. It was a determined effort at suicide and the woman's life was only saved by the fortunate presence of Officer Schill.

There was considerable excitement among the colored residents of Tow Hill on Sunday, caused by the attempted shooting of Amos Randalls by Joseph Seafus, of Milton. Seafus came to town on Saturday and was out on a racket on that night. On Sunday morning he was at the house of Charles Russell and Randalls entered the place. He started to tease Seafus, when the latter pulled out a British bulldog revolver and shot at Randalls. The bullet passed under his arm an Randalls fell to the floor. Seafus again shot at the man, but this shot did not take effect. Randalls then jumped up and ran away. A number of men attempted to take Seafus from the house but the house was guarded by several men with guns and revolvers. Officer Wittick heard of the affair and went to the house where he captured his man and took him to the lockup. This morning Squire Evans sent him to jail for a trial.

Officer Wittick and Officer Eicholtz, of Lancaster, arrested Amos Randalls and Wm. Turner this morning for felonious assault and battery. The complaint was made by Jos. Seafus, before Alderman Spurrier.

Charles Burk sued Amanda Dunmore for assault before Squire Evans. The case was settled by the costs being divided between the pair.

Michael Smith was before Squire Evans for drunkenness and disorderly conduct on Saturday night. He paid the costs and was discharged.

Mrs. Mary S. Eshleman, living with her son-in-law, Joseph C. Seitz, near Mountville, died on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock, aged 71 years and 18 days. The death resulted from old age. The funeral will be held on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock at the house, services at 10 o'clock at the Mountville U. B. church. The following children survive: Mrs. Jacob C. Forry and Mrs. Joseph C. Seitz, of Manor township; Benj. F. and Harry N. Eshleman, of Columbia; Amos Eshleman, Leavenworth, Kansas; Abram Eshleman, St. Paul, Minn.

Jasper Kauffman, an employe of Haldeman, Grubb & Co., had the thumb of his right hand caught between two cars on Saturday afternoon and badly mashed. The injured member was amputated at the first joint.

Peter Staab, barber, and Miss Ida Kauffman, of Cordelia, were married on Sunday evening, at the parsonage of Holy Trinity Catholic church, by Rev. Wm. Peiper.

The Mastiodian Social club will hold a banquet on September 25th at Warren's Restaurant, for Chas. W. Gabriel, a member, who will leave for California on the 28th.

Harry Beck, a P. R. R., engineer, was sent to Philadelphia this morning to run a passenger engine.

Gen. Welsh Post No. 118, G. A. R. will turn out in large numbers on Tuesday morning for the G. A. R. reunion at Manheim.

Council will meet on Tuesday evening.

Miss Mame Kline, of Norristown, is visiting friends in town.

The Shawnee fire company will chance off a ten dollar gold piece this evening.

Chas. H. Beetem, of Carlisle, is visiting in town.

Mrs. William Bookman, living on North Sixth street, took a dose of muriate of ammonia on Saturday evening, instead of epsom salts. She discovered the mistake as soon as she had swallowed a portion of the dose, and at once sought medical attendance. The proper remedies were prescribed, and Mrs. Bookman did not suffer any ill effects from the wrong medicine. The stuff is not poisonous unless taken in a very large dose.

Wm. Arnold, slater and roofer of Lancaster, arrived in town this morning to place corrugated iron on the sides of the new express office.

W. H. Rodgers, of Nova Scotia, commenced work this morning in repairs to the fish chute at the Columbia dam.

SHOT THROUGH THE ARM

A Fakir Has an Ugly Wound Dressed at an Early Hour.

Early Sunday morning Dr. D. R. McCormick was awakened from his sleep to dress the wound of a young man who came to his office in company with Clara L. Hass, a young woman who resides on North Mary street. The man said he was a fakir and had been at the fair here but he refused to give his name. He had been shot entirely through the muscular part of the arm, the ball entering one side and coming out of the other.

The bullet was from a 22-calibre pistol. After having the wound dressed the man disappeared and was not seen again by the physician. A reporter called at the home of Miss Haas this morning, but she was not there. She had said, however, that she and the man had been fooling with the revolver when it was accidentally discharged. It is believed by many that he was shot by some one who intended to do him much more injury than he did.

Arrested a Third Time.

Some time ago George Harpel, was arrested on the charge of larceny and felonious entry for taking $4 from the livery office of Edward Hartman, in the rear of the Grape hotel. When first arrested he escaped from Constable Yeisley and was taken again by Constable Price. He was liberated in some way from the station house upon the representation that the cases had been settled. The cases were before Alderman Spurrier and when he heard that Harpel was at large he gave it out that he did not allow cases of felony to be settled at his office, although that is a practice with some aldermen. Harpel was rearrested this morning and he was taken to jail for a hearing.

Awarded Diplomas.

The following exhibitors at the county fair have been awarded diplomas: C. A. Miller, agent, Lancaster Caramel Co., assortment of caramel goods; Mrs. Harry Reinhold, Harrisburg, Pa., painting on bolting cloth; S. S. Leaman, Marticville, paten car coupler; B. G. Dodge, city, pure honey in boxes; Isaac Steiff, Myerstown, best stallion over 5 years old; W. R. Fiales, Christiana, largest collection of pigeons; Oliver N. Anderson, city, crayon drawing.

The North Duke Street Blocking.

The contract with Fritchey & Hinden, for laying the diamond and the square of Duke street from Lemon to James with asphalt blocks, was signed this afternoon, all of the money having been raised. The blocks have been ordered and the work will be begun at once.

Final Meeting Next Monday.

A final meeting of the managers of the late county fair, will be held on next Monday. At the meeting held on Saturday the payment of premiums to exhibitors was discussed, but no action taken. The sentiment of those present was against the payment of any premiums, and that will probably be the conclusion reached.

Forty Hours Devotion.

Forty hours devotion opened at St. Anthony's Catholic church on Sunday morning with mass of exposition celebrated by Father A. F. Kaul. Services were held last evening and to-day. The exercises will be closed with a procession to-morrow evening.

May Order an Election.

It is said Sergeant-at-Arms Franklin of the state Senate, will soon issue a warrant for the election of a successor to Senator Cushman.

Released on Habeas Corpus.

Emanuel Hammond, who was sent to jail for five days for drunkenness and disorderly conduct by Alderman McConomy, was released on habeas corpus by Judge Patterson. It was shown that he had work to attend to and that the alderman did not object to his release.

Passed Through.

On Niagara Express this morning was a special engine and car. In the latter were a number of leading officials of the Pennsylvania railroad, who were out on an inspecting tour.

Had a High Fall.

Charles Martin fell from a rank of tobacco cases, five high, on Saturday at the warehouse of Frederick Schroeder. He had an ankle sprained and was bruised badly. To-day he is about on crutches.

Married by Alderman Barr.

Alderman Barr married H. Isaac Miller and Annie Kahn this morning. The wedded couple are Russian Hebrews, and in accordance with their religion the ceremony will be repeated in the synagogue.

Pete Woods Drunk Again.

Pete Wood has been prosecuted for his usual offense, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, before A. F. Donnelly. Henry Jackson is the complainant.

Grand Army Day.

Indications point to a large attendance at Manheim to-morrow of Grand Army men and their friends. In addition to the regular trains, a special train will be run. It will leave the outer Reading depot at 7:50 in the morning. The special train will leave Manheim, after the camp-fire in the morning.

A Lad Hangs Himself.

Cyrus Curtis, 10 years of age, a farmer's boy, at Williamsburg, Michigan, committed suicide on Friday night by hanging himself. No cause is known for the deed.

A Year Since He Died.

It is a year to-day since Father Louis Gretemyer, of St. Joseph's church, died, and service was held to-day at the church in memory of him. Father Peeper conducted it.

Jumped the Track.

On last Saturday morning the train on the Peach Bottom railroad, near Tweedale station, jumped the track and the passengers were badly shaken up. Beyond that there was no damage and another train took the passengers to Oxford.

A Horse Stealing Case Dismissed.

The charge of horse stealing preferred before Squire Deen, of Drumore, by Sylvester McComsey against John Jackson, of Little Britain, was dismissed by the squire, when it appeared from the examination of the witnesses that it was a simple horse trade and totally lacking in any of the elements of a horse steal.

Lost Two Fingers.

Jap Kauffman, of Watts Station, employed at Chickies furnace No. 1, had several fingers crushed on Saturday afternoon, while coupling cars. Dr. Mowery dressed the wounded hand. He found it necessary to amputate two of the fingers.

Visiting in the West.

Jere Roth, of Ephrata, left on Sunday on Fast Line for Crestline Ohio; from there he goes to Chicago, and Sterling, Ills., visiting relatives. He will be gone several weeks.

A room 150 feet in length and 30 feet in width, or in other words
Three thousand square feet of ground, devoted not alone to the display of but crowded with the largest and best selected stock of Coats and Boy's Clothing in this city.
ALL NEW GOODS.
Nothing left over from last year. Our last season's Clearing Sale has cleaned us out of old stock, and with the experience at our command we have gone into the market and selected what we think is the finest and best line of goods which can be seen anywhere in the city.
Our goods are all open and ready for inspection.
They are marked in plain figures.
Before purchasing come and inspect. See our goods. Note our extremely low prices.
We are compelled to sell cheap. We cannot afford to lose our hard-earned reputation for selling cheaper than anybody in Lancaster.
Our prices run from the lowest up to the finest. Every garment warranted to be as represented.
We hope to see you this week. Our Grand Fall Opening will be announced for the early part of next month.
New Goods are pouring in in every department.
Our large Millinery Parlor is already packed with the latest Domestic and European Novelties in Hats, Bonnets, Fancy Feathers, Wings, Birds, Tips, and Plumes of all sorts. We will show them to anyone who wishes to see them, and our display of these goods at our opening will excel anything ever shown in this city.
Trimmed Hats and for early Fall. Over one hundred constantly on exhibition, running in prices from $1 up.
Children's Felt Hats, trimmed and untrimmed.
A full stock of Plushes and Velvets, at importation prices.
Few Laces and Dress Trimmings opened to-day.
