A HORSE DEALER'S TROUBLE

HARRY LINTNER, OF MILLERSVILLE, PROSECUTED BY HENRY BINKLEY.

A Transaction Between Them That Has Resulted in a Criminal Complaint Against Lintner For Stealing.

A mixed up horse case has brought two parties into a couple of law suits which may yet prove very interesting. It seems that on Saturday Henry Binkley, of Mountville, purchased three horses from Harry C. Lintner, of Millersville, for $210, which was the amount of a note that Lintner owed him. Binkley asked that $35 of this amount be considered as part payment of the note, but before he left the stable he paid $18 more, the amount of a bill for road tax presented to Lintner by the supervisor, and which Lintner asked him to pay. This left a balance of $157 for Binkley to pay, as he agreed to do. The following day Lintner went to Binkley's home at Mountville to collect the money and told the latter that the horses were on the way over. The animals never turned up and when Binkley came to Lancaster yesterday he found that the horses were at Bush's stable, on West Grant street. He went there and offered Lintner the balance of $157 in cash, Lintner refused to take it but wanted more. Binkley then had a writ of replevin issued and Deputy Sheriff Stoner went to seize the horses. When he arrived at the stable Lintner was on hand, and he defied the officer or any other man to take the horses. The deputy sheriff is a much older man than Lintner, but he was not afraid, and when he took off his coat, the horses were given to him. The deputy sheriff turned the horses over to Mr. Binkley's man, who took them to the Sorrel Horse hotel, but afterwards started for Mountville with them. When Lintner found where the horses had been taken he and another man started in pursuit. They overtook the man with the horses and took the animals from him. Binkley came to town this morning and brought suit before Alderman Deen against Lintner, charging him with horse stealing.

HEAVY RAINFALL IN COLUMBIA.

Cellars Flooded and Sewers Clogged. Where the Damage Was Greatest.

COLUMBIA, Sept. 17.—A very heavy rainstorm passed over this place yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock, which was one of the heaviest ever known here. For nearly an hour the rain fell in torrents, badly washing the streets and gutters. The sewers could not carry off the water and the streets were overflowed. The sewer at the Tremont house was too small to carry off the water which ran down Front street in a perfect flood. Nearly all the cellars along Front, from Locust to Walnut, were filled with water. At Stauffer's liquor store and Desher's barber shop the water was on the first floor three inches deep, leaving the floors covered with mud. The cellar of John H. Fink's fruit store was badly flooded, damaging considerable fruit in the cellar. The foundations of the adjoining houses were badly torn by the rushing waters. The cellar of Fendrich's cigar store contained three feet of water, but the tobacco had been placed out of the way. Several large holes can be seen in pavements and gutters in different parts of the town. In front of Redsecker's livery stable is a hole almost big enough to bury a horse. The storm passed directly over the town, and did not extend below the dam. Several persons were fishing below the dam and escaped the storm. Another heavy rain fell last night, but did not do any further damage.

A. B. Fox, machinist at the P. R. R. round house, was bruised about the legs yesterday by an extension door of an engine falling on him while at work.

Gotlieb Young, brewer, will leave town on Thursday for New York, and will sail on Saturday for Germany, where he will visit about two months.

Mrs. B. F. Steiger, of Washington, D. C., returned home this morning after a visit to town.

A large number of Gen. Welsh Post left at 8:30 o'clock this morning to attend the reunion at Manheim. A large number were prevented from going by the heavy rain. All the members wore a stalk of golden-rod on their coats. The Metropolitan band went with the post.

A birthday surprise party was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. H. Kline, a short distance from town. A large number of friends spent a pleasant time.

About fifty members of the Shawnee fire company attended the Brotherhood fair in the armory last night, and presented a large, handsome cake to the fair. The presentation speech was made by E. Newcomer and was received by Jos. C. Strawbridge. The company chanced off a ten dollar gold piece, which was drawn by ticket No. 64, held by Mrs. D. McCarty.

A big blast was set off at Detweiler's stone quarries this morning, and over four hundred tons of stone dislodged.

Wm. Brummell, a P. R. R. engineer, was struck by a draft of cars yesterday while crossing the company coal wharves. He received a few slight cuts about the head.

Annie Bear sued Jos. Alfred Turner, for assault and battery and surety of the peace before Squire Solly. He gave bail for a hearing on Saturday. The parties are colored.

Squire Solly sent Patience Ryan, colored, to jail last night for being drunk and disorderly, for 10 days.

What the Heavy Rain Did.

The heavy rain of last night caused a wash-out at Shock's mills, on the Pennsylvania railroad. Considerable of the track was damaged and it had to be repaired this morning, but travel was not delayed.

At Mountville, at noon to-day, the train from Columbia ran through four inches of water on the railroad track.

A Horse Broke His Leg.

William Erb, a young man from Illinois, who has been on a visit at Pequea Valley, has been admitted to the county hospital suffering from a broken leg. A horse fell on him on Saturday.

NEW AND HANDSOME FALL SHAPES!

LADIES' SHOES!

New goods for the Fall trade are constantly coming in. Hence there's something for us to tell of shoes almost daily. Among the latest arrivals are two different makes for Ladies' wear, handsome in shape and economic in cost. The first is a Square Toe Button Shoe in soft, bright Dongola Leather, a stout plump grade for Fall requirements; solid leather soles, counters and heels; have strong drill linings and deep silk top facings; admirably finished, well made and strongly recommended for their excellent wearing qualities. In them the foot presents a neat, trim and graceful look. Ladies who have tried them pronounce them exceedingly comfortable the first time worn. The price —$2.00 a pair—is a low one for shoes so high in grade. The second make is of soft bright Dongola Leather, lighter in weight than those described above—the uppers yielding and possibly conforming to the shape of the foot more readily. Solid leather throughout, nothing slighted in the making, trimming or the finish. A handsome looking shoe, admired greatly by Ladies who see them. Not recommended for severe and rough usage—they're too fine for that. Yet, with but a little care they will be found to give excellent service. Fit the foot close and comfortably, and make it pretty and very attractive in appearance. The same low price for them as for the heavier grade—$2.00 a pair. You miss seeing admirably shaped shoes, economic in cost, if you fail to see these.
