

ROOMS FULL OF RELICS.

THE COLLECTION OF GEORGE H. DANNEB, OF MANHEIM, INTERESTING.

A Large Number of Persons View Ancient Articles on Grand Army Day. Some Things Several Centuries Old.

Mr. George H. Danneb, merchant, whose place of business is on Market Square, Manheim borough, is the possessor of relics of which any historical society might feel proud.

About fifteen years ago, having a number of family relics scattered about his house, he decided to arrange them in order, and for that purpose he fitted up a museum on the third floor of his house.

It would be almost an impossibility to describe all the relics seen, and the reporter jotted down a list of some of those which might interest the readers of the INTELLIGENCER.

First on the list is a book by Luther, a comment on the ten commandments, published in 1620. The book is in an excellent state of preservation.

A cup used at the reception of Lafayette in Lancaster in 1824 is one of the relics highly prized by Mr. Danneb.

Next is a collection of articles that Mr. Danneb prizes so highly that no inducement offered would make him part with them.

These are the cradle in which his grandmother was rocked, his grandmother's sewing chair, the bedstead and dressing table which she used.

Among the relics are a Masonic plate and a pitcher having on them the emblems of a brother Mason.

A Bible that has been 100 years in the family and weighs 200 pounds, and another Bible, also very old, which is a globe, which was made by his father over half a century ago.

One of the relics highly prized by him is a coronet made by his father in 1820. Another relic is a globe, which was made by his father over half a century ago.

Among the relics are a Masonic plate and a pitcher having on them the emblems of a brother Mason.

A Bible that has been 100 years in the family and weighs 200 pounds, and another Bible, also very old, which is a globe, which was made by his father over half a century ago.

One of the relics highly prized by him is a coronet made by his father in 1820. Another relic is a globe, which was made by his father over half a century ago.

Among the relics are a Masonic plate and a pitcher having on them the emblems of a brother Mason.

A Bible that has been 100 years in the family and weighs 200 pounds, and another Bible, also very old, which is a globe, which was made by his father over half a century ago.

One of the relics highly prized by him is a coronet made by his father in 1820. Another relic is a globe, which was made by his father over half a century ago.

Among the relics are a Masonic plate and a pitcher having on them the emblems of a brother Mason.

A Bible that has been 100 years in the family and weighs 200 pounds, and another Bible, also very old, which is a globe, which was made by his father over half a century ago.

One of the relics highly prized by him is a coronet made by his father in 1820. Another relic is a globe, which was made by his father over half a century ago.

Among the relics are a Masonic plate and a pitcher having on them the emblems of a brother Mason.

A Bible that has been 100 years in the family and weighs 200 pounds, and another Bible, also very old, which is a globe, which was made by his father over half a century ago.

One of the relics highly prized by him is a coronet made by his father in 1820. Another relic is a globe, which was made by his father over half a century ago.

THE COLOR LINE OF CONOWINGO.

Race Prejudice Shown at Black Barren Springs by the W. C. T. U.

Editors INTELLIGENCER--The Pennsylvania Board of Agriculture conducted a fair at Conowingo, Md., on the 11th and 12th inst. at the Springs, No. 60, Farmers' Club and Fulton Grange, Sept. 5 and 6. At this institute the ladies of the W. C. T. U. Conowingo, were invited by circular to furnish wholesome food and drink; and did furnish it to hundreds for a compensation. A very respectable colored man from Bremen applied to the ticket office for a ticket to get his dinner.

The ticket seller paid no attention to him. He went into the office where meals were furnished and occupied a table by himself. A lady in attendance inquired if he had a ticket. He said: "No, but I have the money. I could not get a ticket. I had then went to the office to secure a ticket. In the office at that time were two females who, when the ticket was demanded, said: "Oh, some one is so queer." Not obtaining the ticket the lady said to the colored man: "Come with me; I will get you a dinner, or know the reason why." She went into the office where the refreshment department and did not return; presumably having discovered the reason why. After waiting a reasonable time the colored man returned to the refreshment department and rode to his home, many miles distant to get his dinner.

The subject of Christian Temperance Union is an industrious, self-supporting, unobtrusive black man. In Drummer he is highly respected and is a member of a respectable white citizens of all parties. His bond is good in the national banks, and his word is good as his bond. He is a man of high character, and is a member of the W. C. T. U. of Conowingo, Md.

Manufacturers Opposed to a Protective Duty on Carpet Wools.

The executive committee of the National Association of Wool Manufacturers was in session in Boston on Tuesday. The question of free carpet wools is one of the principal topics under consideration.

The committee reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

The committee also reported that the tariff on carpet wools was not designed to serve as protective duties, but were imposed for purely revenue purposes.

MRS. HAMILTON VESTRAL.

IT IS IN PROGRESS IN MAY'S LANDING AND CREATES GENERAL INTEREST.

The Court Room Thronged by the Curious--Robert Ray Attends and Falls to Notice His Wife's Presence.

MAY'S LANDING, N. J., Sept. 18.--The court room was crowded this morning with people anxious to hear the proceedings in the case of Mrs. Robert Ray Hamilton, indicted for atrocious assault upon her child's nurse, Mary Donnelly, and to get a glimpse of the now famous principals in the affair.

A few unimportant cases were heard and at about eleven o'clock the case of Mrs. Hamilton was called on and about the same time the outer door was swung open and Mrs. Hamilton, the much talked of prisoner, entered leaning on the arm of Captain Perry, her counsel. Immediately following them entered Mrs. Rupp, the proprietress of the Noll cottage, and Mary Ann Donnelly, the wounded nurse. They were all shown within the rail, Mrs. Hamilton sitting beside her counsel. She looked pale and wan and her face showed evidence of the strain of her close confinement.

Dr. Crosby, the first witness called, described the nature of the wound and added that Mrs. Donnelly was now entirely out of danger. The prosecution then introduced a bottle of acid. Mrs. Hamilton then testified that she had never seen Mrs. Donnelly until the morning of the assault she responded to Mrs. Hamilton's call to lock her trunk. Upon reaching the door of the room she saw that Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton had been quarreling and that Mr. Hamilton was in a very angry mood.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

The jury, after the prosecution had rested its case, returned a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Hamilton was sentenced to the State Prison for a term of five years.

COLUMBUS FULL OF VISITORS.

Old Fellows Drilling for Prizes--Grand Lodge Proceedings.

An immense throng poured into Columbus, O., on Tuesday, all trains being crowded with visitors to the meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. Probably 200,000 strangers, Old Fellows and their friends, are in the city.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

The meeting of the Sovereign Grand Lodge L. O. O. F. is one of the largest gatherings of its kind in the world. It is held in Columbus, O., and is attended by thousands of members from all parts of the world.

A DELAWARE TOWN DAMAGED.

FIRE DESTROYS A NUMBER OF DWELLINGS AND BUSINESS PLACES.

An Incendiarist Believed to Have Operated It--The Owners of the Buildings and Their Losses.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 18.--Fire broke out in Seaford, Del., at 1:20 o'clock this morning and burned until 6:30, when by the tearing down of the house, supplemented by the aid of two engines from Wilmington, it was gotten under control.

The fire originated in Marrow's block and swept the entire street as far as J. C. Collison's dwelling.

The following buildings were destroyed: J. L. Phillips' residence, loss $300; George Dolby's store, $1,000; Jacob Pepper's store, $500; William D. Robinson's store, $800; Morrow's block, $6,000; Masonic hall and F. A. Shipley's drug store, $2,500; town hall, $1,000; W. A. Howard's jewelry store and dwelling, $1,000; Odd Fellows hall and A. G. Greenbaum's store, $5,000; four stores owned by J. C. Collison and occupied by A. S. Woolley, J. C. Harris, A. F. Phillips and Miss Kate Wilcox, $1,500; W. W. Allen's office, $750; all insured except Dolby, J. L. Phillips and Howard.

A Missing Yacht. CLEVELAND, Sept. 18.--The steam yacht Leo, left Lorain, 25 miles west of here Sunday night for Cleveland, with a party of eight prominent and well known citizens of Lorain. The yacht has not yet reached here, this morning the bodies of T. B. Hittler and A. A. Sawyer were found floating in the lake. It is supposed the yacht was wrecked and the entire party drowned.

Republican Nominations. PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 18.--The Republican city convention was held today and the following nominations were made: Mayor, Samuel W. Pennypacker; district attorney, George P. Graham; coroner, Samuel H. Ashbridge; clerk of the court of quarter sessions, James W. Latta.

Believed to Have Been Abducted. CHICAGO, Sept. 18.--Alice De Wolf, a little girl, is missing and it is believed she has been abducted. She left her home for school yesterday morning, but did not reach school and has not been seen since.

FORAKER ABUSES NOBLE. Disrespectful Allusions to the Secretary in a Speech to the Grand Army. A meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic was held in Springfield, O., at which George Foraker was present. The governor spoke of the superiority of the Grand Army of the Republic and of the resulting blessings. He followed with praises of the Union soldiers and launched forth in a graphic and stirring manner a series of reports and particularly in rebel prisons. He said he bore no malice toward any human being, not even the rebels, but he would not grant the old soldiers' pension.

The following are his exact words, as taken by a stenographer: "That good, gallant and most beloved no-legged soldier Corporal Tanner, has been removed from the position of which he was appointed, but we propose and are going to know why he was removed. If Tanner does not go back I want a man put in his place who will carry on business in the same style. It is evident that an obscure member of the cabinet, who was never heard of before his elevation to that position, has been instructed in removing Mr. Tanner from office."

This part of his speech was sent out in one of our papers. It was published in the Times-Star, stating in very mild terms that he had been indisposed. An investigation was instituted by the committee on the part of the grand jury, who would make affidavits that the report of the speech, part of which is quoted in our issue, was true and published. Mayor W. R. Barnett, T. B. Flago, Charles H. Berry and others are among the number.

After the delivery of the Springfield speech, requested the only reporter he saw to exclude from his report the references made to Secretary of the Interior Noble's brother, Henry C. Noble, a millionaire Republican, of Columbus, Ohio. He has been a very warm friend and supporter of Foraker in the same office. Noble doubtless thought that he would oppose him if the complimentary allusions to Secretary Noble became public.

Wreck on the Pennsylvania Railroad. There was a wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad, just east of Gordonville, about 10 o'clock this morning. In a freight car an eastern bound train there was a lot of rolling mill machinery, including a mill and a part of the car, and landed across the railroad tracks. This threw the car from the track, and the body was torn from the mill, causing a considerable loss.

The following are his exact words, as taken by a stenographer: "That good, gallant and most beloved no-legged soldier Corporal Tanner, has been removed from the position of which he was appointed, but we propose and are going to know why he was removed. If Tanner does not go back I want a man put in his place who will carry on business in the same style. It is evident that an obscure member of the cabinet, who was never heard of before his elevation to that position, has been instructed in removing Mr. Tanner from office."

This part of his speech was sent out in one of our papers. It was published in the Times-Star, stating in very mild terms that he had been indisposed. An investigation was instituted by the committee on the part of the grand jury, who would make affidavits that the report of the speech, part of which is quoted in our issue, was true and published. Mayor W. R. Barnett, T. B. Flago, Charles H. Berry and others are among the number.

After the delivery of the Springfield speech, requested the only reporter he saw to exclude from his report the references made to Secretary of the Interior Noble's brother, Henry C. Noble, a millionaire Republican, of Columbus, Ohio. He has been a very warm friend and supporter of Foraker in the same office. Noble doubtless thought that he would oppose him if the complimentary allusions to Secretary Noble became public.

Wreck on the Pennsylvania Railroad. There was a wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad, just east of Gordonville, about 10 o'clock this morning. In a freight car an eastern bound train there was a lot of rolling mill machinery, including a mill and a part of the car, and landed across the railroad tracks. This threw the car from the track, and the body was torn from the mill, causing a considerable loss.

The following are his exact words, as taken by a stenographer: "That good, gallant and most beloved no-legged soldier Corporal Tanner, has been removed from the position of which he was appointed, but we propose and are going to know why he was removed. If Tanner does not go back I want a man put in his place who will carry on business in the same style. It is evident that an obscure member of the cabinet, who was never heard of before his elevation to that position, has been instructed in removing Mr. Tanner from office."

This part of his speech was sent out in one of our papers. It was published in the Times-Star, stating in very mild terms that he had been indisposed. An investigation was instituted by the committee on the part of the grand jury, who would make affidavits that the report of the speech, part of which is quoted in our issue, was true and published. Mayor W. R. Barnett, T. B. Flago, Charles H. Berry and others are among the number.

After the delivery of the Springfield speech, requested the only reporter he saw to exclude from his report the references made to Secretary of the Interior Noble's brother, Henry C. Noble, a millionaire Republican, of Columbus, Ohio. He has been a very warm friend and supporter of Foraker in the same office. Noble doubtless thought that he would oppose him if the complimentary allusions to Secretary Noble became public.

Wreck on the Pennsylvania Railroad. There was a wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad, just east of Gordonville, about 10 o'clock this morning. In a freight car an eastern bound train there was a lot of rolling mill machinery, including a mill and a part of the car, and landed across the railroad tracks. This threw the car from the track, and the body was torn from the mill, causing a considerable loss.

The following are his exact words, as taken by a stenographer: "That good, gallant and most beloved no-legged soldier Corporal Tanner, has been removed from the position of which he was appointed, but we propose and are going to know why he was removed. If Tanner does not go back I want a man put in his place who will carry on business in the same style. It is evident that an obscure member of the cabinet, who was never heard of before his elevation to that position, has been instructed in removing Mr. Tanner from office."

This part of his speech was sent out in one of our papers. It was published in the Times-Star, stating in very mild terms that he had been indisposed. An investigation was instituted by the committee on the part of the grand jury, who would make affidavits that the report of the speech, part of which is quoted in our issue, was true and published. Mayor W. R. Barnett, T. B. Flago, Charles H. Berry and others are among the number.

THE AFTERNOON IN MANHEIM.

RAIN PREVENTS THE DRESS PARADE--SPORTS HAVE TO BE ABANDONED.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time. After the rain ceased, the sports were resumed, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery of the address of welcome for some time.

The rain of Tuesday afternoon marred the festivities of Grand Army Day at Manheim. It began about the time the parade was over, and a heavy shower prevented the delivery