GRACE HAWTHORNE.

Properties already mentioned she owns real estate in New York and other American cities.

Grace Hawthorne, too, has decided not to play in America this season. She is the youngest actress who created something of a sensation as "Only an American Girl" at one time.

She is a well-known actress, and her departure from America has been a great loss to the American stage.

BIG BROUHERS.

Description and Measurements of One of Brothers' Best Fishes. The largest man in the Boston team.

There are hundreds of varieties of woolens in the market, and there are others with a woven bright thread which shows itself here and there.

The French quill plaid is very beautiful and softer in tone than the Scotch, which, though they do not all follow the clan colors.

It is exactly the shade of a willow's back, with the sort of a dusty bloom all over the surface.

The silk and wool mixed goods are to be very largely worn, particularly the Priestly Henrietta silk wools.

They have a new line of gray and white stripes this season, and a new black called Lastrine.

The accompanying maps show the locations of the sites proposed for the construction of the New York World's fair.

The trial and its main facts are fresh in the public mind, but some of the peculiar phases of it may be repeated.

The minority report was signed by Justice Bradley, Field and Harlan, and it adds not a little to the uncertainty of the case.

The renewed suit was begun in the federal court in Boston on behalf of the Bell company.

Mr. Octavius Cohn, formerly one of the editors of the American Press Association, and now managing editor of the Charleston S. C. Daily and Weekly World and Sunday Budget.

P. T. Barnum tells a story of how he was one day walking beside a railroad track with a man who was very hard of hearing.

There is a new comic opera, to be called "Niatrici." The opera will be in three acts, the first of which is laid in Spain.

George Steadman, according to the Fall Mail Budget the champion wrestler of the world, was born at Aspy, in the county of Westmoreland, England, in 1846.

NEW YORK FASHIONS.

THIS IS THE TIME THAT TRIES THE WRITER ON STYLES. There are so many new and beautiful fashions and such a profusion of new and talking goods that one does not know where to begin.

The Inverness plaids are more than usually fine and soft this season, and in clan colors as well as in new devices in such patterns, but all very large figured.
