GOOD'S HEARING.

The Alleged Slayer of Edwin Givler Refore Alderman Halbach. This afternoon Harry Good, the young man who is charged with the serious crime of murder, in having caused the death of Edwin Givler, who was found in a dying condition along the road near his home in Bareville on last Thursday, was heard before Alderman Haibach. The hearing was held in the large court room, as the number of witnesses was entirely too large for the alderman's office. The prisoner appeared in court with his father and uncle. He was represented by H. Chy Brubaker and A. B. Hassler, esqs.

In opening the case District Altorney Weaver read the law in regard to the different degrees of murder. A large number of witnesses were then called, and the testimony showed the same facts as has already been published in the INTELLIGENCER. It had not been concluded at the time of going to press. Edwin Givler, who was found in a dying
