In a divorce case filed on Tuesday in the St. Louis circuit court, entitled Marian Miller va. Louis Miller, there is a most strange and romantic history. Twenty-five pours ago Louis Miller, then of St. Petersburg, Russia, was married to one of the nobility of that city, a beautiful lady of high birth, possessing all of the accountial himself that education and refinement could bring.

After the marriage the couple settled lown in their native city. The country ras at that time threatened by the Nihilista filler decided to leave his native land and was at that time threatened by the Nihilista. Miller decided to leave his native land and try his fortune among a free people. Bidding his wife a few months' fareweil he came to this country and settled in St. Louis. There he entered into business and secumulated a fortune.

During all of this time he was sending money to his wife and receiving letters from her, but in a few months after he left home his mother, with whom he lest his young wife, died, and the wife left to join her friends, 500 miles in the interior of Russia. All of this time the mails were very irregular and, by orders of the Russian authorities, letters hardly ever reached their destination. The young wife received no letters from him and he received none from her, until one day a letter came to him with the sad tidings of her death. Years passed. During all this time the young wife could get no news of her husband.

Thinking him lost she concluded to visit young wife could get no news of her husband.

Thinking him lost she concluded to visit this country and learn, if possible, what had become of him. Bringing with her their son, who had grown to manhood, she landed in Baltimore, and the son came to St. Louis and engaged in business, meeting some friends, and one day they asked him where his father was, and he told them the story of his father's life. They said the son looked like a man they knew, and he sent to his mother for a picture of his father, which was shown his friends, who took him at once to that gentleman.

But in the meantime, in July 1887, the father had married again and was living in fine style in St. Louis. His first wife came to see him, and the meeting between them was one of joy and sadness. Both wives, it is declared, loved the husband, but the good judgment of the last wife did not forsake her and she would release him to again live with and love his bride of the years long gone by. Acting on this resolution she has as stated employed company. years long gone by. Acting on this resolu-tion she has, as stated, employed connect to bring a suit to release her and him from the ties that bind them together.

Breathing the Germs of Disease.

To tubale the germs of disease with their daily breath is the fate of denizens of malarisacourged localities everywhere. The endemic atmosphere poison may, however, be reft of its venom and rendered innoxious by a defensive use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This preeminently safe and effective remedy and asfeguard not only eradicates the disease when developed, but enables the system to safely brave its assaults. Every physical function is confirmed in or restored to regularity, the circulation quickened if sluggish, and a billous habit, which of itself begets a proneness to both intermittent and remittent types of material disease, where extrinsic atmospheric causes exist, powerfully counteracted by this inimitable foritying and defensive agent, which has, moreover, none of the disagreeable characteristics of o drastic cathartic or an alkaloid. Fever and ague, dumb ague and ague cake, and the celembers of the Islamus, are conquered by it surely, pleasantly. Rheumatism, neuralgia gout, kidney and bladder troubles, constipation and indigestion yield to it.

The great quantity of waste matter to be lourly and daily removed from the system renders it of supreme importance that the stomach and liver be kept in perfect order. Laxador accomplishes this. All druggists sell it at 25 cents contracts. a package.

When your child has been attacked with d arrhea, to ic or stomach disorders, do not delay use of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup one instant.

THE most obstinate cases of catarrn are cured by the use of Ely's Cream Balm, the only agree able remedy. It is not a liquid or snuff, is easily applied into the nostrils. For cold in the head applied into the nostries. For con-it is magical. It gives relief at once. Price 50

HEADACHE TROCHES.

BRIGGS' HEADACHE TROCHES -FOR-

SICK HEADACHE

IN ITS NERVOUS, BILIOUS, OR CONGES-TIVE FORMS, TIVE FORMS.

This Remedy is the prescription of one of the leading physicians of Paris, France, and was used by him with unparalleled success for over thirty years, it was first given to the public as a proprietary medicine in 187s. Since which time it has found its way into almost every county on the face of the globe, and become a favorite remedy with thousands of the leading physicians. Medical societies have discussed its marvelous success at their annual conventions, and after their official chemists have analyzed it and found that it contained no opiates, bromides or other harmful ingredients, quietly placed it among their standard remedies.

This is to certify that I have used for some months with much satisfaction, the combination of remedies, for Headache, known as BRIGGS HEADACHE THOCHES. The remedy cures more headaches, especially such as affect Nervons Women, than anything I am acquainted with, and if this certificate will be the means of bringing it to the fivorable attention of sufferers from that trouble, I shall feel that I have done them a service.
