FARMERS IN QUARRYVILLE.

A DIG MERTING MELD THERE BY THE COUNTY SOCIETY ON SATURDAY.

es of the Men and Women Who Atded-Reports on Crops, an Essay and Discussion on Farm Topics.

The October meeting of the Lancaster City and County Agricultural society was held at Quarryville on Saturday and it was largely attended by representative farmers of the lower end of the county. It was the largest meeting ever held by the society and proves that it was a wise move made when it was decided to meet occasionally in the small towns of the CROP REPORTS. The first order of business was reports of crops, and the following were made: Calvin Cooper, of Bird-in-Hand, reported all the crops harvested. The corn crop is better than expected. A short crop was looked for on account of the very wet weather during the summer, which retarded the formation of the grains. The spile crop was a failure, the fruit being poor in quality and imperfectly formed. Smith's Cider, so prolific and good in for-mer years, was not worth picking. The late apples are poorer than anticipated a month ago.

J. G. Rush, of Peques, reported the nut J. G. Rush, of Feques, reported the fine crop as perfect this year.
M. D. Kendig, of Manor, advocated the culture of the Paragon chestnut. As to the crops he said seeding was from 10 to 14 days late, owing to the wet weather, but that labor was now about done; the corn crop was a good one.

Johnson Miller, of Warwick, said the corn in his section was not as well matured as expected. Some of the ears are not half filled; as to the wheat and oats crops he reported that he distributed books received from the agricultural department, to get he average yield. He distributed them to hreshers, and he had received some rethreshers, and he had received some returns. In Warwick township, from 332 acres of wheat, the result was 6,883 bushels, an average of 20 73-100. Of oats, the average in this county was 32 bushels. In Ephrata township, 5,000 bushels of wheat were threshed from 262 acres, an average of 20 19-100. In this township the average yield of oats was 27 bushels. In East Donegal from 273 acres there were threshed 6.718 bushels, or an average of 24 60-100. The oats yield here was 35 bushels to the acre. The wheat crop in his judgment was from 5 to 10 bushels per acre below the estimate made early in the season. Ephraim Hoover, of Manheim, said the average wheat yield was about the same to his township as in Ephrata and Warwick. There does not appear to be anything to hirder the grass fields from being well loaded. There is less rot in potatoes than indicated early in the season.

James Collins, of Colerain, reported the wheat average in his township at 20 bushels. He found the white wheat better for straw and amount than the red. There are not as many mouldy grains in the white. The corn crop is good, if there is success in housing it. The potato crop is fair. It has

James Wood, of Little Britain, said the corn in his section was in shock; the seed-ing is done, 10 or 12 days later than last Not much wheat threshed and that reshed is not of good quality. W. T. Clark, of Drumore, reported the wheat crop not so large or good as was ex-pected and the white wheat better than the red. Corn looks well, but some on the low grounds not good. Of potatoes there was a fair yield and no rot. The tobacco crop was a good one, although he had heard of rust in it.

George W. Hensel, when called upon for a report, said he might be considered an amateur farmer. He reported the wheat crop not as large as expected; the corn crop was unusually good; there was some rot in the polatoes, but the crop was a fair one; the apple crop was short and not of good quality. Before concluding Mr. Hensel said he was glad the society met in the lower end of the county. He advised the farmers of other sections of the county who were on the lookout for cheap farms to were on the lookout for cheap farms to examine those in the lower end and he believed they would do well in purchasing those in the market.

Mr. Haines, of Fulton township, said his report was substantially the same as the made. The wheat in his section averages from 20 to 22 bushels, but the ity was poor; the corn crop was good and the great bulk of the potato crop sound; there was not as much tobacco raised in his township as a few years ago.

Mr. Reist, of Warwick, said he knew farmers in his section who raised over 30 bushels of wheat to the acre. Taken altogether he thought the crops of the past year were good.

President Landis said the average wheat

President Landis said the average wheat in his township would be 23 or 24 bushels. Wash L. Hershey, of West Donegal, reported the yield of wheat in his neighborhood as 22 or 23 bushels, the corn crop good, apple crop a failure, the tobacco crop excellent and of potatoes a good crop.

Mr. Groff, of Eden, reported an average yield of 23 bushels of wheat. In the low grounds the wheat was injured by wet weather. The corn crop was as good as any raised on the high-priced land close to Lancaster. There was some rot in the early part of the season in potatoes, but the crop was a fair one. The tobacco crop was injured some and moulded through too much wet weather.

much wet weather.

Tobacco culture.

This was the subject of an essay by Ephraim 8. Hoover. He began by saying that it is an industry that should deeply interest Lancaster county and all other farmers, whose soil is adapted to its cultivation. With the low price of our cereals and the high price of land and heavy taxation it is an important question how the farmers can make his farm pay at least a common interest, besides paying for all necessary labor, expenses and taxes. Up to the present time there is no branch of farming industry that will help the farmer out so well as a first-class crop of tobacco, say about six per cent. of the farm set apart for the crop annually. He then described at length the different stages in the growth of the weed from the time the seed bed is laid out until it is ready for market, giving proper directions how to do all the work so as to insure the crop being in the best possible condition. His estimate was that from 1,500 to 2,000 pounds of tobacco could be raised from each acre and taking 1,800 pounds as the average and 8 cents as the average price, the yield would be $144 per acre and for six acres $864, a greater sum than any other crop will yield.

The essay was discussed by Messra. Miller, Kendig and Rush until adjournment.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The society was called to order at one o'clock. It was decided to meet in November in Lancaster city, and the subject for discussion would be "How can Pennsylvania farmers successfully compete with $10, $15 and $20 lands of the West?" to be accounted by Calvin Cooper.

sle, $15 and $20 lands of the West?" to be opened by Calvin Cooper,

The referred question would be "Does it pay for our boys to leave the farm?" to be answered by M. D. Kendig.

The subject for discussion. "Does cattle feeding pay?" assigned to Wm. H. Brosius, of Drumore. The speaker did not have an essay prepared, but read from the "National Stockman and Farmer" a lengthy article on the cattle question. The substance of the article was that there are now fewer cattle in proportion to the population than five years ago; that the future tendency of prices of cattle will be to advance on account of the improbability of increasing the stock of cattle as rapidly as the population is augmenting. This advance will be slow and uncertain for a number of years. It will be at least three years before the stock of cattle has been reduced to the proportion, as compared to populato the proportion, as compared to popula-tion, which existed in 1878 and then the tion, which existed in 1878 and then the mean price of steers was but $4.25 per 100 pounds. In other words, the price of steers for several years will depend more upon the price of hogs, upon the value of the exports of cuttle and beef products and upon the proportion of steers marketed than upon any changes likely to occur in the number of cattle per 1,000 population, which exists in this country.

Mr. Cooper said he was greatly disappointed at Mr. Brosius not touching the subject assigned to him. Instead of talking on "Does Cattle Feeding Pay" he treats this meeting to a long statistical article, which does not touch the question for discussion.

Mr. Collins said if the farmers of Lancister county can buy cattle at 3 cents, feed

Mr. Collins said if the farmers of Lancister county can buy cattle at 3 cents, feed them and sell them for 4 cents, it will pay to feed them. The rough food must be used up. It may be used in feeding cows for the milk, hogs for pork, or cattle. He contended that by buying cattle at 3 cents, putting 350 pounds on them with corn and selling them at 4 cents, a farmer gets 75 cents a busnel for his corn.

Mr. Haines, of Fulton township, took the position that good cattle could not be bought at three cents. He could buy steers weighing 1,000 pounds at 3; cents and feed them ing 1,000 pounds at 3) cents and feed them six months. Each one would eat about 50 bushels of corn and the usual quantity of hay. Each of these cattle ought to increase in weight 400 pounds, and the net gain for the farmer would be at an advance of one cent per pound—$28, without counting the manure, which is worth from $8 to $10, con-sidering the price paid for fertilizers and their effects on land. He said the time was not far distant when fences would be dis-pensed with on the farm on account of the growing scarcity of timber, and when we have no fences, we will have to depend entirely upon winter feeding.

Mr. Hoover said cattle in many instances feeding.

Mr.Robert Montgomery said the farmer of the West are not making any moment than those of the East in cat raising. He had reason to think that there would soon be a reaction in this industry. The production of cattle is not keeping up with the ratio of population as it did for some years. The lands in the far West were entirely monopolized for years by ranchmen, but the people are settling on them and ranches cannot be successfully maintained with settlements near them. The territory of grazing lands is limited. The territory of grazing lands is limited. He favored the passage of a law by the Legisla'ure preventing the importation of dressed beef into the state. They can kill poor and cheap cattle and put them at our doors cheaper than we can raise cattle. He thought it was the duty of the Legislature to protect Pennsylvania farmers.

Mr. Diffenderffer said the courts have desided such legislation as unconstitutional.

to protect Pennsylvania farmers.

Mr. Diffenderffer said the courts have decided such legislation as unconstitutional.

Mr. Montgomery replied by stating that any state had the legal right to pass a law to protect the health of its people and he favored a law compelling an inspection of all cattle coming into the state.

James G. Mesparran said the price of beef was too low and was made so by the beef was too low and was made so by the combination of monopolists who controlled the whole meat product of the country. Diseased and poorly fed cattle are run into the East and Pennsylvania farmers cannot compete with this combination. He blamed freight discrimination for contribublamed freight discrimination for contribu-ting to low prices of cattle in the East and said the evil would not be remedied as long as railroads favored these Western men and allowed them to lay their products at our door at the rates they do.

The subject was further discussed by Messrs. Landis, Reist, Miller and Drennen. The last named showed that the consumer pays as much for his beef now as at any any time since the war, that the farmer did any time since the war, that the farmer die not get it, the raiser did not get it and that the middle man was the only ones benefitted by the low price of cattle.

The discussion was kept up until train time when the meeting adjourned, after passing the following resolution:

MILLERSVILLE DEFEATED.

The F. & M. Foot Ball Team Win Easily on Saturday.

The athletes and all lovers of sport at Franklin and Marshall are wearing a very serious expression of late. It was a big undertaking to try to arouse the slumber ing college spirit, but Mr. Irvine under-took the task and succeeded in getting enough men interested to organize 1st and 2d foot ball elevens which he put in daily training about two weeks ago. Nearly one hundred students went to Millersville on hundred students went to Millersville on Saturday where the first game of the season was played and an easy victory secured, the score being 64 to 0. The Normal team was too light for the college boys and were repeatedly pushed behind their goal line. Game was called at 2:10 p. m. Captain Irvine won the toss and chose the ball, Millersville taking the south goal. The ball was dribbled to Gabriel, who advanced thalf the distance. The next down was ball was dribbled to Gabriel, who advanced it half the distance. The next down was near the goal and Irvine carried it across the line, scoring the first touch-down from which goal was kicked. Time, one minute. In seven minutes Gabriel secured the second touch-down goal. The third touch-down was scored by Irvine in nine minutes. Goa'. Line scored the fourth touch-down in six minutes, from which another goal was kicked. Two minutes later time was called with the ball five yards from the Normal goal. Score, 24 to 0. Time of first half, twenty-five minutes.

Payment of Poll Tax. Saturday was the last day for the pay-ment of poll tax for 1889, to enable the voter to be qualified to legally vote at the November election, and but few such taxes were paid in Lancaster. The chairmen of the Democratic and Republican county the Democratic and Republican county committees signed an agreement not to pay taxes, and both these gentlemen kept that agreement, and the voter took no interest in the matter. The payment of a poll tax once in two years qualifies a voter, and this was an off year. The greater portion of the taxes were paid by the committees last year, so that few will be disfranchised if objections are made on the tax question.

THE LAW AND ORDER SOCIETY PETITIONS THE COURT FOR POLICE POWER.

James E. Crawford to Scent the Sunday Law-Breakers - Mayor Edgerley's Officers Notify Store-Keepers.

On Saturday afternoon the policemen of the city served notices on proprietors of cigar stores, grocers, confectioners and butchers that if they kept their places open on Sunday the Law and Order society might bring suit against them. These notices, Mr. Kauffman, the attorney of the society, said this morning, were served in lieu of the proclamation which the mayor was in sympathy with the movement. The Sunday law generally was observed. None of the cigar stores sold their products, but several of them were open as usual. At the drug stores nothing could be purchased but medicines. The restaurants and oyster saloons were open as usual in the evening, but they had not received notices to keep closed.

Attorney Kauffman and Agent Crawford
they were Attorney Kauffman and Agent Crawford when seen this morning said they were gratified at the general observance of the law. There were two places reported to them as open, but in neither case had they sufficient legal evidence to convict, and no suits would be brought. There was no effort made to gather evidence on Sunday, but they wanted it understood that this was no spasmodic effort on the part of the society. It would keep at the work until the Sunday law was observed in the manner the law said it should be.

When asked what would be done about the Sunday papers Mr. Kauffman said no action would be taken at present, but that the society would prevent newsboys disturbing the Sabbath with their great noise in efforts to seil their papers.

n efforts to sell their papers.

Mr. Kauffman said there are a number

Mr. Kauffman said there are a number of people in this city selling liquor without license and they would receive attention in due time, as would the clubs of the city from the high-toned ones on the main streets to the low dives on the back streets. After the liquor evil has been wiped out, the society will turn its attention to the immorality existing in the city, and that would also be stamped out.

In 1837 there was passed an act of assembly making it a misdemeanor to carry on the business of detectives without license, and to regulate the licensing and powers of detectives. In accordance with the provisions of that act, Mr. Kauffman to-day went before the court with the petition of James E. Crawford for appointment as a detective. Under the law it will have to be filed two weeks and advertised, and when granted by the court a license and when granted by the court a license fee of $25 will have to be paid. The license will be good for three years, and the detec-tive so licensed has the power to appoint as many deputies for duty temporarily as he sees proper.

The court directed the petition to be marked filed, and said no order would be made until after a consultation with his colleague.

Capt. Wishart, of Pittsburg, chief of the Law and Order society in Allegheny county, will arrive in this city on Saturday and assist the society in their work, remaining several weeks. He is a licensed detective.

The Sunday Question

The Sunday Question,
EDITORS INTELLIDENCER: As Mr.Luther
S. Kauffman and his associates are now agitating the Sunday closing movement, and have gone to a great deal of trouble to resurrect an old and almost obsolete law that hitherto in this community has been more honored in the breach than in the observance, the cigar men and the restau rateurs are naturally wondering whether he will extend the provisions of the law so as to embrace the churches. In the case of Brother Parker, imported to fill the vacant pulpit of Beecher's church in Brook-Brother Parker, imported to fill the vacant pulpit of Beecher's church in Brooklyn, the United States supreme court has clearly decided that a preacher is a laborer. Such being the case, is not every preacher in Lancaster violating the law? Or will they pretend that they are not working for a salary? How about the paid musicians, both vocal and instrumental, in their choirs? How about the sexton, who must perform his various duties about who must perform his various duties about the church—bell ringing, making fires, etc? How about the preachers' fees for bap-tisms, marriages, and attending funerals on Sunday? I have a dim recollection of a meeting of ministers of this city two or three years ago, in which they resolved that the "laborer is worthy of his hire," on Sunday unless it was a case of absolute necessity, and not then or at any other time unless they received compensation. I sup-pose Mr. Kauffman will contend that pose Mr. Kauffman will contend that preaching on Sunday is a necessity, but then that is only a matter of opinion; and as he wants to make Sunday a day of rost, let us dispense with the services of the paid ministers, the paid organist, the paid cornetist, the paid trombonist, the paid vocal soloists and the paid sexton. "Six days shalt thou labor," is the divine command. Now, then, let the churchgoers devote their energies to the cause of God from Mozday morning until Saturday night, and then Sunday will be truely a day of rest, undisturbed by the clanging of bells, the shricks of the choir, the rumble of the organ, the squeaks of the fiddle, the blare of the cornet, the blast of the trombone, the shouts of the preacher of the trombone, the shouts of the preacher or the discordant yells of the new converts to salvation.

The Matter Before the President. A warrant was issued by Judge Bond, o the United States circuit court, in Balti-more, on Friday, for the arrest of the negroes concerned in the Navassa island murder. United States Marshal George S. Cairnes made return to the warrant that he was powerless to make the arrest, whereupon Judge Bond certified to President Harrison the facts of the case, and they will be laid before the president by counsel for the receivers for his action. It is thought that as soon as the president receives the statement he will refer it to the attorney general for an opinion as to the question of the Jurisdiction of the United States over the Island.

Montana's Democratic Majority.

The latest returns give a Democratic majority of 7 on joint ballot in the Legis-lature, with one in doubt, which may in-crease the majority to 9. In several counties the vote is very close, but it is not thought the official canvassing will make any material change. Toole, Democrat, for governor, has a majority of about 800: Carter, Republican for Congress, a majority of about 1,200.

affering From Cold and Typhold. It is said that many people in Johnstown, Pa., are improperly sheltered and poorly clothed, and are suffering from the cold. At the Red Cross hospital there are now 22 cases of typhoid fever. Two more bodies were taken out of the river on Saturday. It is said that from present appearances there are a great many more dead yet in the Bismarck's Declaration. The Borlin correspondent of the Journal Des Debats asserts that Prince Bismarck, in receiving the president of the Wood Workers' Congress, said: "The foreign situation is so peaceful that you may set to work without the slightest fear. It was not always as Not learn and Europaud still not always so. Not long ago, England still hesitated whether to act as a mad bull or as a fat ox chewing cud. To-day her resolution is taken, and I can assure you that the maintenance of peace is certain."

Made An Asslernment. George Whitson and Reese Evanson partners as Whitson & Evanson, of Chris partners as Whitson & Evanson, of Christiana, drovers and produce dealers, made an assignment to-day for the benefit of creditors to Benjamin Evanson and I. W. Slokum, of the same place. Each of the members of the firm also made individual assignments to the same parties.

Whitson's property is assessed at $8,020, and Eavenson's at $8,055. The amount of judgments entered against Eavenson up to noon to-day, was $14,42. Against Whitson there is a mortgage of $6,000. The failure caused a sensation, as both members were supposed to be in good circum "inces.

of this city, went to Marietta and easily defeated the Grays of that place. For some time the Grays have had a bad case of the enlarged head, and they had an idea that they could play ball. They were telling everybody how easily they were going to win, and for the game they secured the services of Goetz, a Baltimore pitcher, and Rollins, late of York. The former was knocked entirely out in a short time. The feature of the game was the battery work of Snyder and Gibson, first base playing of Gleim and the difficult catch of Shindle. The score in full was:

There was great excitement in this city on the result of the League race on Saturday. The amount of money wagered in Lancaster was very great, especially during the past few weeks. New York seemed to have the most friends here, but there were plenty of men who stuck to Boston. The New York had the advantage on Saturday and one enthusiastic admirer of the Giants bet $100 to $25 upon his favorite and won. The only place in Lancaster where the ball scores have been secured all summer was at John A. Snyder's hotel, on North Queen street. There was a great crowd there on Saturday evening, and by six o'clock the score on the big games were all in, and it was known that the jig was up with Boston. All evening a crowd kept with Boston. All evening a crowd kep pouring in to look at the bulletin board. The friends of the Boston were very jubi-lant and New York's adherents were despondent. A great deal of money was paid over by stakeholders, and base ball was the principal topic of conversation the whole evening. The games of Saturday settled the League

The games of Saturday settled the League championship in favor of New York, as they won in Cleveland, and Boston lost in Pittsburg. Thus ends the most remarkable contest for the championship that has ever occurred in the history of the game. Never before has the outcome hinged on the last game, as it did in this one. Chicago got third place by defeating the Phillies and by their victory over Boston Pittsburg captured fifth place from Cleveland. Thus the results of Saturday's games altered the entire standing of the first six clubs.

The games of Saturday resulted as follows: Chicago 3, Philadelphia 2; New York 5, Cleveland 3; Pittsburg 6, Boston 1; Indianapolis 15, Washington 6; Athletic 10, Brooklyn 2; St. Louis 7, Kansas City 2; Baltimore 11, Columbus 10; Cincinnati 8, Louisville 1.

A Veteran Type, of Harrisburg, Who Mysteriously Disappeared on Friday. William P. THE EPISCOPAL CONVENTION. A Change Adopted Directing the Use of the Nicene Creed.

A Change Adopted Directing the Use of the Nicene Creed.

Most of the session of the Episcopal convention in New York on Saturday was occupied by the house of deputies in discussing the proposition of making compulsory instead of permissory the use of the Nicene creed on at least five days during the year. The change was finally adopted. A committee to confer with a committee from the house of bishops was appointed on the proposition as to the resding of the litany, which passed in the latter body and failed in the former.

The house voted to admit Colorado as a diocese into union with the convention, and referred the memorial of Oregon for similar privileges back to the committee on account of failure to comply apparently with certain canonical technicalities. When these have been satisfied and the house of bishops has given its consent two dioceses will be added to the fifty, and two more bishops will be seated. It is understood that the consecration of the Rev. Dr. William A. Leonard, of Washington, D. C., for the episcopate of Ohio will take place within a few days in New York, and that of the Rev. Dr. Thos. F. Davies, of Philadelphia, to the episcopate of Michigan in Philadelphia at an early day. This will make the number of bishops more than seventy.

A Whole Family and Their Guests Taker Ill Very Suddenly.

The family of D. B. Landis, job printer, who resides at 318 East Chestnut street, were taken very sick in a mysterious manner late on Saturday night. Mr. Lindis was visited by Abraham Baker and wife, relatives who live at Landisville, and during the evening ice cream was sent for and brought in a freezer. All ate heartily of the cream and later retired. During the night all, with the exception of Mr. Baker, were taken violently ill. They began vomiting and purging and complained of severe pain in the head. Dr. Campbell was sent for and when he arrived he found the family all sick. He attended them and they were slow to recover. To-day they are all able to be about, but several still feel the effects of the sickness. What caused it is not exactly known. The doctor is of the opinion that there was some kind of mineral poisoning in the ice cream; others believe that it was caused by coal gas, as the house was found to be full of this when the family was taken ill. were taken very sick in a mysterious man
