—From the Bomerville Journal. Kentucky Vendetta Ended.

A Kentucky Vendetta Ended.

Little Cupid has accomplished what the big state of Kentucky exhausted its executive, legislative and judicial machinery to compass. At Pine Spring, Rowan county, on Saturday morning at 8 o'clock, Miss Grace Martin and Frank Tolliver were married. Miss Martin is a daughter of Gils Martin, and Frank is a brother of the lamented Craig Tolliver, leader of the motorious Rowan war.

All the Capulets and Montagues of either side were present at the ceremony. Two hearts and two rival houses are joined and the Rowan war is over for good and all. Active hostilities in Rowan ended two years ago, when Craig Tolliver and four of his clansmen were killed in a battle fought in broad daylight in Morshead, Ky. Since that time comparative peace has reigned. The young people of the warring families were thrown together and this wedding is the result. In all pinetsen persons were killed in the factional fights.

A Young Man's Fearful Death. A Young Man's Fearful Death.

At Greenville, Ala., on Saturday morning a quarrel between a negro helper and a young white man named Roberts, connected with Burk's horse show, resulted in the negro pouring gasoline over Roberts. Another negro touched off the fluid with a lighted lamp, and in an instant Roberts was enveloped in flames. He ran wildly up and down the main street of the town, but there was no one awake and he was literally roasted slive. When discovered he was in a critical condition, and medical attention was given. One of the negroes has been arrested. The other has escaped.

Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has been before the public for years, and is pronounced by thousands superior to all other articles for the cure o' coughs, colds, influenza, and all pulmonary complaints.

I used Salvation Oil for rheumatism in the feet, and after several applications was entirely relieved of pain and could walk as well as ever.

ANN R. WATKINS, Baltimore, Md.

Herculean Streugth Continually on the strain, or overtaxed at in-tervals, is far less desirable than ordinary vigor perpetuated by rational diet and exercise, and abstention from excess. Professional pugilists and athletes rarely attain extreme old age. As and athletes rarely attain extreme old age. As ordinary vigor may be retained by a wise regard for sanitary living, and for the protection against disease which timely and judicious medication affords, so also it may be lot through prolonged sedentary labor, uninterrupted mental strain and foolish eating and drinking, the chief and most immediate sequence of all four being dyspepsia. For this condition thus, or in any way induced, and for its offspring, a failure of muscular and nerve power, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is the primest and most genial of remedies. Not only indigestion, but loss of fiesh, appetite and sleep are remedied by it. Incipient malaria and rheumatism are banished, and kidney, bowel and liver complaint removed by it. oct21-28
