A BOY CHARGED WITH THEFT.

It is Alleged He Stole a Brass Preserv

ing Kettle. CoLUMBIA, Oct. 23.-Miles Donacher, a on of Martin Donacher, was arrested last son of Martin Donscher, was arrested last night by Officer Wittlek on the charge of larceny. The boy stole a brass preserving kettle on Saturday night from Mrs. Mary Chaney, living in alley D, and sold it to Joseph McFalls, second-hand dealer. The boy was taken before Squire Evans and committed to jail for a trial at court. Young Donacher is a very bad boy and has been in several similar scrapes. A few months ago he was in jail for stealing some tools from W. W. Upp, contractor, but the grand jary ignored the bill. A short time ugo he persuaded a young clerk of Mr. A. Jessel to steal several pairs of stockings for tights when they would perform on a horizontal lar erected in some stable. A fire occurred yesterday afternoon in a frish back building on Union street, shove fifth, occupied by Mrs. James Frisbee, colored. The fire was caused by a defective fue, but was put out before any great damage was done. The Shawnee if re com-pany is located a sbort distance above and wire moon in service. The Columbia and Vigilant companies were on the scene but did not go into service. The building is owned by Doctress Hannah Bosley, the colored corn doctor, and is insured. The remeast damage was done by water. A lecture will be read this evening in the Presbyterian chapel by Rev. G. W. Ely, on the subject, "The Sunday School; Swers". ight by Officer Wittick on the charge of

A successful rehearsal of the Choral ociety was held last night, when Prof. Susanan, of Lancaster, made his first ap-sarance as director of the society. Dr. W. R. Grove has left town for a visit o Philadelphia and New York. The Women's Working society of St. Schn's Lutheran church will hold their ociable this evening at the home of Mrs. E. E. Leaman.

E. E. Leaman. A pleasant party was held last night at he home of Mrs. Mathiot, on Eighth treet; music, singing and refreshments oc-spied sever d bours to the enjoyment of present. oseph Bryson and Miss Ellen Gontner, ughter of Daniel Gontner, were married tevening by Rev. E. Ludwick, of Sa-ne U. B. church. After the ceremony lossant time was had at the home of the de's father in Grubb's row, when a how of process were present.

bridd's father in Grubb's row, when a number of guests were present. The Cookman Chapel Sunday school have adopted a plan which is a novel one re increase the trosury. All the teachers, officers and scholars were given one cent which they were to use in some enterprise and increase the original investment. From indication the school treasury will be greatly increased, as the money is being put to a number of good investments. This morning two hard looking tramps forms in the Lancaster turnpike and told and Mrs. Stewart. "That's my business," was his surly reply. "Well, you know if you kill anybody you will hang," said Mrs. Stewart. "They are not hanging crazy people now-a-days, and I'm crazy," and Daniels. Nothing more was thought of the matter until fuesday afternoon, when Miss Daniels informed Mrs. Horton that she would like to see her brother and have the matter until fuesday afternoon, when Miss Daniels informed Mrs. Horton that she would like to see her brother and have the matter until fuesday afternoon, when Miss Daniels informed Mrs. Horton that she would like to see her brother and have the matter settled, and Mrs. Horton accompa-nied her. According to Miss. Horton's story the two women had no sconer crossed the threshold when Daniels jumped up, grabbed his sister by the throat and knocked her down. He then took a revolver out of his hip pocket and fired six shots at her. Then Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Stewart caught him and held him and he was soon arrested. Only two of the six bullets had taken effect, and the wounded woman is expected to recover.

Funeral of Joseph Clarkson. The funeral of the late Joseph Clarkson

The funeral of the late Joseph Clarkson took place from the residence of the de-ceased on East King street, at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The interment was private, only the male members of the family and their friends accompanying the body to Lancaster cometery, where the interment was made. The services at the house and grave were conducted by Rev. Hooper. The pall-bearers were George K. Reed, George McNabb, Dr. Thomas Ell-maker, Allan A. Herr, John Best and Frederick Stamm. Frederick Stamm.

Order Made for Damages.

Order Made for Damages. D. P. Rosenmiller, counsel for property owners on North Queen street who were obliged to set back their properties to the new street, went brore the court this afternoon and asked that an order be made on the county commissioners to pay the damages assessed. The court made the order prayed for.
