Miss Selie Moore was given a party last evening at the home of her aister, Mra. Andrew Stuckam, in honor of her four-teenth birthday. The guests spent a very saleyable evening in social amusements.

Charles Franciscus, of the Continental hotsl, can claim the title of the champion faherman about this section. He was fishing at Mud island yesterday and caught a time large salmon which weighs ten and one-half pounds. The salmon is alive and on exhibition at the hotel.

Two tramps giving their names as John Donshue, of Reading, and Joseph Murphy, of New York, were arrested last night by Officer Wittick, for disorderly conduct. Squire Evans committed them to jail for five days each.

boller to the flour mill of the Columbia Milling company yesterday afternoon, when the wagon stuck in the soft ground on Mill street. After some time two extra mules were attached to the wagon, but it could not be moved. A jack had to be used to raise the wheels, and then a plank placed under for the wagon to run on to get it out of the mud.

Squire John Solly is rapidly recovering from his attack of paralysis received a few weeks ago. He is now able to be out of bed.

Work is very brisk at the Wilson laundry machine factory, with orders on hand to keep all hands busy for some months. The new addition to the plant is being pushed toward completion.

Although a new industry the Columbia wagon works bids fair to be an important one to the town. A number of vagons are in course of construction and plenty of orders on hand.

Mrs. Judge Latta, of Leavenworth, Kan., is on a visit to Mrs. 1. C. Kauffman.

At the Columbia shirt factory the operatives are kept busily engaged day and night turning out the many orders.

After the bad started the building went with a grammas butser, or this city. After the free had started the building went with a reah and in a short time nothing was left but the sakes. What was burned besides the building were the corn of twelve seres, thirty-five tons of hay, fifty tons of straw, seventy-five bushels of wheat, four acres of tolaccu, several hay rakes and a lot of other farming implements. The harn was a very good one, and an entirely new roof was put on about two years ago. The fire was undoubtedly the work of an incendiary, and it is believed to have been started by a man who was seen running away from the building about the time it was discovered, which was ahortly after two o'clock. The house and barn are insured with Jere Rife for $5,000, of this amount $2,500 is in the American company of Philadelphia, and 2,500 in the Phonix of New York. David-Betkert was the tenant farmer on the place, and his loss was considerable.
