

THE NEW PASTOR OF THE CHURCH OF GOD TO BE ORIGINATED BY THE LUTHERAN.

The new pastor of the Church of God to be originated by the Lutheran...

CONGREGATION, Oct. 26—Sunday being the Sabbath nearest before October 31st, is the day observed as the anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.

Rev. W. J. Schaner, the newly appointed pastor of the Church of God, will occupy the pulpit for the first time on Sunday.

Services in St. Paul's E. B. church on Sunday as follows: Holy communion at 8 a. m., morning service at 10:30, evening service at 7:30.

Rev. George Wells will deliver the usual lecture on Sunday schools on Wednesday evening.

A new delivery siding of the Pennsylvania railroad will be constructed along Second street, from Taylor to Maple.

Samuel Graver, an employe of the Wilson Sewing Machine company, had the index finger of his right hand lacerated by having it caught in a lathe.

Horace Dewler was struck on the right knee yesterday with a ball while playing "shinny" at the school grounds.

R. E. Williams, assistant trainmaster of the P. R. R., has gone to house keeping on Walnut street above Third.

A very enjoyable party was held last evening at the home of Mrs. Michael Detinger, on Locust street.

A pleasant meeting of the Out of Door club was held last evening at the home of the Misses Wilson.

A surprise party was held last evening at the home of Clifford Kline, son of Ephraim Kline, along the Marietta turnpike.

The office of the Ames Oil company has been removed from Third street to the old railway, near the dam.

Joseph McFadden, of Philadelphia, is spending a brief visit in Lancaster.

The Brotherhood of the Union, in name of a four page paper to be issued next week by Liberty Circle, No. 25, South Second street.

A horse belonging to a man named Mowery, living in West Philadelphia township, was attacked by a collie this morning and killed in the street in front of the Episcopal church.

Today is pay day in the Columbia rolling mill and Columbia's iron company. Several thousand dollars was paid to the workmen.

The market this morning was a good one and largely attended.

Mrs. Kate Saylor left town this morning on a visit to friends in Philadelphia.

The Bull increased to $1,400. George Smith, the Akron cigarmaker, who stabbed Daniel Duck, Lemuel Kemper and Abraham Kachel, on Saturday night at Millway, and who has been in jail since then, was taken to the hospital this afternoon.

Smith's counsel petitioned for his admission to bail. The court fixed the bail at $1,200, and Wm. Cummings, of Ephrata, entered security in that amount for Smith's appearance at the November court of quarter sessions.

It was stated to the court that all the men who were stabbed were able to be shown and there is no danger of their death from the injuries inflicted by Smith.

Divorced. The following divorces were decreed to-day by the court: Daniel Young, Rapho township, from Elizabeth Young, adultery, Isaac Grofffield, from Jennie Grofffield, new of New York, desertion.

Jacob Measner, ex Earl, from Mamie Measner, desertion.

Abraham H. Herr, Strasburg borough, from Catherine Herr, desertion.

Henry M. Chitt, city, from William A. Christ, adultery.

Doomed to Drown in Sight of Land. A dispatch was received at Norfolk from Cape Cod, Va., at sunset on Friday, to the effect that three men are lashed to the mast of a vessel which had foundered west of that point. The life-saving crew cannot reach the men, whose vessel is in imminent peril, as the sea is too heavy to attempt a boat being launched, and the sunken vessel is too far from shore to be reached by a shot line.

Conflict Between Hawk and Snake. From the Savannah, Ga., comes the story of the other day, while H. T. Hollis, of Buena Vista, was assisting a party of gentlemen in surveying a piece of land he discovered something that he supposed was a dead hawk in a swamp thicket near the line of survey, but when he requested some one to approach he object and investigate the hawk stretched itself with all the strength it could command, and when it was discovered that the fowl of the air was in the coil of a small black rattle snake no larger than a man's finger about three feet long.

Born and Bred. It isn't so strange that a negro barber should have been a student of the senior class at Harvard when you come to think of it. Barbers are born orators, and when one is college bred he must orate or bust.

An Alleged Embezzler. EASTON, Oct. 26.—Jacob W. Odenwilder, ex-register of wills of Northampton county, was arrested this morning charged by the heirs of his brother, who was one of his bondsmen, with having embezzled while in office $7,000 of state funds.
