ALANCASTER MAN KNOWS HIM

SAMUEL DOWNAN, THE SUSPECT, ARRESTED IN PHILADELPHIA, AN EX-CONVICT.

watte a Prisoner In the Columbus Penl tiary N. M. Balley, of This City. Was the Foreman Over Illm.

There is a gentleman in this city who knows a great deal about the young man same! Bowman, who was arrested in Reading a few days ago for forgeries committed in Philadelphia, and led all the Quaker detectives to believe that he was Taxoot, the murderer of Millionaire Snell, of Chicago. The gentleman is N. H. Palley, foreman at Downey Brothers' bending works, on Harrisburg avenue.

In 1887 Mr. Balley was foreman for the Columbus Wheel and Bending company, which was composed of Lancaster men, in Columbus, Ohio. The company employed a large number of the convicts of the state penitentiary on their work, which was done inside of the prison walls. Among these prisoners was this identical Samuel Bowman, whose serial number was 19,123. Mr. Balley came in contact with him every day and knew him very well. Bowman was sent to the penitentiary from Urbana and Mr. Balley thinks his sentence was two years and a half and was for burglary. He first began working for Mr. Bailey in the months of October, 1887. He worked very steadily up until February Sth, 1888, when he met with a very serious accident, in which he was badly hurt. He stepped upon a round block, which turned under him, and he fell upon a machine that was used for boring hubs. He struck upon a sharp bit and received a terrible cut in the hip or fleshy part of the leg. He was taken to the hospital, to which Mr. Bailey assisted in carrying him, where he remained for a long time on account of the injury. He did not again go to work for Mr. Bailey assisted in carrying him, where he remained for a long time on account of the injury. He did not again go to work for Mr. Bailey assisted in carrying him, where he remained for a long time on account of the injury. He did not again go to work for Mr. Bailey assisted in carrying him, where he remained for a long time on account of the injury. He did not again go to work for Mr. Bailey assisted in carrying him, where he remained for a long time on account of the injury. He did not again go to work for Mr. Bailey assisted in c ere is a centleman in this city

Mr. Bailey says that Bowman was a very quiet, nice young fellow, who was always pleasant and full of life. He attended to his work well. From his manners, conversation, &c., Mr. Bailey thought that he came from a good family and had been well brought up. While he was lying in the hospital under treatment for his injuries he was visited by his father, who appeared to be a fine man. Mr. Bailey has been reading the sensational stories about the arrest of the young fellow, which have appeared in the nowspapers, and as soon as he saw that the fellow gave his name as Bowman and was once in the Columbus penitentiary he knew all about him.

OHIO DEMOCRATS CONFIDENT. Gov. Foraker's Defeat Looked Upon as Certain.

Gov. Foraker's Defeat Looked Upon as Certain.

A Columbus, Ohlo, dispatch says the Hon, James E. Neal chairman of the Democratic state executive committee, talked to-night in an encouraging manner and exultingly claimed the election of his favorite candidate for governor.

"Jim Campbell will be elected governor of Ohlo. I will tell you candidly that I feel a Democratic victory is an assured fact. It may be only 10,600 majority, and there may be a groundswell that will surprise the entire country.

"The Republicans are claiming that you concede the Legislature. You have seen the interview of Foster in which he thinks Foraker may get through by 10,000?"

"Yes, I have read that, and also Col. Conger's interview and I regard it as a confession of weakness. I do not believe either ex-Governor Foster, who is an astute politician, or Col. Conger, who is an astute politician, or Col. Conger, who is an aside and courteons gentleman, is of the opinion that Foraker will not be elected at all. It so, why do they concede that he will be scratched by 10,000 Republican voters? Perhaps they do think they have a show for the Legislature, and Gov. Foster bases his opinion in this regard largely on his own personal work. Foster is also relying too much on the effect of the promises he has been making as to the appointment of 12,000 census takers next year. His calculation that each promise is worth forty or fifty votes won't pan out.

"You notice, by the way, that the exgovernor is not claiming Hamilton county, but says they will have the Legislature ontside of that. That is absurd, because giving us Hamilton county they would have to carry all the close counties and senatorial districts, and they can't do it."

FRESH BARGAINS IN SHOES.

We have just received what is considered the Best Bargain in a Cheap Shoe for Ladies that we ever had. Kid or Pebble Button, at $1.50. They are beauties for the price. Still better at $2 and $2.25. The $3 Shoe for Men in Bais or Congress still have the lead of all $3 Shoes sold. Our stock of Coarse and Fine Boots is large and we can suit all. Men's Calf Boots as low as $2. Our Rubber line consists mainty of Goodyear Glove Co.'s goods, which are the best made.

Our custom trade has been very large this Fall, and to those who want something better than ordinary we would recommend that they leave their measure and have their Shoes made to order. They cost no more than Good Ready-Made Shoes.

Respectfully Yours. Our Seal Plush Goods of last season were pronounced by many to be the best goods ever offered in this city, rivaling the real seal fur iself in beauty. The best evidence that they were all right is the fact that we carried over out one garment.
