

GIVEN A SILVER BERRY SET

THE REVENUE OFFICIALS SHOW THEIR ESTEEM FOR COLLECTOR HENSEL.

His Bondsmen and Other Friends Take Him by Surprise Thursday Evening.

Thursday evening the term of George W. Hensel, who for almost a year past was collector of internal revenue for the Ninth district, having succeeded the late John T. MacGonigle, came to a very pleasant termination. After the work of transferring the office to the new collector, Sam Matt Fridy, had been finished, Mr. Hensel sent to the residence of his son, U. Hensel, esq., on North Lime street, to remain over night, little dreaming that there was a surprise in store for him.

After the folks had assembled in the house, J. H. B. Wagner arose and in a pleasant little speech made Mr. Hensel a beautiful present, which was a silver berry set, consisting of a solid silver berry set, including a bowl in repoussé work, sugar, berry and iced cream spoons, in hand some velvet and satin cases.

After the present in an entertainment was served in the dining room and several hours were delightfully spent by the company. During the month of October, the last of Collector Hensel's term, the receipts were larger than ever before appearing in any of the district, being $173,217.83.

THERE WAS NO MEETING.

No Quorum Present in Common Council and the session adjourned.

A meeting of both branches of the city councils was called for last evening to take some action in regard to the proposition to widen the pavements on Duke street, between Orange and Chestnut streets, to thirteen feet, and to fix the curb lines.

FATHER GANES' NEW MARRIAGE.

Lancaster Correspondent Standard. The "Second Mass in D. M." composed by Rev. Henry G. Gans, of Milton, Pa., who is a native born Lancasterian, has just been issued from the press by a silver company, of Boston, Mass.

The music of the mass is simplified to such an extent that a well drilled choir can read it without sight, thus being no tedious repetition of the same.

AN AGED LADY'S BIRTHDAY.

Mrs. Susan Dellet, residing at No. 401 North Prince street, reached the 83d year of her age on Thursday. She was called upon by many friends who congratulated her and she received a number of handsome presents.

Mrs. Dellet, although a very old woman, is enjoying the best of health and in excellent spirits. She is the widow of Adam Dellet, who has been dead for many years.

HAD HIS FINGER CRUSHED.

Martin Spangler, of Eden, was on his way home with a load of lumber yesterday, when he was struck by a falling log which crushed his right hand where the stone should have gone, and the result is a smashed finger.

A WATCH PRESENTATION.

A Popular Employer Remembered by His Men When About to Leave Town.

Simon C. Long, late supervisor of the Pennsylvania railroad, between Columbia and Coatesville, left Lancaster for good today, and his future home, at least for some time, will be Dover, Delaware. Mr. Long was held in the highest esteem by his employees, and in fact was popular with everybody who knew him.

THE RICE JURY AGREES.

And Finds a Verdict for the Defendants. Court Adjourns.

Thursday afternoon, in the upper court room, the case of David R. Jeffries and Milton Green, suing as co-defendants, against Isaac P. Mayer and J. Brubaker, assignees, was reached. This was an action in mechanics lien to recover $326.00 for brick masons' work on four properties on North Prince street.

THE BOYS TURNED OUT AND ENJOYED THEMSELVES LAST NIGHT.

Last night the small boy was out in force celebrating Halloween. The streets were filled with yellowing faces, and many of the children carried huge bags of corn with which they rattled the windows of houses without any respect to the occupants.

TO REBUIE BOSS QUAY.

Lancaster County Leaders Arranging to Poll a Small Vote.

A Lancaster dispatch to the New York Herald says: Heretofore, however, among the great Republican stronghold of Pennsylvania, there is growing dissatisfaction in the ranks of that party against the offensive position of Senator Quay.

Recently the anti-Quay element secured a great victory by capturing the county of York. The opposition to the present man of the county is so strong that it is a matter of time before the anti-Quay element will be able to elect a new senator.
