

INGIN SUMMER.
 Just about the time when Full Gilt to rattling in the trees,
 Of the man that knows it is "Alicious frost in every breeze."
 When a person tells him
 That the leaves look mighty thin—Then that blows a frost from Ingin Summer's hyper again.
 Kind-of smoky-lookin' blues Spruce across the mountain side,
 An' the heavy mornin' dew Greener the grass up for an' wide.
 Natur'ly 'pears as ef
 She was layin' up a day—Hort'n' th'orin' in her breast
 'Fore she freezes up to stay.
 Nary lick o' work I strike
 'Long about this time o' year!
 I'm a serious slow fly like,
 Right when Ingin Summer's here,
 Who an' boys kin do the work,
 But a man with unchel will,
 Like I got, kin 'reck to shirk.
 Ef he has a turn for it,
 Time when grapes set in to ripe,
 All last of any man
 Is a common co'scab pipe With inlacker to my than,
 Then jest loose me what the etir Summers 'roast me, wahm an' free—Promised land I find me thar:
 Wings all fairly sprout on me!
 I'm a loungin' round on thrones, Bossin' words to my here to shire,
 When I stretch my marner bones Jest outside the cabin door!
 An' the sunshine seeps down
 On my old head, bald an' gray,
 'Pears right like the gilded crown
 I expect to w'ar some day.
 —Eva Wilder McLellan, in Harper's Magazine.

HIS FINGER NAILS CAME OFF.
 "For a year I was afflicted with a horrible case of blood poisoning, and upward of $1,000 worth of money was expended in vain to cure me. My finger nails came off, and my hair dropped out, leaving my head as clean and smooth as if it had been shaved. I consulted the best local physicians, and spent several dollars for medicines of different kinds, but without receiving the slightest benefit. I was advised finally to visit Dr. Williams. This I did, but becoming disgusted with the treatment I was receiving there, commenced taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I had not taken them long when I was truly wonderful. I commenced to recover after while the first bottle, and the time I had taken twelve bottles I was entirely cured—cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills.
 When the world-renowned Dr. Williams has cured me, I do not believe that any other medicine could have done so."
 W. M. Loomis,
 Danversport, Ia.

FOUR YEARS ON DRUGS.
 For fifteen years I was afflicted with rheumatism, four years of which I was compelled to lie on my back. I was in the hospital for the sufferings I endured during that time. During these fifteen years of existence (it was not living) I tried every known remedy without receiving any benefit. I finally began on Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and in ten days I felt a relief, and to-day I am enjoying the best of health, and am a well man. I can testify believe that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is the best medicine on earth."
