THE GUNNING SEASON.

Plenty of Rabbits Being Killed and Large Numbers of Gunners Out.

The number of gunners that were out on Saturday was very large, and the banging of guns was heard all over the country. Many ganners from this city, some of whom Many ganners from this city, some of whom had been out since Friday, returned on Saturday evening. Among this number were Feter Woods and John Book, two colored men of the Seventh ward, who had been down about Rawlinsville. They brought thirty-three rabbits with them. A large crowd of gunners left this city on the train for Quarryville Sunday evening, and as that is the best section of the county for rabbits they will no doubt bring plenty of them home. At the saloons of this city on Saturday evening the principal lunch was rabbit, and people pronounced them very nice.

nice. Aibert Tucker, whose home is in Harford county, Md., came over to New Texas, in Little Britain township, and went out gunning for rabbits. His gun exploded, blowing off the index finger of one of his hands and badly lacerated his thumb and another finger. Dr. Sides, of Chestnut Level, attended him. Saturday last Martin Ringer of Oues.
