SUCCESSFUL NIMRODS

MEN AND BOYS IN THE LOWER END WHO SLAUGHTER COTTONTAILS.

Ben Myers Pulls the Trigger With His Teeth and Bags Considerable Game. 88 Rabbits Shot In One Meadow.

QUARRYVILLE, Nov. 6.—The hunting season is at its height. The whole country is up in arms and Bre'r Rabbit's "lot is not a happy one." From early morn until night, and even after night, since the moon is working a double set of hands, the crack of the gun is to be heard in the lower end. John Hummel, with one eye, one hand and a lame leg, covers the greater part of Drumore, Eden and Providence townships, and Ben Myers, without any hands, who fires his gun with his teeth by a string attached to the trigger, daily plods over Drumore East, and shoots from four to five a day. He is a freak, and his faculty for "getting there" excites the wonder of his neighbors.

Harry Brooks, the mail-carrier of Colerain, is the champion of champions. On the first day he bagged 24 and every day since from 10 to 15. Up on Stony Hill Joe Groff wears the belt, 19 fell before him on Friday last. His gun accompanies him to the corn field as regularly as his husking peg, and lo the rabbit that crosses his path!

Down in the valley young Jim Montgomery is a terror to the rabbit population. He shot 18 the first day and thinks nothing of shooting from 8 to a dozen.

Big John Raub, the president of the Clover club, has temporarily ceased to chase Bre'r Fox. His record the first day was 14. At 125 yards, and on the full gait, a rabbit's show before his unerring marksmanship is very much like that of the late Billie Mahone's in Virginia. His brother Hen is a dead-shot, and only returns from his daily tramps when the sixth rabbit dangles on his belt.

The younger brother, Dick Vaux, finds great amusement in gunning and for his years has killed more game than any boy in the neighborhood. Will Keen is a crack shot in Colerain and Sam. Collins is on intimate terms with every rabbit in the township.

Peter McMichael, whose famous dogs, "Sailor" and "Leader," distinguished themselves by catching a snapping turtle, finds time to shoulder his gun; he speaks of shooting five or six as evening exercise. The threatened trouble over the disposition of the turtle, by the way, was happily settled by the adoption of Squire Hensel's suggestion, that both contestants partake of the soup; and a royal feast was the result. Evan Byers shot 17 rabbits on Saturday last. Will Harrar, of Kirkwood, shot eight in fifty minutes. Elmer Mendenhall initiated a new gun by shooting a dozen. Robt. Montgomery, jr., shot 21. In Sheriff Burkholder's one meadow fifty-two were shot in one day.

The number shot this year beats any former seasons. Every boy big enough to carry a gun has one. And the rabbit is only safe when the fantastically attired city gunner is in the neighborhood. Their presence, however, has had the effect of raising the price—and the less pretentious but more skillful countryman can easily dispose of his surplus stock.

Partridges are not so plentiful. Pheasants are very scarce. The near-sighted sportsman who occasionally mistakes the rooster for a rabbit has been heard from. Upon the whole it is a great season, and in the lower end there's lots of fun.

House of Refuge Cases.

John Rule, a small boy whose father is dead, was taken before the judges this morning, complaint having been made against him for being incorrigible. This is the boy who recently stole a number of rings from in front of P. C. Snyder & Bro.'s store. It was also shown that the boy had been guilty of other offenses, and was greatly inclined to be tough. The court ordered the young man to be sent to the House of Refuge.

John Myers was also heard before the judges this morning on a charge of being incorrigible. The testimony showed that John is a weak-minded young man, that he frequently remained away from home for days, causing his mother great uneasiness. John agreed to go to work on a farm and it was decided to give him a trial. His mother is to report in a month whether he has kept his promise.

Computing the Vote.

Court met at noon to-day and the returns of the vote cast on Tuesday, in Lancaster county, was received. John G. Warfel was appointed reading clerk, and George W. Raby and John E. Carpenter tally clerks. After these officers were sworn to faithfully perform their duties, court adjourned until 3 o'clock, when the returns were read and recorded.

A Boy Run Over.

A little boy named Baker, whose home is at 411 Concord street, was following a band down North Queen street last evening, when a drunken countryman, who was infatuated with the music also, drove over him. The little fellow, who is about seven years of age, had his head very badly cut.

Sued for $5,000 Damages.

Jesse Ruth, of Clay township, through A. Frank Eshleman, to-day entered a suit in the court of common pleas against Jesse Myers, of the same township, for $5,000 damages, for the seduction of his daughter.

A MAN AND A WOMAN DIE.

William Shultz, of Columbia, and Mrs. Elizabeth Snyder, of Mountville.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Elizabeth Snyder, wife of Adam Snyder, of Mountville, died last evening at 8:45 o'clock at the home of W. H. Hougendobler, on Locust street. Mrs. Snyder was in her 81st year, and the death resulted from a fall received seven weeks ago. She was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hougendobler, and fractured her hip by a fall in the yard. Mrs. Snyder was born in Lancaster county and lived in Mountville since 16 years of age. Her husband and daughter, Mrs. Hougendobler, survive. The funeral will be held on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Services in the Mountville U. B. church.

William Shultz, a well known resident of town, died this morning at 4 o'clock at his home on South Fourth street. His death was caused by induration of the liver, after five months' illness. He has been living in town many years, and was an old P. R. R. conductor. The funeral will be held on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from his late home.

A two-year-old child of George W. Shank took a dose of laudanum yesterday afternoon. The bottle was in a cupboard and the child got at the bottle, taking a teaspoonful. Dr. Livingston prescribed the proper remedies and the child is now out of danger.

David G. Hinkle, brakeman on crew No. 16, of the P. R. R., fell from the top of a car at Downingtown last night, breaking his arm. He was brought to town and Dr. Craig attended him.

John A. Slade and Dr. Hinkle are visiting the public schools to-day, when the doctor will view the appointments with a view of ascertaining the effects on the pupils. It is said that the black boards injure the children's sight, and the doctor will make an investigation.

Michael Dorn was before Squire Evans last evening, charged with jumping his board bill on complaint of Joseph Halter. He gave bail for a court trial.

Madame and Augustin Neuville will appear in the opera house on Saturday night in "The Boy Tramp."

A surprise party was held last night at the house of August Weis for his daughter Emma. A big crowd was present and a good time had.

H. K. Lutz, extra operator on the R. & C. road, has resigned his position to accept a position on the Catawissa branch.

A new system of signals went into effect to-day on the R. & C. road at Sinking Spring.

The game of "shinny" has been prohibited on the institute grounds. Mr. H. F. Yergey, principal of the grammar schools, has provided the boys with a foot ball to make up for the loss of the game.

A. W. Guy, of the P. & R. road, was in town last night and went down the Susquehanna and Tide Water canal this morning.

The annual meeting of the Evangelical Alliance was held last evening in the Methodist church. The following officers were elected: President, Rev. Geo. Wells Ely; vice president, Rev. Geo. Gaul; secretary, Rev. A. M. Mehrkam; treasurer, F. A. Bennett. An able address was made by Dr. Russell, who showed very forcibly that the work to be done is just such work as is reasonably expected that the church will do. It was decided to resume the monthly visits.

A Big Steer.

Jacob Otthofer, butcher, residing at 517 Manor street, killed a steer this morning that weighed 1,900 pounds dressed, and measured 9 feet 11 inches in circumference between the shoulders. It was the last of four purchased from Mr. Kauffman, near Millersville, who purchased them last September and fed them over since at a cost of $280.

Death of B. F. Huber.

B. F. Huber, an old confectioner and well known resident of this city, and brother of Joseph H. Huber, died on Wednesday at his residence on North Prince street, of dropsy of the heart, from which he had suffered for a long time. His funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon.

JOEL L. HAINES, will sell to-night at 7 o'clock at the Leopard hotel, for J. Rife, assignee, the dwelling No. 338 West Orange street, and two building lots on East Chestnut street.

A Rare Concert.

The appearance of the Boston Symphony Orchestral Club is promised for Monday, the 18th, and will prove one of the best musical events of the season. The playing of the Beethoven String Quartette at the Mendelssohn Club concert, last winter, is remembered with great pleasure, and this is said to surpass it, as the artists number seven and have the assistance of a new prima donna, who is received with great applause.

WE have in stock a nice line of type-writing papers, plain and marginal ruled. Marcus Ward's Irish linen paper and envelopes, Crane's bond paper and envelopes, which we will print to order at short notice at reasonable prices. DRAPERY WORK.

The effect of a Doorway, Archway or Window is entirely changed by having the Curtains or Drapery Stuffs arranged in the new ways by our skillful and experienced Drapers.

The style in which we are doing this work is novel and attractive, differing from the ordinary way of hanging the material in straight folds.

Every Portiere is hung differently, the same design is not repeated.

Overdrapery, Fringes, Cords and other trimmings are used in this style of work, and we have made careful selections of colorings to match materials used.

The Curtains and Heavy Hangings this season are especially attractive and our stock is made up of staple goods and many novelties. Our line of Swiss Lace Curtains merits your attention.

The New Ombre Fringed Draperies are effective.

Heavy Curtains and Portieres at low prices.

Fezzan Hangings are a high class novelty.

All-Silk Turcoman Portieres and Curtains.

A SEASONABLE SUGGESTION.

The covering of steam pipes with a reliable material insures dry steam and saves fuel and attention; the cost of the covering being sometimes made up in a single year in saving of fuel alone. The best material so far offered to the public is the
