evening, when "The Boy Tramp" was presented. The audience was delighted with the performance. Thas. Friend and Harry Duck were be-fore Squire Solly for assault and battery on Jacob Bones. This case was dismissed. John Beck was before Squire Solly for surety of the peace and his case was settled. Mary Lloyd, colored, was committed to jall for trial this morning by Squire Evans for keeping a bawdy honse. Officer Wittick arrested a colored man last night, answering the description of a professional thief from Harrisburg. He is in the lockup to await developments. The remains of Daniel Hubor were taken to Landisville this morning for interment. The funeral of Henry Calp was held this afternoon. Gen. Welsh Post, No. 118, G. A. R., attended the funeral of their late comrade.

Troubles of a Colored Couple. Saturday evening a colored Couple. Saturday evening a colored woman, who was barcheaded, can into the store of Hirsh & Brother, at the corner of Centre Square and North Queen street, yelling murder at the top of her voice. She attracted a large crowd to the store when the affair was in-vestigated. She was found to be the wife of Tide Morgan, a colorid hod-carrier The Tribute of Respect. At a meeting of the Vestry of St. James Church, Lancaster, Pa., held November 9, 1889, the following minute was passed : The Vestry of St, James' Church, Lancaster, desiring to make some permanent memorial of our grateful sense of the long and faithful service of Newton Lightner, esq., late rector's churchwarden of the parish, who died Novem-ber 8, 1880, order the following minute to be placed on record : Mr. Lightner was a member of this Vestry from April 17, 1843, until his death ; he was registrar from October 16, 1845, until April 9, 1858 treasurer from April 5, 1872, until April 6, 1877, and warden from April 6, 1877, until death called him away. In all his relations with the parish he was prompt, painstaking, careful, attentive and faithful. Regular in attendance on the church services, generous in his contributions and gifts, a valuable fellow worker where the interests of the parish and church were con-cerned. We shall miss him greatly from among us, and his loss will be long and deeply felt. Attest : WM. AUG. ATLER, Attest : Itd

TEACHERS OF LANCASTER

I wish to say to you that these books are fo the scholars of the Country Schools, as it is my only chance in the whole year to reach them, and give them a token of remembrance. I thought it would be but fair to draw the line thought it would be but fair to draw the line here, as the majority of scholars in the country schools do not have the advantage of Drawing It may be that after testing this, my first experiment in this line, I may conclude to offer similar chances and prizes to the scholars of the city schools.
