Joel Eberly Falls From a Wagon Which Passes Over Him. Joseph Eberly, living near Mt. Airy,

Clay township, was instantly killed on Monday afternoon, near Lincoln, Ephrata Clay township, was instantly killed on Monday afternoon, near Lincoln, Ephrata township, He was a farmer and teamster by occupation and early in the day took a load of mill stones to Ephrata. He spent some time in the village and after loading about eight hundred pounds of iron for his son, who is a blacksmith, upon his wagon started for home. Peter Elser, residing in the same neighborhood, was with him. When they reached a point on the turnpike near from Lincoln, the horses frightened and started to run. Eberly was in the wagon and hastened to apply the brake. His hands must have slipped off the brake. His hands must have slipped off the brake and the fell from the wagon and under the wheels, which passed over him. His body was crushed, one leg broken and his face bady cut. He died almost instantly. Depart Of the ecount 60 years of age, and was well known through the upper ferves a large family of children, nearly all of whom are grown. One of his sons is a member of the Republican county committee for Clay.

Appropriated the Preacher's Goods.

William Watson, of the Welsh mountain, was complained against before Al-derman Barr on Monday for larceny as ballee, on complaint of Sylvester Wilson. It appears that Rev. Thomas Wilson, the Weish mountain missionary, boarded with Watson and when he died Watson appropriated all of the dead preacher's effects to his own use, claiming them as pay for board due. Rev. Wilson's relatives may that there was no board due, that it was paid by his congregation regularly. Officer Crawford and Constable Price ar-rested Watson and he gave bail for a hear-ing. These officers took possession of Rev. Wilson's effects and had them shipped to this city. tain, was complained against before Althis city.
