FORTY-TWO YEARS A MAN. And the Rest of Her Life She Lived

From the Dunder News.

On the arrival of a passenger steamer from St. Briene the commander informed the police that a woman, attired as a man, was on board. She had, it appeared, taken a passage for St. Briene, but the captain, having noticed certain peculiarities about the passenger, on reaching that port summoned a medical man and he declared that the pseudo man was really a woman. He further certified that ahe was suffering from slight concussion of the brain, and the French authorities, in view of her mysterious conduct, refused to allow her o land.

On the steamer entering the harbor of St. ledler, the woman took a cab and proseded to a boarding house, where she had reviously lodged for some time under the ame of Louis Hermann. She had every ppearance of manhood, and from her easy exportment it was evident that male attire as no negative to her. She were a furappearance of manhood, and from her easy deportment it was evident that male attire was no novelty to her. She wore a fur wrist-coat, a long overcoat, a hat, a turned down collar. She smokes a long pipe or a cigar with an air of one accustomed to the habit. Left an orphan at the age of 13, ahe then resolved to adopt male attire. She has now reached the age of 55, so that forty-two years she has been traveling the world and has been known as a man.

Her calling had been that of a courier, and in that cpacity she has traveled widely. She has a knowledge of several continental languages, and is otherwise well informed. The name by which she was generally known was Louis Hermann Tobosh, but in some cases she dropped the last name and simply called herself Louis Hermann. During the last year she had a balance of upwards of £150 to her credit in a banking firm, but it is not known whether this has been drawn upon. When arrested by the Jersey police at the boarding house she had only 1s. 6d. in her possession, and she is indebted to the host to the extent of £3 and 10s. A number of the papers found at her ledgings have been taken possession of by the police.

A poor unfortunate in Milwaukee is said to have succeed himself to death. Alas! poor creature, living in the light of the nineteenth century and never heard of Dr. Buil's Cough Syrup. Well, this is more than Egyptian dark-

That blow "naebody any good " are plenty on the storm-vexed Atlantic, to say nothing of the occasionally typhoon-swept Pacific. The hapless voyager, when shaken up by the heavings of the "briny," should take that pleasantes: and most salutary of doses, a wineglassful of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest achie and tonic that ever warmed, regulastomachie and tonic that ever warmed, regulated and quieted the human interior. Railroad joited and steamship shaken travelers will exercise a wfile provision by supplying themselves with a sufficiency of this incomparable medicine for the journey. So will mariners, emigrants to the West, and others about to "seek fresh fields and pastures new." Malaria, the secourge of newly cleared and mining districts, is completely conquered and surely averted by the bitters. Liver, bowel and kidney complaint and incipient rheumatism it annihilates.

What is a cold in the head? Medical authorities say it is due to uneven clothing of the body, rapid cooling when in a perspiration, etc. The important point is, that a cold in the read is an inflammation of the lining mem the nose, which, when unchecked, is certain to produce a catarrhal conditi entarrh is essentially a " cold " which nature is no longer able to " resolve " or throw off. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS. THE GENUINE DR. C.

MCLANE'S -CELEBRATED-LIVER PILLS!

Intemperance a Disease

thus be accounted for. The true cause of cosiduct, which is taken for instruction, is very requently a diseased state of the Liver. No organ in the human system when deranged, produces a more frightful catalogue of diseases. And if, instead of applying remedies to the manifestations of the disease, as is too often the case physicians would prescribe with a view to the original cause, have deaths would result from diseases induced by a deranged state of the Liver. Three-fourths of the diseases enumerated under the head of Consumption have their seat in a diseased Liver. The genuine Dr. C. McLang's Liver Pilla, prepared by Fleming Bros., Pittsburg, Pa., are a sure curs.

Mr. Jonathan Houghman, of West Union, Park Co., Illinois, writes to the proprietors, Fleming Brothers, of Pittsburg, Pa., that he had suffered from a severe and protracted attack of fever and ague, and was completely restored to healthighy the use of the genuine Dr. C. McLang's Liver Pills alone. These Pills unquestionably possess great properties, and can be taken with decided advantage for many diseaser requiring in vigorating remedies, but the Liver Pills stand pre-eminent as the means of restoring a disorganized liver to healthy action; hence the great celebrity they have attained.

Lissist on having the genuine Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Brox., Pittaburg, Pa. All druggists keep them. Price 25 cents a box.
