A Preacher Driven From the Pulpit.

A dispatch from Covington, Indiana, mys that on Tuesday night at Brown's shapel, a country church, about ton miles from Covington, 30 persons, disguised with white caps and masks, faces blackened and armed with clubs, entered the church, 15 in each sisle, marched up to the pulpit and took the preacher, Rev. B. Landsay, of Danville, Illinois, to the woods, about a half mile distant, and gave him his choice between leaving the country early the next morning and a terrible pounding. He decided to leave. All those in the church wore warned not to leave it. The cause of the trouble seems to be the manner of conducting meetings and of treating people for diseases with the faith cure. The hapless voyager, when shaken up by the heavings of the "briny," should take that pleasantest and most salutary of doses, a wineglassful of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest stomachic and tonic that ever warmed, regulated and quieted the human luterior. Hallroad joiled and steamship shaken travelers will exercise a wise provision by supplying themselves with a sufficiency of this incomparable medicine for the journey. So will mariners, emigrants to the West, and others about to "seek fresh fields and pastures new." Malaria, the scourge of newly cleared and mining districts, is completely conquered and surely averted by the bitters. Liver, bowel and kidney complaint and inciplent rheumatism it annihilates.

being liable to develop into consumption. The eyes become inflamed and red, there is throbbing in the temples, ringing noises in the ears, headache, capricious appetite, and sometimes loss of sense, of smell and hearing. Hood's Baraparilla is the remedy for this ever increasing malady. It attacks at once the source of the disease by purifying and enriching the blood, which, as it reaches the delicate passages of the mucous membrane soothes and rebuilds the tissues, giving them tendency to health instead of disease, and ultimately curing the affection.

Mrs. Geo. P. Smoote, a highly cultivated and estimable lady of Prescott, Ark., writes under date of April 29, 1830: "During the summer of 1857 my syes became inflamed, and my stomach and liver almost hopelessly disordered. Nothing I ate agreed with me. I took chronic diarrhose, and for some time my life was despaired of by my family. The leading physicians of the country were consulted, and the medicines administered by them never did any permanent good, and I lingered between life and death, the later being prescrable to the agonies I was enduring. In May, 1855, I became disgusted with physicians and their medicines. I dropped them all, and depended solely on Swift's Specific (S. R. S.), a few bottles of which made me permanently well—well from then until now."

MADE HIS LIFE A BURDEN.

I have had scrotule until it made my life a burden. I was inexpressibly miserable, sick, weak, steepless, and unhappy; desiring that the short time which seemed to have been allotted to me on this earth would hasten to an end. I tried doctors' treatment and medicine, and travel, but none of these did any good, for the scrotule gradually grew worse. One physician, who I traveled far to see, and to whom I paid $150, gave up the case as hopeless. I then gave up all other medicines, and took only swift's Specific (S. S. S.) Four bottles of that medicine cured me, and for the past four years I have had as excellent health and I am as free from disease as anybody living "
