CASPER EXCLEMENT BREATHES HIS LAST AT HIS HOME ON THURSDAY.

De Becomes Sick While Working in the Lower End of the County and Dies on After Arriving in Columbia.

Columbia, Nov. 15.—Casper Englehari, son of George Englehari, died very sud-ently last evening at his home, aged whiteen years. He had been working on harm in the lower end of the county, and eighteen years. He had been working on a farm in the lower end of the county, and was brodght home yesterday sick. He was placed in bed, and as he seemed worse a physician was sent for. A short time later one of the family went up stairs and saw him lying over the pillow. His head was raised, and after giving a few gasps the young man was dead. An examination will be made by a physician to ascertain the cause of his death. The funeral will be held on Sunday morning at nine eleck from Holy Trinity Catholic church. The two committees from Company C and the Rife club met last evening and arranged for a match on Thanksgiving Day on the range of the rifle club. The teams will be limited to twelve members each, and the prize will be a gold medal, to be the property of the team winning it twice. Each man will have six shots and one trial shot, 200 yards off hand. The Creedmoor larget will be used at the first match and a Massachusetts target at the second. The second match will be shot on New Year's Day. The member making the lowest score will receive a leather medal, to be his property until a lower score is made.

George Young, a young son of Postmaster C. F. Young, was playing last evening and had a putty blower in his mouth. The boy had a fall and the sharp edge of the tin badly lacerated the roof of his mouth and throst.

Not Between Those Points. It was stated in some Lancaster papers It was stated in some Lancaster papers several days ago that a steam ferry boat is to be put in operation at Bainbridge, and also to carry passengers between Collins station and York Haven. The executors of the estate of Abraham Collins have given notice that they will not allow a boat to land at either of these points, as they own that frontage for a mile on each side of the Sustanna.

Death of An Old Man. Daniel Scheaffer died at the residence of his son-in-law, A. L. Hunsecker, who lives at Hostetter's mill, near Landis Valley, on Thursday. The deceased was 82 years of age and formerly lived in Lancaster. The fineral will take place on Sunday at 2 o'clock from Mr. Hunsecker's with interment at Landis Valley. Opening of Laucaster Avenue.

The viewers appointed by the court to asess damages caused by the proposed opening of Lancaster avenue, between James and New streets, met this morning and viewed the route of the proposed street. Testimony as to the value of land taken by the street was heard this afternoon.

THE CELEBRATED

"NOVELTY"

ENDORSED BY LANCASTER'S LEADING CITIZENS,

LANCASTER, PA., Sept. 6, 1888.

Mesers. Reilly Bros. & Raub:
GENTLEMEN: I feel a personal satisfaction in recommending your Novelty Furnace. I purchased three of them (No. 40) last winter for three new houses, and they met all tests imposed. Their special merits in my judgment were: 1. The concentration of heat in the fluesavoiding radiation into the cellar. 2. Absence of coal gas and dust. 3. Ease of management.

4. Economy in coal. My houses all have a Northern exposure and on the bitterest, coldest days, the heat is plentiful without in any way forcing the furnaces. Yours truly, LANCASTER, PA., Sept. 6, 1888.
