A Bureau For Grover Cleveland. A Bureau for Grover Cleveland. The governor has just pardoned Charles Weiver, who has served a few days over fourteen years of a sixteen-year term in the Northumberland county jail. The wardens gave him a $6 suit of clothes and 50 cents in cash and set him adrift in the world. During his term he made two bureaus out of old eigar boxes, which, in their way, are marvels. One of them he chanced off for his own benefit and realized $21, with which he will com-mence business at Williamsport. The other piece of farniture he sent to Grover Cleveland as a token of his admiration. Prothonotary H. F. Mann wrote the letter at the man's request, presenting the Probonotary H. F. Mann wrote the letter at the man's request, presenting the bureau. He said that circumstances over which he had no control prevented him from voting for him for president in either '84 or '88, but if nothing happened he hoped to have the pleasare of casting his ballot for him in '92. That this present was sent him because he admired his course and the manner in which he had conducted the affairs of the government.

An Unusual Evangelistic Movement. An evangelistic movement of a very un-

An evangelistic movement of a very un-usual character is attracting some atten-tion in London just now. Efforts have repeatedly been made to increase Christian influence in the great East End, and in-numerable societies have been formed with that object in view. The present movement, however, seeks its field of labor at the other and fashionable end of London. In other words a society of good people has been formed, the avowed purpose of which is to seek the conversion of the people of the West End. The plan adopted in the further-snce of this purpose by the members or agents of the society is to make personal visits upon the people in the West End and seek by direct intercourse to interest them in religion. It is asserted that all the houses in fushionable London, not exclud-ing Marlborough house, the residence of ing Marlborough house, the residence of the Prince of Wales, will be visited in this

Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh.

CURE BEGINS FROM FIRST APPLICA-TION, AND IS RAPID, RADICAL, AND PERMANENT.

TION, AND IS RAPID, RADICAL, AND FERMANENT. It is the mucous membrane, that wonderful semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate tissues of the air and food passages, that Catarfn makes its stronghold. Once estab-lished, it ests into the very vitals, and renders the bout a long-drawn breath of misery and dis-case, dulling the sense of hearing, trammelling the power of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the breath, and killing the re-fined pleasures of taste. Insidiously, by creep-ing on from a simple cold in the head, it as-sould the membranoos lining and envelops the bones, cating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation, sloughing, and other dangerous symptoms. Nothing short of total cradication will secure health to the patient, and all alleviatives are simply procrasilinated sufferings. SANFORD's RADICAL CURE, by Inholation and by Internal administration, and the discase thoroughly driven out. Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh Consist of one bottle of the HADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRIAL SOLVENT, and In-proven INHALER, all in one package; price, 1.
