Injured—Out Door Club's Night.

Columbia, Nov. 20.—A hearing in the case of Presion 5. Fry against the Columbia Daily News for criminal libol was held before Squire Evans last evening. The plaintiff denied all parts of the alleged libelous article and that he had any improper intimacy with the woman in question. He produced the article in the News as referring to him. S. M. Paschall, of the News, did not deny publishing the extract in question. H. M. North, esq., appeared as counsed for the News, Mr. Paschall gave ball for $100 for court trial.

A car in train of engine No. 1,184 jumped the track at the Market street switches, at Harrisburg yesterday, causing several cars to be wrecked. The cars struck the C. D. local train west, which was passing, and two cars of this train were also wrecked. Stephen Chard and Frederick Flora, of the C. D. train, were slightly injured in the wreck. Chard had a bruise about the eye, and Flora was cut about the head.

Brakeman Lewis Miller had.

Brakeman Lewis Miller had caught in some wheels on a car of C. D. local this morning, bresking and lacerating the finger. Dr. Craig attended to the injuries. The Out of Door club held a meeting last evening at the home of the Misses Wilson, where they were entertained by Dr. Mifflin's committee. A pronouncing bee was first held and two prizes were won by Miss R. Slaymaker, of Lancaster, and L. K. Fondersmith. After refreshments an old time taffy pulling was held, when prizes were given for the best designs made with the taffy. The prizes were won by Miss Emily Wilson and Charles Haldeman.

The Layton band held "Aunt Dinah's

A committee was appointed to make arrangements. A special meeting will be held on Saturday night to decide finally whether the trip will be made.

The "Festival of the Seasons" will be held in the armory on Thursday night to continue until Saturday night. The different seasons will be represented and the affair promises to be a successful event.

A large number from Marietta attended St. Peter's Cathelic church last evening at the closing of the forty hours' devetion. the closing of the forty hours' devotion.

Frank Lehman was given ten days in jail by Squire Hershey, Jim McCarty got same time from Squire Solly and two tramps were sentenced for a like period by Squire Evans. Drunkenness and disorderly conduct was the charge against the men.

Mrs. Sven Svenson, of Altoona, is the guest of Miss Minnie Gillman.
Harry Shaub reached his 26th birthday yesterday and was given a surprise party last night. His crew and a few friends were present and all had a good time. A gum coat and a briar pipe were presented to him.

The lumbermen are very anxious about the rise in the river and anticipate a high river. The river is now six feet above low water mark and is still on the rise. Much damage will be done in the event of a considerable rie at this point.

The Seymour-Stratton company presented "Ticket of Leave Man" in the opera house last night in a fine manner. To-night "Col. Sellers" will be the play. Miss Knight, of Milwaukee, is visiting Miss North.

The High Water.

The water in the small streams of the county began to fall last evening, but the Conestoga only began to rise in the evening, and it went away up. The height to which it reached was greater than it has which it reached was greater than it has been since the new city water works were made, but the damage reported is only slight. Reports from different points along the Susquehanna show that the river is very high and is still rising.

In addition to the damage that was done to the cellars in Fasgleysville, which were filled with water, there was some more through the city. On Manor street, between Dorwart and West King streets, a large number of cellars were filled with water, and to-day the people are busily engaged pumping them out.

The creeks in the lower end of the county are very high and great damage has been done. The from bridge over the Conowingo creek, in Fulton tywnship, at Woods' mill, was carried away yesterday afternoon. It was a 90 foot span bridge built in 1886.

A Town of Amusements. Lancaster seems to be a town of numerous nd varied amusements. During the day the crowd that has no money will be entertained all this week at the court house listening to trivial cases which disgust most people who have business there. Last night "Jed Prouty" was given at the opera house, Prof. Gleason was at the rink. George W. Bain lectured at the court house, there was a tea party at Green Latin. there was a tea party at Grace Lutheran church, a spelling breat St. John's Lutheran church and a Grand Army fair in Heinitsh s building. Of these Gleason caught the largest crowd. It can hardly be expected that all will be well patronized.

The Work of Bad Boys.

A party of boys in the southern part of the city, are in the habit of gathering at the laundry of a Chinaman on South Queen street, near Conestogn, and teasing the street, near Conestoga, and teasing the proprietor. Last evening the celestial chased a number of them away, but they returned and one threw a large stone through a large front pane of glass, smashing it to pieces. There are a number of gangs of bad boys in this city who annoy the different Chinamen whenever they get an opportunity, and as soon as the laundrymen do anything they are denounced. The Chinamen of this city are a quiet, peaceable and respectable lot of men, and will behave if they have anything like half a chance.

Charged With Assault and Battery. Conrad Holbein, a carter, went to the office of Alderman Hersbey, this forenoon and made complaint against James Kautz, a driver of Company No. 1, of the city fire department, charging him with assault and battery. The prosecutor had a very bloody face, but it may require allearing to ascertain who was the fault of the skirmish.

Re-hearings Granted.

The board of pardons at their session on Tuesday granted re-hearings in the applications for pardon made by Jacob M. Rutt, convicted of parjury, and Abe Buzzard, convicted of burglary. The re-hearings will probably be argued at the December term of the pardon board. Rutt was represented before the board by B. Frank Eshleman and Buzzard by A. B. Hassier.

They Had a Fight. They Had a Fight.

At an early this morning a party of rounders, who had probably been up all night, stopped in Centre Square. David Ghio and George Lutz, two of the party, had words, and it was agreed by them to have a square stand-up fight. It is said that two men, who were willing to back them, were found (and they must have been a long search) to back them for $10 aside. They went at it. Ghio was whipped, getting a very ngly amash on the nose.

The Yankee singin' skewl, which was to have been given next week under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., is of necessity postponed. Word has been received that Miss Basset's health would not permit her appearance until later.

Albert K. Zoll, machinist, living on Pine street, says he was not the Albert Zeil acquitted of larceny.

Beltimore Joe has not reached his home, for which he started from Lancaster more than a week ago. He was released from a five days term in the York jail on Monday and at once got drunk. The mayor gave him 30 days more yesterday, but the promise was made to him that two-thirds of the sentence would be taken off if he would agree to leave town when liberated. Joe agreed and went to jail.

Driving Turkeys Through the Streets. This morning a sight was witnessed by the people living in the northern part of the city, that was something very novel. It was to see turkeys driven through the streets like cattle. William B. Lorenz, produce dealer, residing at North Queen and Frederick streets, purchased a carload of turkeys, that came here from Harrison county, Virginia. There were 300 in the drove and they were taken from the cars at Stewart's stock yards and driven in a flock to Mr. Lorenz's place of business. a flock to Mr. Lorenz's place of business. All along the streets, through which the turkeys passed, there was great excitement over the Thanksgiving birds, but it is very common to drive them in that manner in some sections.

Cash and Talk For the Poor. A dispatch from London says Sir Edward Guinness has given $1,000,000 for the erec-tion of dwellings for the laboring poor of London. He also gives $250,000 to be similarly used for the benefit of the poor of Dublin.

Mr. John Morley, speaking at the Eighty club on Tuesday, held that the social questions could not efface the Irish question, but it was true, however, that in view of but it was true, however, that in view of existing social injustices there was urgent necessity for legislation for the benefit of the masses. He favored free education, free meals for poor school children, reform of the pauper system, and the regulation of the wages question. The well-off classes, he said, should sympathize with the poorer classes in their efforts to ameliorate their condition.

The Wounded Burglar Committed. Joseph Hoffman, the burglar shot by Wm. Kuhn as he was about robbing his his store at Mt. Joy a few weeks ago, was heard by Alderman Halbach this afternoon and committed for trial at the present term of court. He has improved sufficiently to be kept in jail instead of the hospital.

He Went Out of Business. Abram Stiffel, hotel-keeper at Neffsville, was returned to court by the constable of Manheim township for seiling liquor on Sunday and to a person of known intem-perate babits. When Mr. Stiffel learned that he had been returned to court he at once closed the hotel and moved his effects to this city.

Change of Bank Officers. At a meeting of the directors of the Christiana National bank Isaac W. Slokom Slokom was elected president to succeed his father, Samuel Slokom. Samuel Slokom, son of the new president, has been elected cashier, to take his father's place.

Good News for the Deef. Kansas Cirr, Mo., Nov. 13, 1889.—At the convention of physicians, held in this city, the committee appointed from members of the different societies to investigate and report upon the most practicable and reliable artificial means for relieving deafness, have reported unanimously upon the invisible device of H. A. Wales, of Bridgeport, Conn., known as the Sound Disc., which concentrates the waves of sound.
