A REMARKABLE CASE IN NEW YORK

"I don't remember the exact date, but I believe it was not later in the evening than 9:30 of October 28: I was walking down Broadway with my wife at the time. The other man was walking up the thoroughfare. It was at the north corner of Thirty-seventh street and Broadway, about six feet north of the gaslight. The man passed between the major and his wife and the building at the corner. As the stranger passed close to Mrs. Stewart he took hold of her arm and said, 'How d'ye.'

"Whereupon," continued Mr. Stewart, "I released my wife's arm and struck the man over the head with my umbrella sevliceman, but none appeared, and I wen back to my wife where I had left her. then crossed the street and went to a dru

the attacks of ruffians."

"By this time," the major stated, "Mrs. Stewart was very much excited and agitated. The events of the evening, set apart for pleasure, had a very depressing effect upon her nerves. She did not wish to stay out longer, and insisted on going home at once, and I finally consented."

In reply to questions about the case, Mr. Stewart said that he was not aware that he had labed the man in the face or eye with had jabbed the man in the face or eye with his umbrella. He did notice, however, that there was some blood on the man's cheek after the affair. He had no idea the man as injured seriously. His only object had was injured seriously. His only object had been to resent a gross insult to his wife. The whole affair was incomprehensible. He could not understand how a man who appeared to be a gentleman could be guilty of such conduct. He had broken to pieces a $12 silk umbrella, and supposed that constituted the principal damage.

Major Stewart's face wore a troubled expression when he told the above story and saw how all the facts appeared to point out that he had killed Flynn. He said that he would go at case over to the restoffice to would go at once over to the postoffice to see George DeBois, the letter-carrier who saw the affair. Major Stewart is a six-

Flynn grabbed him by the collar and de-manded 25 cents, and that in defending himself he put the umbrella in Flynn's eye. Coroner Hanly paroled May.

Married By the Mayor.

Bright and early this morning Mayor Edgerley was called upon to officiate in marrying a couple, and this was the first wedding that his honor has had since he became mayor of the city. The happy couple were James M. Long, of Kirk's Mills, and Miss Alice C. Lamborn, of Lib-erty Square. They had made arrange-ments some time ago to have the mayor perform the ceremony, and this morning they came to town and stopped at the Leopard hotel. They sent for the mayor, who went to the hotel and found the coupl who went to the note! and found the couple in the parlor, with a number of relatives and friends. The knot was quickly tied, and the mayor said he made it good and tight, too. One of the parties is a Quaker and the others. Preserved the

The Grand Army Fair.

The bad weather did not keep a large number of people from attending the Grand Army Fair in the Heinitsh building last evening, and a good business was done at corps was in attendance, and Harry Luck-enbach entertained the audience with vocal and instrumental music. During the even ing the Women's Relief corps presented a splendid large cake to Post 405, Comrade W. F. Hambright making the presentation speech, which was replied to by Com-mander Smith. This evening there will be some special attractions, and to-morrow

The Collector's Appointments.

Collector Fridy paid his long talked of visit to York yesterday. He arrived there at noon and after dinner held a consultation with a number of leading Re publicans in regard to the appointments for that county. The claims of different men who are anxious to serve their country by holding offices were presented. It came out during the interview that some of the appointments will be made on next Monday or Tuesday, and the remainder of the offices will be filled later on. The lucky ones will be apprised of their ap-pointments when they receive their bonds

A Mariettan Marries.

Ruth R. Weaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Weaver, of Clearfield, Pa., was married in Clearfield, at noon on Wed-evening Post 84 will attend in a body.

and the other a Presbyterian.

CRIMINAL COURT.

A NUMBER OF CASES BEFORE JURIES WITH-IN THE LAST 24 HOURS.

George Harpel Guilty of Larceny and Is ntenced to 11 Months' Imprisonment-Suits Against Colored People.

Wednesday Afternoon—Court met at 250 o'clock and counsel argued the Miller assault and Jattery case.

The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty and divided the costs equally between Joseph G. Miller, the defendant, and S. G. Cooper, the prosecutor.

Horace P. Adams, of Berks county, admitted being the father of the illegitimate child of Susan E. Killian, and the usual sentence was imposed.

child of Susan E. Killian, and the usual sentence was imposed.

John Trainer, a Columbia puddler, was tried for committing an assault with an intent to rape Mrs. Eliza Miller, aged 53 years, a resident of Perry street, Columbia. The testimony of the prosecutrix was that on the night of September 30 he came to her house and after he had been there for an hour or two she had occasion to go to the yard. Trainer followed her and made the assault for which she prosecuted him.

him.

She admitted that she made no outcry, but claimed that he had her by the throat but claimed that he had her by the throat and was unable to do so.

The defense was a denial by Trainer as to having assaulted the prosecutrix. He also showed that Mrs. Miller's reputation for chastily was not good. The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty and divided the costs equally between the proseutrix and defendant.

Viola Lindsey was called for trial on a charge of adultery. Hercounsel demurred to the indictment, on the ground that the complaint was made by the husband, which is contrary to law. The district at torney stated that he would have a new complaint made. He did so, and the grand jury returned a new bill of indictment against her.

John Francis, colored, was charged with being on too intimate terms with Viola

Lindsey, wife of Grant Lindsey. The tes-timony pointed strongly to the defendant's guilt and the jury promptly convicted him. Sentence was deferred, as he will be used as a witness in another case. Kate Kelly, alias Kate Walton, colored, was tried for stealing a pocketbook con-taining several dollars, the property of Solomon Devan, of Columbia, on September 7. The testimony was that Devan was under the influence of liquor and in company with Kate. In taking his handker-chief from his pocket he pulled out his pocketbook. Kate was seen to pick it up and when Devan demanded it she refused to give it me and this suit was brought to give it up and this suit was brought.

The defendant denied having Devan's pocketbook at all on the de-Devan's pocketbook at all on the day of the larceny. Her theory was that if he lost his money, it was when he was drunk. The jury thought the same way, for they ren-dered a verdict of not guilty.

Mary Lloyd, a colored belle of Colum-bia, was tried for keeping a bawdy house. The witnesses called for the prosecution stated that the house was the resort of men and women, whose reputation for chastity was not good.

was not good.

Mary denied the allegations, but had no witnesses to corroborate her testimony. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty and e court sentenced her to undergo an im prisonment of fifteen months. GRAND JURY RETURNS. True Bills—Andrew Kane, selling liquor without license and on Sunday; Samuel Baumgardner, assault and battery; Cyrus E. Sandoe, disturbing a religious meeting; John Anderson, rescuing a prisoner; Michael Dorn, defrauding a landlord; Wm. O. Reed, fornication; Isaac N. Erb. jr., fornication and bastardy; Viola Lindsey, adultors.

adultery.

Ignored Bills—Frank Shill, aggravated assault and battery; Catherine Lively, assault and battery, with Frank Shill for violating with John Hofford for costs.

CURRENT BUSINESS. Henry Gast, city, was granted a renewal of his soldier's license.

AN EVENING SESSION. Wednesday Evening .- Court met at 7:30 o'clock and George Harple, city, was tried on a charge of larceny. The testimony of the commonwealth showed that on the fifth of July a desk in the office of Edward of July a desk in the office of Edward Hartman, liveryman, was broken open and between $4 and $5 were taken. Harple was seen in the office about the time the theft was committed, but ran away from town before he could be arrested. Some weeks afterwards Harple returned to the city, paid Hartman the amount taken from his desk and admitted that he had comnitted the theft. The defense was a denial on the part of Harple that he had committed the charged and that he had confessed it. explained his payment of the amount stok n explained his payment of the amount stor in to Hartman by saving that as he was sus-pected of the theft he thought it better to pay this small sum than to have a suit about it. There was no testimony offered in corroboration of Harple's. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. He was senenced to the county jail for 11 months.

Jacob Fisher, a tramp, was charged with assault on complaint of H. S. Cassell, of Penn township. The testimony was that Fisher called at Cassell's house on the 27th of August and asked for something to eat. He was given food, but it did not suit him, and he cursed and swore at the meanness of the prosecutor. Fisher was ordered off, he refused to go, took a hatchet and knife from his pack and ran at Mr. Cassell in a breatening manner.

The prisoner claimed to be an officer in he German army, but was without means when he called at Mr. Cassell's house for comething to cat. He denied having made the assault charged. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. He was sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs.

Viola Lindsey, wife of Grant Lindsey, was thed and convicted of adultery committed with John Francis. She was sentenced to the country ball for 11 months.

enced to the county jail for 11 months.

John Francis, convicted on Tuesday, of peing intimate with Viola, he being a single man, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs.

Thursday Morning.—William Stamm, 7th ward, city, was tried for committing fornication with Lizzie Krotel, a cousin. The offense is alleged to have been committed in August last. Buddelb Abraham nitted in August last. Rudolph Abrahan appeared as the prosecutor, and the testi-mony showed that there was bad blood etween Abraham and Stamm and that here are several suits pending between hese parties in the courts. The jury renlered a verdict of guilty. Sentence was deferred. Wilson Simpson, a Columbia boy leaded guilty to maliciously breaking the windows of the house of David Armstrong. He will be sent to the reformatory.

Enos Sterneman admitted the paternit of the child of Mary Soulie, and the usua sentence was imposed.

CURRENT BUSINESS.

Issues were framed to try the ownership of property levied upon by the 'sheriff, in which Mary C. Foehl and C. G. Rochet & Co., were made plaintiffs, and Elizabeth D. Koechling defendant. REPRIMANDED.

Tipstaff Erisman arrested Susan Sweeny and John Anderson, colored, of Columbia, for laughing in court. Judge Livingston reprimanded and discharged them upon promising not to repeat the offense, Waited Forty Years for His Bride.

Alexander C. Lanier, the oldest son o Arxander C. Lamer, the oldest son of Mr. Lanier, of the firm of Winslow, Lanier & Co., New York, was married in Indian-apolis to-day to Mrs. Stelia Seening, who was once thought to be the handsomest lady in Indiana. Mrs. Seening has been a vidow only six months, but she and Lanier were sweethearts when young and engaged to be married, but he went to Europe and she married Mr. Scening, a wealthy Hoosier. Mr. Lanier swore he would never marry any other woman, and for forty years he kept his word.

Mt. Joy Real Estate.

The Marsh machine shop at Mt. Joy, offered at public sale on Wednesday, was withdrawn at $2,000.
The interest of James G. Marsh estate in hree acres of land was sold to S, N. Eby DIVORCED A FEW WEEKS AGO. Now Engaged to be Married to Women in Lancaster and Reading.

In Lancaster and Reading.

Constable McFetridge, of Reading, came to Lancaster yesterday and arrested William Christ, of Popular street, on a charge of defrauding a landlord. Until recently Christ worked in a pipe mill in Reading. He boarded with Zacharias Oswald, a hotel-keeper, and left there rather suddenly, leaving behind an unpaid board bill of $28. He was located in this city and the officer came for him. He was taken to Reading on the 3:40 train yesterday afternoon.

taken to Reading on the 3:30 train yester-day afternoon.

The Reading officer's warrant was endorsed by Alderman Barr and from the conversation that followed between the alderman and constable it appears that William is a gay deceiver.

The alderman is well acquainted with Christ and when he saw the name on the warrant he told the constable that he had been engaged to perform a marriage cere-

Christ and when he saw the name on the warrant he told the constable that he had been engaged to perform a marriage ceremony for Christ. The Reading officer knew Christ well and said Christ was engaged to be married to a woman in Reading and the ceremony was to take place in a few days.

Constable Price was assigned to assist the Reading officer in finding Christ and after looking for him several hours and not being able to find him, Alderman Barr suggested the home of his Lancaster intended wife be visited. Her name, Mrs. Emma Butt, was obtained from the marriage license docket and her residence ascertained and there Christ was found. He was taken to the station house and locked up.

It was only a few weeks ago that Christ's wife obtained a divorce from him on the ground of adultery and bastardy committed with a Reading woman, but the woman he is, now engaged to in that city is not the one he wronged.

Christ admits that he owes Oswald a board bill, but he donies that he ran away from Reading with the intention of defrauding him.

THE MAYOR'S COURT.

An Umbrella Mender Whose Beer Must Have Been Drugged.

Have Been Drugged.

The first customer before the mayor this morning was William Ash, who was arrested on Christian street while drunk and exposing his person. William, who is an umbrella mender, denled that he was drunk, as he says that he took but two beers; he believed however that he had been drugged. He said he had just been to Washington, D. C., in search of a position, but was unsuccessful. The drug story did not catch the mayor and William got five days in jail.

John Daley and John Bartley, Irish and German tramps respectively, both of whom claimed to be in search of work, were discharged upon promising to leave town.

cerman tramps respectively, both of whom claimed to be in search of work, were discharged upon promising to leave town.

George Decker, a thin, sick looking man, who said he came from Fairville, was sent to jail for five days. The last customor was James Roach, a big glant over six feet in beight whose face has been family liar here for years. One of his shoes was almost off his foot and his clothing was in bad condition. He told the chestnut that he had been down the Chesapeake bay dredging oysters. He said he had worked two months for nothing, as the cruel oyster pungy captain would not pay him. He was glad to get away alive, and was hastening to Pittsburg. The oyster ishing story seems to be in season with tramps as soon as the peach picking lie is old. The mayor did not take much stock in James Roach, and he got 5 days.

CAJOLED BY A CROOK. Pittsfield Society Discovers That It Mad

Pittsfield Society Discovers That it Made a Lion of a Confidence Man.

The arrest of an old crook and professional confidence man in Worcester, Mass., on Saturday and the information that he is none other than George H. Mix, who spent the summer at Pittsfield, at the Maplewood hotel, has given Pittsfield society circles a severe shock, for Mix had become very prominent there, and made a most comfortable position for himself among the local four hundred.

He arrived there in August and an-among the local four hundred.

He arrived there in Angust and announced himself as a wealthy banker from Minneapolis on an indefinite vacation for his health. He was possessed of much money and posed as a man who could command anything purchasable. He entered largely into the social life of the hotel, being a prominent figure at all the hops and germans, and made himself solid with the ladies at every opportunity.

ladies at every opportunity.

Guests at the hotel considered him mildly nsane. He had many peculiarities, one of his passions being for jewelry. He carried three fine gold watches, had seven or eight expensive chains, and dressed in the height of fashion. His chief mania appeared to be in buying odds and ends of all sorts down town and presenting them to the ladies at the hotel. He avoided the society of the men as much as possible, and usuall withdrew when they approached a part of ladies whom he was entertaining. H was formally introduced to Pittsfield was formally introduced to Pittsheid society at a party given at the home of a prominent citizen six weeks ago, and from that day until his departure, a week ago, he was wined and dined by the best people.

Stolen Coat Recovered.

Constable Sharr came to Lancaster yes erday in search of Adam Wise,a man who formerly lived here, but was in Rothsville some time ago and stole an overcoat from a digarmaker named Souders. Sergeant Hartley and Officer Deen accompanied the constable in his search and they found that Wise had left Lancaster some days ago for Philadelphia, where he intended enlisting in the regular army. The overcoat was recovered at the house of Henry Doman, No. 417 Lafayette street, Wise had sold the coat for $2 to Doman, who did not know it was stolen property. Wise said he would sell it cheap so that he could get enough money to pay his car ticket to Philadelphia to enlist. After the officers recovered the coat it made little difference about Wise. cigarmaker named Souders. Sergean coat it made little difference about Wise.

The Cowardly Wife Beater at Work. Last evening a telephone message wa received at the station house asking that officers be sent to Strawberry and South Queen street, where a man was engaged in the somewhat fashionable pastime of beat-ing his wife. Officers Lehr and Deen went to the place and found that the man who was acting so badly was John Quinn, who had just met and trounced his wife. usual in such cases, as soon as the officer, wanted to take the matter in charge the woman refused to have her worthless husband arrested. They did not see him strike her and having no warrant did not take Ireland Again Straightened Out.

Some days ago Thomas and Patrick Barry and Otto Henry|were sued for assault and battery at Alderman Pinkerton's by Patrick McKenna, engineer of the water station at Mill creek. The Barrys at once sued McKenna for the same offense at Alderman Deen's. Yesterday was the time set for the hearing, but the parties made a compromise and all suits were withdrawn, and the costs paid. McKenna got decidedly the worst of it at the window as the others made him pay nearly if up, as the others made him pay nearly if not all of the costs. Mrs. McKenna, who came with them yesterday, said they were all to blame for suing each other, and if she had had a good chunk of a club she could have done more good than all the

They Want the Best The citizens of the First ward, of Elizabeth, N. J., irrespective of party, held a meeting Tuesday night to discuss the political situation in reference to the forth-coming charter election. It was decided to place in nomination for aldermen nonexcept the very best citizens that could be prevailed upon to accept the position. A committee was appointed to wait upon three men of standing in the community and tender them the citizens' nomination.

Washington's Senators The first ballot in Olympia, Washington, on Tuesday, resulted in the election as United States senators of ex-Governor Watson C. Squire and Delegate John B.

Given Pensions.

Pension for the minors of Peter Walbert. Lancaster, has been reissued. Increase was granted Jacob W. Weller, Coleman-ville, and Jacob F. Albright, Columbia.

UNIVERSAL -SUFFRAGE.

EVERY RACE GIVEN VOICE IN THE GOVERN-MENTAL AFFAIRS OF BRAZIL.

A Decree Issued By the Republic's Leaders-Dr. Valente, the Minister, Informs Blaine That Peace Reigns.

overnment has issued a decree establishing universal suffrage throughout the re-were to the effect that peace and tranquility reigned, and that the new government was receiving the support of the people. Dr. Valente also received this morning authority from the provisional govern-ment to instruct the representatives of Brazil to the international American

End of the Preliminary Examination o

Mrs. Monroe and Mrs. Davis.

The preliminary examination of Mrs. Monroe and Mrs. Eliza Davis, the women who are supposed to be old Mrs. Bender and Kate Bender respectively, was concluded in Oswego, Kansas, late Tuesday night, and the three justices before whom the examination was made decided that the evidence was strong enough to warrant their holding the prisoners without bail to await the action of the grand jury.

Mrs. Monroe and Mrs. Davis were the last witnesses. They testified readily, answering to all questions without embarrassment or apparently without conceatment. The general public there is in sympathy with the prisoners, and much surprise was expressed when the justices announced their decision.

The story of the crimes of the Bender Mrs. Monroe and Mrs. Davis.

nounced their decision.

The story of the crimes of the Bender family in Kansas stands almost unparalleled in criminal history. The family consisted of "old man" Bender, his wife and several sons and daughters, of which Kate had the reputation of being the most fiendish member.

The score of their butchesia.

Parsons, Labette county, in the extreme southeastern part of the state, bordering on southeastern part of the state, bordering on the Indian territory. They kept tavern. At the time that portion of the West was wild and desolate and filled with the most des-the time that portion of the West was wild and desolate and filled with the most desperate class of criminals.

The house was admirably arranged for rebbery and murder. The front room was separated from the back by a thin curtain. When a man entered whom the family proposed to rob he was invited to take a seat with his back to the curtain. Sometimes several travelers arrived together at the wayside inn. Then an equal number of members of the family, eager for blood and booty, concealed themselves behind the curtain, and each selecting a victim, would await the given signal to brain the unsuspecting guest. Sometimes the stranger would change his seat. Then the family aronsed themselves to become exceedingly jocose and entertaining. The old man related stories of hairbreadth escapes, daring robberies and incidents of early life on the plains. Games were proposed and all sorts of merriment was indulged in. Among the games would be one in which the traveler had to get down on his knees on a pillow and be blindfolded. The pillow was placed directly over the trap door, and at the right time Kate would step from the curtain, and, dealing the victim a blow on the back of the skull with a large hammer, followed it up by a blow on the temple with a smaller one, which finished the traveler. Then the trap door was pulled and the victim fell a corpse into the cellar below.

The horrible discovery that they had search of Kansas women, whose husbands had left home. She traced him as far as Benders, and there took a room for the

It was a room in the second story, and looking around, she saw on the bureau a small locket that attracted her attention out the light, awaited in the darkness.

It was a bright moonlight night, and as she looked out upon the orchard she saw a light moving about. She lost no time in effecting her escape from the window onto a porch, and, moving in a stealthy manner towards the orchard, closely watched the movements of the people. When they movements of the people. When they disappeared she went to the spot and dis until morning came, when, repairing to one of the neighbors, she related what she had seen and sheard, and produced the locket as confirmation.

Over a dozen graves were found, ten in one spot, besides several bodies in the cellar. The identity of all the victims was never fully learned, but among others who

Meeting of Bar Iron Manufacturers A meeting of the bar iron manufacturers of Eastern Pennsylvania was held yes-terday in Philadelphia, being attended by representatives of some fifteen firms. A. J. Steinman, of the Penn Iron company, presided and F. L. Froment, of the Blanion rolling mill, was secretary. regular association for at least one year Eastern Bar Iron association, which has been inactive for some time, be communi-cated with and requested to call a meeting of that association at as early a day as po sible to consider the condition of the busi-ness. There was no action taken toward advancing the present price of bar iron, as it was thought best to leave that matter open until the meeting of the Eastern as-sociation, which will be asked to consider

Two Drunks Sent Up.

The two last customers before the mayor were Hughey Dugan and John Haverwere Hughey Dugan and John Haver-stick, who were arrested for being drunk and disorderly, by Constable Sam Shaub. Haverstick got five days in jail and the other ten. Hughey begged hard to be let off easy. He said he had a big job of tin roofing to do for Goorge Miller, who he said lived o.. East King street, "between Eighth and Ninth streets." He gave the number of Miller's house, but no such man lives at that place. The story did not go with the mayor after it was found to

The Regular Meeting. The Chesapeake club held their regular monthly meeting at the Stevens house last evening, at which little was done beyond the perfecting of arrangements for the ban-quet of the club, which will be held in Mænnerchor hall on Monday evening next. The club will entertain a number of guests. including some strangers from the South, and they expect a good time.

payment of costs.

About sixty members of the Knights of Golden Eagle, mostly members of the Blue Cross castle, will go to Millersville to night to confer a degree. They will leave this city about half past seven o'clock by street

A LONG JOURNEY.

TUREE MEN LEAVE AUSTRALIA ON A TOUR OF THE WORLD AND REACH ST. PAUL.

A Wager That They Can Not Complete Their Trip In Eight Months-They Walk From Ocean to Ocean.

St. PAUL, Minn., Nov. 21.-Walter A. Bain, Percy Luke and James Luke, of Geelong, Victoria, Australia, reached St. Paul at 5:30 last evening. They were on a tour of the world from Melbourne, a bet having been made by A. Bryce Bain, pro-prietor of the Colorain Albion, a Victoria sporting paper, and a Ballarat banker, the trip could not be made under certain conditions in eight months.

The trio reached Tacoma on September

A REMARKABLE CASE IN NEW YORK

A Man Dies From the Effect of a Wound
From an Umbrella Ferule in the Eye.

The identity of the man who assaulted young Martin Flynn with an umbrella in New York, the ferule of which was jabbed into his eye, causing death some weeks later, is now thought to be known. The police of the Thirtieth street station have beea working on the case, but it remained for a reporter to make the discovery and get the full and correct account of the affair. "I don't know whether I shall give myself up or not," said he, "but the police can find me, as I have no intention of running away."

He had seen an account of Flynn's death in the papers, but it never occurred to him that Flynn was the unknown man with whom he had had an altercation several weeks before.

Major Joe Stewart, the genial Southern gentleman whese efforts on behalf of the Confederate soldiers' home, at Austin, Texas, last winter, gave him a wide popularity in the South, and gained him a large number of friends in New York, is the gentlemen referred to. He has a law office at No. 62 Wall street. It was in defending his wife from the insults of a rufflan that the major now believes he has unwittingly caused the death of a man who is entirely unknown to him. He could not believe that it was. He did not know he had injured the man. But finally the weight of the facts convinced him.

"Say that I authorize this statement in the papers," he said, when he and the reporter separated. The statement of the facts in the case is as follows:

"The man with whom I had the trouble was about five feet nine to ten inches in height. He was dressed in dark clothes, had a dark complexion and wore a dark moustache. He weighed about 160 pounds, wore a derby hat and was genteel looking.
He was not drunk, but had evidently been drinking.

"I don't remember the exact date, but I believe it was not later in the evening than 9:30 of October 23; I was waking down The conditions of the bet are that every are due at the Auckland club in Melbourne departure.

Denouncing Moonlighters.

LONDON, Nov. 21.—The argument in be-

Sir Henry referred to the marder of Policeman Brett by Allen, Gould and Larkin, near Manchester, in 1867, and said that the murderers had been held up as heroes worthy of imitation. Mr. Davitt himself had unveiled a monument to their memory, and there was ample evidence that the example of these murderers had been lauded as worthy of being fol-

"I released my wife's arm and struck the man over the head with my umbrella several times. He was stunned and fell back. My wife stepped over to the corner. The man stepped up again to renew the attack. I put my hand in my pocket to reach for my knife, as I had no other weapon. I found that my knife was too small, and I struck out at the man again with my umbrella. He put his hand behind him, and I thought he was about to draw a pistol. At this moment two gentlemen came up and interfered. They said 'You've hit him enough.' I waited five minutes for a policeman, but none appeared, and I went back to my wife where I had left her. I Giblin Saved From the Gallows then crossed the street and went to a drug store where my wife expected to meet a lady friend. I did not find the lady and we started back. When I got to the corner I met a man who said he was connected with the postofice department.

"'I believe,' he said to me, 'you did just right. You shall be protected.' I said: 'I don't want any protection; I am not going across the street to avoid meeting the man.' I believe I also said: 'It is a little strange if the police can't be on a great thoroughfare to protect a gentleman from the attacks of ruffians."

"By this time," the major stated, "Mrs. which she died.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21 .- A dispatch has been received from Hammond, Ind., to the ffect that Tommy White and Tommy Morgan, the principals in a prize fight which took place there this morning, have been arrested by the police. After skirmishing around for a long time they met and began the battle. In the 54th round White appeared to be having the round that the police appeared.

CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—A local paper says: The Chicago gas trust has in the last few days obtained absolute control forty thousand acres of gas land in Indiana and President Billings is satisfied that inside a year the city will be supplied Killed By An Explosion.

A Pittsburg Bank Falls. PITTSBURG, Nov. 21. - The Lawrence bank, located at Penn avenue and Butler

DEVIL ANSE SURRENDERS.

"Devil Anse" Hatfield, of Logan county, arrived in Charleston, W. Va., on Tuesday night, accompanied by some friends, and gave himself up to the United States authorities for trial on a charge of having violated the internal revenue laws. He was tried and acquitted on Wednesday and started on his return home, Judge Jackson having guaranteed that he will not be molested until he arrives there.

three deputy marshals accompanied the party to where they left the railroad. He s a man of medium size, very stoop shouldered, with a quick eye that seems to look in all directions at once, and a heavy dark brown beard. He was dressed in a suit of navy blue and no one would judge from his appearance that he is the bloodthirsty villain that imaginative newspaper men the purpose of challenging Anse's evidence, but it apparently had no effect, as it is well known Governor Wilson has refused to So-called detectives lingered around and one of them tried to entice Anse away from the marshals, but the latter promptly told him to leave, which he did.

home from his long voyage until the day of his death. There is a young woman living in Halifax, N. S., who a dozen years the caresses of dutiful children; instead of which he found another man in his place by the fireside, and bossing the children as if they were his own. At first it looked as though the old and new husbands would spill some blood; but the old fellow took a more sensible view of the matter and ac more sensible view of the inatter and accepted $40 from the new husband, for which he promised to relinquish all claim to his wife and family. The old husband, happy at getting what he considered a good bargain, left the city.

A Family Fight.

Agnes Overly and her husband, Samuel who is a junk dealer, have been unable to

THE CRONIN ALIBI DEFENSE.

Testimony That Burke and O'Sullivan Were Innocent.

In the Cronin trial on Wednesday morning the defense put in a few more feeble hits in the line of O'Sullivan's alibi. Miss McCormick, the iceman's sister-in-law, swore that she spentithe evening of May 4 at O'Sullivan's house, and was sure that he did not go cut that night. It was shown, however, that she went out herself, and did not return until 10 o'clock. Mrs. Whalen, another sister-in-law, testified that O'Sullivan was in the house the entire that O'Sullivan was in the house the entire that O'Sullivan was in the house the entire night.

Matt Dunahy, a saloon-keeper, testified that on the night of May 4,he relieved Martin Burke, his barkeeper, at 7 o'clock. Patrick Cooney and P. H. Nolan, financial secretary of Camp 20, were in the saloon at the time. Martin Burke was in the saloon for three hours, during which time William Coughlin and John O'Malley came in and met him. Cross-examination developed the fact that witness was a member of Camp 20. Witness denied that he was out riding that night, but admitted that he was supplying Burke's meals and that he visited Winnipeg some time ago. He denied sending money Burke's meals and that he visited Winnipeg some time ago. He denied sending money to Burke in Winnipeg. He was merely passing through Winnipeg on his way to Chicago from the Canadian Northwest. Asked why he did not inform the state's attorney of Burke's presence in the salcon at the time of the murder, he said he was afraid it would hurt his business to be mixed up in the affair. Witness denied that he had applied opprobrious names to Dr. Cronin, but admitted that he was taking a deep interest in the case and was treasurer a deep interest in the case and was treasurer of the defense fund.

John O'Malley, a clerk, testified that on the evening of May 4 he called at Dunahy's saloon, and corroborated Dunahy as to Burke's presence.

General Mahone is Cross. A lively little, wrinkled old man, with long thin gray beard, which he nervously stroked and twisted; keen, dark eyes which peered from under his shaggy eyebrows and his thick, gray hair hanging down to the collar of his coat, was the centre of observation in the corridors of the Fifth Avenue hotel, New York, Tuesday night. It was Mahone, of Virginia, recently defeated for governor. His vest and coat were in a state of loose connection, and his white broad-brimmed slouch hat was one that has passed through several readjustthat has passed through several readjustwhite broad-brimmed slouch hat was one that has passed through several readjustment campaigns.

"What the devil has a man, who was licked as bad as I was, got to say?" he said in reply to my greeting. "Just at present I don't care to discuss all the causes which led up to my defeat. The Democrats purged the poil lists of 39,000 Republican names a week before election, and they counted out 10,000 Republican votes at the poils. I was beaten by fraud, but I don't care to say any more about that phase of it just now."

"Are you going to be a candidate for governor again?"

"That's too long a time ahead to talk about. I'm not out of politics, however. I'm not one of the kind that gets discouraged easily. It was my way when I was a soldier and got beaten to pull up my belt another notch and go at 'em again. I think we shall be able to interest the Democrats over there a little at the next election of congression.

over there a little at the next election of congressmen. We shall try it." General Mahone declined to discuss the colored vote or the administration in connection with the Virginia campaign.

BOTH APPLIED FOR SAME PENSION. An Old Soldier and His Supposed Widow

An Old Soldier and His Supposed Widow Reunited After Many Years.

Nehemiah Dennis, of New York state, bade good-by to his wife and baby son in 1861, and went to fight for the Union. For a time be corresponded with his wife. Then of a sudden he ceased writing, and his wife felt sure that he had fallen in battle. After the war one of his comrades told Mrs. Dennis that Nehemiah had been killed. Mrs. Dennis and her son, Henry, now a man, not long ago came to Genesee now a man, not long ago came to Genesee county, Michigan, and rented a farm, where they have since lived. Recently she applied for a pension as the widow of Nehemiah Dennis. A special agent of the pension department sent to investigate the case learned that the man whose widow she supposed herself to be was alive, and that he also had applied for a pension and was living in Missouri.

They were made aware of each other's existence by this officer, and last Monday Nehemiah Dennis arrived at Flint, Mich., was met at the detect by his son and taken.

was met at the depot by his son and taken to his wife whom he then saw for the first time in twenty-eight years. Instead of be-ing killed he had been captured and sent to Libby prison. Upon his release at the close of the war he went back to his old home, but his wife had gone, and he could find no trace of her. He advertised and searched for years to find her, but at last lost all hope and went to Missouri. The reunited family will continue to live in Genesee county.

The Youngest Chief Justice. C. M. Corliss, the newly elected chief justice of the supreme court of North Dakots, was a little over four years ago a member of the bar of Dutchess county, N. Y. He is nearly six feet tall, broad shouldered, and angular, and has a pro-dusion of curiy black hair. He is only 31 years old, and enjoys the distinction of being the youngest chief justice in the history of the English-speaking people and possibly in the history of the world. When the constitution of the new state was being formed some one had a clause inserted providing that no one should be a supreme court judge unless be had resided in Dakota five years. Mr. Corliss went to Bismarck and by a personal appeal induced the convention to substitute three years for five. His majority at the election was 17,000. In one county he re-ceived all the votes but four. His salary is Interesting Romance.

Interesting Romance.

J. A. Cutler, of the steamboat Rock Iowa, was in New Orleans forty years ago with an elder brother prospecting. He had occasion to leave the city for a couple of days and when he returned by some means they became separated. Reading the name of Cutler on the Rhodg Island state ticket J. A. Cutler has just written and learned that it is his long lost brother who is exgovernor of Rhode Island. Neither of the brothers was aware of the fate of the other from the time they parted in New Orleans from the time they parted in New Orleans

Passed the Examination.

Edward Barr, son of Alderman Barr and n apprentice of the INTELLIGENCER office, has successfully passed the examination for admission to the nautical school now being organized at Philadelphia. Mr. Barr is a graduate of the high school; after graduating he became an apprentice in the art of printing. For the past year or more he has been an employe of the INTELLIGENCER. He is a bright, energetic young man and will no doubt make his mark in Pennsylvania's nautical school.

Sued for $2,000 Damages.

Major A. C. Reinochl, attorney for Hernan C. Kern, has entered suit in the court of common pleas against the authorities of Mt. Joy borough for $2,000 damages. Plain-tiff alleges that the street and alley in the vicinity of his property are not kept in order, in consequence of which his house has been flooded with water, doing damage to the above amount.

Sent to Philadelphia.

William Ryan, a young man who was hurt by being squeezed between two trains near Bainbridge six weeks ago, and has since been in the Lancaster county hospital, was sent to Philadelphia to-day. He was able to walk with the aid of two crutches Upon reaching Philadelphia he will go to Blockley hospital, where he will remain until he fully recovers.

Adam Grady, one of Marietta's oldest citizens, died on Wednesday, of pneumocitizens, died on Wednesday, of pheumo-nia, aged 51 years. He was a native of Germany and for half a century lived in Marietta, where he was highly respected. His wife died ten weeks ago. His children are John, Henry and Anna Grady, all residents of that borough. His funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, with services at the Reformed church.

CARRIED TO THE TOMB.

PRICE TWO CENTS

EX-ATTORNEY GENERAL CASSIDY'S FUNERAL ATTENDED BY MANY FRIENDS.

Services Held In a Catholic Church In Germantown-Ex-Govs. Hoytland Pattison of the Pall-Bearers.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—The funeral of the late ex-Attorney General Lewis C. Cassidy took clace this morning. The body was taken from his late residence, at Walnut Lane and the county line, to the Roman Catholic church of St. Vincent de Paul, in Germantown, where solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father O'Don-

Rev. Father Horstman, chancellor of the archdicesse, who was Mr. Cassidy's pastor for a number of years, spoke of the life and character of the dead statesman with great feeling. Upon the conclusion of the services the remains were taken to Cathedral cometery for interment. The interment was private, but there was an immense attendance at the church. Many men distinguished in professional and political life were present, and several organizations were represented by com-

son, ex-Judge F. Carroll Brewster, ex-Judge Elcock, ex-Governors Hoyt and Pattison, William M. Singerly, Pierce Archer and John M. Thomas, Fire In a Big Building.

New York, Nov. 21.—Fire broke out in the tenth story of the Western Union building at 4 o'clock this morning. All the Associated Press wires were shut off for a time except the Western circuit. The filled with Western Union records and old dispatches, etc. The firemen had consid-erable difficulty in getting the hose up to the burning floor, but after they succeeded it took only a short time to get the flames citement except among women and girls employed in the restaurant, who were asleep on the eleventh floor. The damage to the building is $5,000 and to stock

Holsteins the Best Breed. CHICAGO, Nov. 21.—In the American fat tock show last night awards were made in the milk test for the best cow three years or over. There were nine entries. The first premium was awarded to May Overton, a Holstein, the property of A. C. Stevens, of Attica, N. Y. Her record was: Total milk, 65 pounds 7 ounces; 56 pounds 12 ounces of butter; 120 pounds 2 onnces of solid. A Holstein from Balger, Pa., took second prize with a record of 51 pounds 13 ounces of milk; 22 pounds 46 ounces of Realizing Their Situation.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 21.—The trial of the 18 Navassa rioters was resumed in the United States circuit court to-day. The court room was thronged with spectators and unusual interest is manifested. A number of prisoners seemed to have aroused to the gravity of the offense for which they are being tried and paid strict attention to the evidence. Key, who is the principal in the present case, became so much interested when his associates on the stand told the story of his horrible deed that he leaned far over in his seat and tried to butter and 91 pounds 21 ounces solid.

catch every word that was said. The others seemed equally concerned. Killed While Rescuing a Man. VALPARAISO, Ind., Nov. 21 .- Yesterday afternoon Murray Beach was overcome by carbonic acid gas in a thirty foot well in his vard. He signaled to be hoisted. When up about ten feet he fell. John C. Sharp said he could save Beach. He descended, tied a rope around Beach and started to come up with him. About fifteen feet from the bottom he lost his hold and fell. With great difficulty Beach was resuscitated. He and four children in destitute circum-Victims Of a Mad Dog. MARRLEHEAD, Mass., Nov. 21-John R. Williams, about 33 years old, was taken violently ill yesterday with bydrophobis, and died this morning after suffering ter-will doubtless recover. Sharp's corpse was hauled to the surface. He leaves a wife rible agony. A young son of William Bell, was also attacked by the disease yesterday. The poy is still alive, but cannot recover. Williams was bitten by a mad dog two months ago, and the boy about six weeks ago. The dog that bit Williams also bit several other persons, but they have shown no symptoms of the malady.

Mass Meeting For Strikers. BRAZIL, Ind., Nov.21-The president of the entral executive committee of the striking miners has called a mass meeting for Brazil to-morrow to determine whether or not the strike shall continue longer. Of 2,000 miners who struck on May 1st, 500 have found work elsewhere, 500 in the bituminous mines and 400 in block mines at the operators' terms. The remainder continue ol. Goodloe's Successor His Son-in-Law Washington, Nov. 21.—The president to-day appointed Thomas Clay McDowell, of Kentucky, to be collector of internal revenue for the Seventh district of Kentucky, vice Wm. Cassius Goodloe, deceased. Mr. McDowell is a a son-in-law of

They Demand More Wages. ROTTERDAM, Nov. 21 .- Much dissatisfaction exists among certain classes of labor in this city. The lightermen and the sailors and firemen employed on steamers sailing from this port have determined to adopt strong measures to secure an advance in their wages and they have entered into agreement between themselves to strike on Saturday if their demands are not conceded.

TELEGRAPHIC TAPS. Dr. McFadden, a prominent Congrega-tional minister of Manchester, England, is Mike Madden, of Portland, Me., the Kid," will to-day sign contract for three years with the Boston Brotherhood team at a yearly salary of $2,700. Galvin, Miller, Field, Kuche, and Hanlon have signed the regulation players' contract to play with the Brotherhood club of Pittsourg. All the stock has been subscribed for the Brotherhood club in Pittsburg.

Frank Foster, of Gloncestor, Mass., who leaves a widow and three children, attempted to shut off an electric light with a wet iron galf last night and was instantly In the Glasgow pig iron market to-day Scotch warrants advanced from 62s. 7d. to 63s. 7d. At Middleborough prices of Mid-dleborough warrants rose from 63s, 64, to WEATHER FORECASTS.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 2L.-For Eastern Pennsylvania : Rain Thursday and Friday; slightly warmer; southwesterly winds shifting to southeast-

RIO JANEIRO, Nov. 21-The provisional

WASHINGTON, Nov 21 .- Dr. Valente, minister from Brazil, called at the state department to-day and informed the secretary that his latest advices from Brazil congress to continue to act for their country in the sessions of the congress. HELD AS KATE AND MRS. BENDER.

The scene of their butcheries was near

The horrible discovery that they had a dozen strangers and the premises over

Opening it she saw a picture of herself that she recognized as one her husband always wore. She feared to retire, and, putting out the light, awaited in the darkness.

covered a newly-dug grave.

Paralyzed with horror at the sight of the grave that was intended for her, she remained in concealment on the prairies saw the affair. Major Stewart is a sixfooter, and heavy in proportion, weighing fully 240 pounds. He is a fine looking, courtly, genial Southerner, and can be seen any day down on Wall street.

Siegfried H. May, a wholesale liquor dealer, of 29 and 31 First avenue, walked into the Thirtirth street police station, Wednesday, and told Captain Reilly that he was the man who struck the ferule of his umbrella into the eye of Martin J.
Flynn, on Broadway, a couple of weeks ago. Flynn died from the effects of his injuries on Thursday last. May states that Flynn grabbed him by the collar and de-The news spread rapidly, and a posse was formed but it was too late. The murderous family had fled, leaving their stock and were identified were Dr. York, of Inde-Williford, of Athens, Ga.

The meeting was calling for the purpose f considering the advisability of forming The question was discussed at length, and t was decided that before forming an in-lependent association the officers of the Four People Heard.

Last evening Abraham Martin and his wife Caroline, were heard before Alderman Spurrier on the charge of keeping a disorderly house, and the case was held under advisement. William Stott and Mrs. Jen-nie McDonald, who were arrested on Sunday night charged with drunken and dis-orderly conduct, were discharged upon the parents of the groom.

Large Shipment of Apples Augustus Diamond, who represents firm of apple dealers in Fort Wayne, Ind.

was in Lancaster vesterday and sold two oarloads of the fruit to Mettfett Brothers, Mr. Diamond says that his firm shipped 47 carloads to the East in one lot this week. The 22 cere divided up among Philadelphia, Readt ', York, Allentown, Lancaster and 20 and started across the continent on foot following the line of the Northern Pacific. appliance may be used for travelling after reaching New York, but the journey across North America must be made on foot. The bet is for £3,000 and the podestrians just eight months from the date of their The travellers are in good health and are half of the Times by Sir Henry James was continued before the Parnell commission to-day. Referring to Moonlighters in Ireland, he said that they acted more like burglars than like police of the League. Their actions were not reproved by leaders of the League. It was not until February, 1886, when the Parnellite members of the House of Commons were supporting the government, that leaders of the League refused to grant money to certain districts owing to outrages that had been committed ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 21.—Governor Hill to-day commuted the sentence of Charles Giblin to imprisonment for life. The governor says he is convinced that the evidence does not warrant the inflicting of the death penalty. Giblin was convicted of the murder of Mrs. Goetz, in her husband's grocery store in New York city. Giblin offered a counterfeit bill in payment for a purchase. A row ensued between him and Goetz, and Mrs. Goetz interfered and received a pistol shot wound from Both Tommies Arrested.

best of the fight. It was at the end of this ALLENTOWN, Pa., Nov. 21.-William Bogh and Frank Burger were killed by a premature explosion of a blast in a stone quarry near Catasauqua this morning. The podies of both men were shockingly mutilated.

street, has failed to meet its obligations and to-day closed its doors.

The Leader of the Hatfields Yields to Law and is Acquitted.

Hatfield and his friends were armed and have pictured him to be. A requisition from the governor of Kentucky was introduced at the trial for Sold His Wife and Family for $10. Enoch Arden was not alive to his finan-cial opportunities, or he would never have concealed his identity after his return ago married a man much older than her-self. They lived contentedly together for a number of years and had six chil-dren. The husband's business called him away. He remained absent lon-ger than he expected, and the wife gave him up as gone forever. He, how-ever, a few days ago returned home, as he thought, to the arms of a loving wife and was married in Clearfield, at noon on Wednesday, to George Ettla, of Marietta, Miss Rachel E, Weaver acted as maid of honor and Charles F, Ettla, of Philadelphia, as best man. Rev. Dr. McKinley performed the ceremony. A reception was held afterwards, and among the guests were Captain George H. Ettla and wife, of Marietta, the parents of the green. get along together for some time past. They do not live together, and the mother has the children, which are aged two years has the children, which are aged two years and three months. The husband is constantly annoying his wife about the children, and he wants to get possession of them. She refuses to give them up and says that if he will let her alone she will not ask him for any support whatever. He has her clothing in his possession and refuses to give them up. They have just had a quarrel, and this morning the husband was prosecuted before Alderman Hershey by the wife, because he threatened to kill her upon several different occasions. Overly was arrested this afternoon by Overly was arrested this afternoon by Constable Herr and in default of bail was committed for a hearing.

restimony That Burke and O'Sullivan