

DEATHS OF TWO WOMEN.

MRS. MILITZBERGER AND MRS. MARGARET KEPLER DIE AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

The former leaves three and the latter four children—both funerals on Wednesday afternoon.

COLUMBIA, Dec. 2.—Mrs. Amanda C. Millerberger, wife of Joseph C. Millerberger, died on Sunday at 12 1/2, at her home on North Fourth street.

Mrs. Margaret Kepler, widow of the late Charles Kepler, died this morning at 2 o'clock, at her home on South Fourth street, aged 63 years.

This movement is an increase of 100,137 over last month, but a decrease of 2,307 over November, 1889.

Samuel H. Stricker, brakeman on the Frederick division, sprained his right ankle on Saturday afternoon by jumping from a train.

Prof. Deichman, an employee of the P. R. R. coal wharves, had his left foot broken on Saturday by a large lump of coal falling on it.

Samuel T. Dickinson will leave on Tuesday for Lehigh, where he will present with a group of his Sunday school class and in return presented each member with his own picture.

"The White Slave" will be presented in the opera house to-night by a first class company. The play is an excellent one, full of good situations and will be presented with fine scenic effects.

Harry Dougherty will take the position as operator at C. D. office, vacated by H. M. Upp.

The Lutheran church supper closed in the armory on Saturday night and was a financial success. Twenty members of the Ansonia Social club attended the armory in a body and gave supper to Howard Purple and George H. Wike, two members, who left to-day for Virginia.

W. U. Barry has returned to the advisory board of the Reading Relief association by the employes of the R. & C. division.

Returns of the penny scheme of the Cookman chapel were made yesterday and over $64 were received with more investments to hear from.

A. J. Kaufman, made a large sale of farm land on the old Stricker property, in Manor township, on Saturday. Henry Gamber bought 108 acres at $100 per acre. Cyrus Stricker bought 30 acres at $120 per acre.

The third-story of Grier's printing house has been handsomely fitted up for the Lark camping club.

"Our German Ward" will be presented in the opera house on Wednesday night. Shares of wagon work, shirt factory and light company stock were offered at public sale on Saturday night, but there were no bidders.

A property of H. Mifflin was offered for sale on Saturday night, but was withdrawn at $1,400.

A festival was held on Saturday night at the home of H. G. Beck in aid of the conduct. Sophie Solly gave her 10 days in jail.

Trinity Reformed church will be reopened on Sunday next.

The Lancaster Cadets, a young military club of this city, held a highly successful package party in Eschelman's hall on Saturday evening. The crowd was large, as over 1,200 tickets had been sold.

Mrs. Francis Thilman, with no. 1,386, received the album, while the holder of 1880 is entitled to the tea set, and 1,385 the rifle. Sergeant Harry Franz sold the largest number of tickets, 251, and thus won the gold medal.

The holders of the numbers being above can obtain their prizes by calling at Brinkman & Newell's store on East Queen street.

IRROQUOIS BAND FAIR.

A successful opening at Mennerchor Hall on Saturday evening.
