The phenomenal popularity of this grand preparation is due to its purity and power. In this respect it is unequalled as a health preserver. There are strong vigorous men to-day, who were once weak and debilitated and have been restored entirely through its use. There are bright, healthy women with clear eyes and repromplexions, who were once languid, esilow and sickly. A constant use of this grand hill Whisker is wint brought about the change. It can be procured of all druggists, but great care should be exercised to secure only the genuine.
