TWO MEN PASS AWAY.

GEORGE & PATTERSON AND GEORGE T. GROOM DIE, THE LATTER SUDDENLY.

Consumption and Cramps the Causes for Their Demise-A Standpipe Erected by the Water Company.

Columbia, Dec. 9.—George S. Patterson died on Sunday morning at 10:15 o'clock, at the home of his sister, Mrs. John G. Liewellyn, on Manor street, in the 66th year of his age. He has been sick for a long time with pulmonary consumption. The remains will be taken to Coatesville on Wednesday at 8:30 a. m. for interment. George T. Groom, who lived on the Washington turnpike, near town, died on Saturday night from malarial cramps, aged 25 years. The death was unexpected. Mr. Groom was at work on Friday. He was a carpenter and worked for W. H. Hogendebler, of this place. A wife and two children survive, The funeral will be held on Tuesday at 2 p. m.!

The property holders and tenants living above Sixth street have suffered from an inadequate water supply for several years past. The complaint was so general that the Columbia Water company have erected a 30-foot standpipe connecting with the Lockard Hollow reservoir. The stand is a six-inch diameter pipe and will meet the present demands.

Squire Hershey gave Thomas Evans, a tramp, three days in jail for disorderly conduct. Squire Solly sentenced James Murray and George Farrell for the same period on the same charge.

Company C, sent a handsome floral emblem to Philadelphia on Saturday for their late friend, Lieut. D. A. Rodgers, of Company B, State Fencibles, who was buried on Sunday. The emblem consisted of an anchor resting on a pillow. The name of the deceased was in red, and the brigade colors were on a scroll at the bottom of the an hor.

Limited Locals.

Luke O'Melia, arrested for being drunk and disorderly by Constable Ehrman, got 10 days in jail from Alderman Deen this morning.

J. Garceau, agent of the Corliss safe company, of Providence, R. I., is stopping at the Cooper house. He has just put in one of his large safes for the new bank at Delta, York county.

This morning Contractor Galbraith began the work of digging out the dirt for the laying of the new belgian blocks in the diamond at Chestnut and Duke streets and on Duke street from Chestnut to the railroad bridge.

road bridge.

The Iroquois band fair had a large crowd on Saturday evening and there was very lively voting. This evening the fair will close with an auction.

George Wall, of Marietta, came to Lancaster to-day and brought with him a turkey that weighed no less than thirty pounds, for John H. Borger, of the Southern Exchange hotel, on South Queen street.

George Wall, who has been living in Marietta for several years past, has made arrangements to return to Lancaster in the spring and take possession of his hotel on spring and take possession of his hotel on South Queen street. John H. Borger will take Frederick Engle's hotel at Graeft's Landing.

Change at the P. R. R. Station. As noticed elsewhere, William M. Con-yngham, one of the ticket agents at the Pennsylvania railroad passenger station in this city, has resigned that position. He has been appointed an extra agent on the Philadelphia division, and his headquarters Philadelphia division, and his headquarters will be in the superintendent's office, West Philadelphia. Mr. Conyngham has been in the Lancaster station for the past six years, and he has always been found a courteous and genial gentleman by the public. The newspaper men are indebted to him for many good locals, and they wish him success in his new position. J. Fred. Fisher, who takes Mr. Conyngham's place, is well known as one of Mr. Slaymaker's best letter-carriers. He is fully competent to fill the new position.

The Friendship Banquet. The committee having in charge the banquet and reunion of the members of the old Friendship fire company have completed all arrangements for the affair. It will take place to-morrow evening at the Liederkranz hall. The members will meet at the old engine house at half-past seven o'clock. Headed by the Iroquois band they will make a short street parade to the hall.

The custom of holding reunions by the members of the old fire companies is a highly commendable one. It brings together old friends who revive old recollections and have a general good time. Several companies of this city hold annual reunions

The Saturday Night Crop. There was considerable drunkenness and noise about the town on Saturday evening. After midnight two rival gangs from different sections of the city, met at the corner of West King and Water streets. They had made all arrangements for and were about indulging in a big fight when Officers Shertz, Gardner and Roads put in senancements. an appearance. Some of the crowd were inclined to be saucy to the officers, but when they found they would be arrested if they insisted they pulled in their horns and discovered.

The mayor had four vagrants this morning, and these with two drunks, who paid the costs, were discharged. Two drunks got ten days each in jail.

Jake Rutter's Fox Chase. One of the first good fox chases of the season will take place on Wednesday, December 18th, at the hotel of Jacob R. Rutter, at Gap. Mr. Rutter is one of the best known hunters in the castern part of the county. His chases are always largely attended by the hunters. Mr. Rutter has hosts of friends in Lancaster, and they today received invitations to the chase Quite a crowd are going down, and they are going to be there in time for the big dinner, which is always a pleasing feature of the chase.

He Should Stick To Walking. Frank Scheid, the pedestrian, went to Bird-in-Hand on Saturday afternoon to deliver some oysters, and returned by freight in the evening. He attempted to get off the train, which was running rather fast, at the chemical works and was thrown very hard to the ground, on which he rolled for some distance. He was very badly cut and bruised about the legs and body, and it is with difficulty that he moves about to-day. His tin bucket fell under him and it was mashed all out of shape.
