PROBABLY DROWNED. A PROMINENT PHILADELPHIAN MYSTERIOUSLY DISAPPEARS.

Joseph G. Ditman's Team Upset Along the Schuylkill River in Fairmount Park—Fears That He Perished.

PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 12.—It is believed that Joseph G. Ditman, the well known retail paper manufacturer, and president of the Quaker City National bank, was drowned in the Schuylkill river last evening. Mr. Ditman was in the habit of driving a spirited pair of horses every afternoon along the river drive in Fairmount park. He started out from home as usual yesterday afternoon, and during the evening a park policeman found Mr. Ditman's carriage upset on the river bank.

DR. HIGBEE'S CONDITION. He is still unconscious and there are slight chances for recovery. There is a great deal of interest manifested in the serious illness of Dr. Higbee, and since he was brought to this city a large number of telegrams have been received here from different parts of the state inquiring about his condition.

"A HOLE IN THE GROUND." Hoyt's Comedy at the Opera House to a Small Audience. The opera house was not more than half full last evening when Hoyt & Thomas' company presented "A Hole in the Ground," which has not been seen in Lancaster for some time.

A FLOUR MILL ACCIDENT. First Reports of the Occurrence Greatly Exaggerated by Papers. The reports of the accident at David H. Snavely's flour mill at Lexington, on Hammer creek, were greatly exaggerated in different papers yesterday and to-day, and the story as published in the Intelligencer was substantially correct.

A Republican Plot in Montana. The Montana Senate has ordered the sergeant-at-arms to bring in the Democratic members elect under an old territorial act, which provides for the election of members to the chamber and have the presiding officer state that a quorum is present and declare the Senate organized.

CHARITY BOARD VISITORS. To-day Messrs. Biddle and O'Neill, of the state board of charities, arrived in this city to inspect the county institutions. They first called at the prison and were shown through it by Keeper Smith.

THE TEAM IDENTIFIED. The horse and buggy that were found loose in the street on Friday by William Wiley have been identified by the property of Samuel Campbell, the well known liveryman of Columbia. The team was hired by a man at Campbell's on Monday. It was taken to Columbia to-day.

BOYCOTTING THE SUGAR TRUST. Knights of Labor Won't Buy the Sugar of Trust Refineries.

The Knights of Labor are about to open their warfare on the sugar trust, and within a month are expected to flourish. Since the decision of the New York courts against the legality of the sugar trust certain members of the committee have been perfecting the plans of what is nothing more nor less than a general boycott on sugar trust sugar.

The Member's New Privileges. Washington Letter to the Philadelphia Record. The day after Congress assembled the new members might be picked out on the floor of the House by the stationary on their desks, and the fact that they were all busy in writing letters to their constituents could think of, to show the new letter head paper. Nearly every new member in the House had made out a requisition on the congressional clerk, and many of them had had drawn a desk in which to store away the paper and envelopes, and pens, pencils, penknives, etc. Most of the new members were in the habit of sending their stationery in samples all over their districts—they are all the while writing letters.

FEDERATION OF LABOR. A Revival of Interest in the Trade Union Movement.

At Wednesday's session of the American Federation of Labor in Boston, President Gifford addressed the members, and the great increase, both in membership and in the number of local branches, all testified to the renewed activity and zeal of the toilers and the recognition of the honest workers of the federation. There are among the members of the American federation 3,000 local unions and a membership larger than in any other organization of the kind.

JEFF. DAVIS' LETTER. HE WOULD SAY NOTHING OF THE CAREER OF GENERAL GRANT.

The Reason Given For Not Criticizing the Union Hero—His Kindly Personality Toward the Dying Chieftain.

BOSTON, Dec. 12.—While General Grant was lying at Mount Washington, the Boston Globe instructed its New Orleans correspondent to interview Jefferson Davis. Mr. Davis was not seen personally, but five days later the following letter was published in the Boston Globe: "I have read your issue of the 11th inst. and am glad to know that you have been so kind as to address the history of the career of General Grant's military career. It is a pity that you have not done so before, for it was with open hand, and as a man who knew his own mind, that he has shown himself to be a true and noble soldier. I am sure that you will find his career a most interesting and instructive one. I am, Sir, your obedient servant, Jefferson Davis."
