HE IS IN JAIL.

But His Accustomed Nerve Still Keeps His Close Company.

One of the freshest youths that Pennsyl-vania has over produced, John Fehr, known as "Barnum's Kid," is now in jail here, and almost a score of charges of false pretense have been brought up against him. Fehr was brought from Reading at 5:36 o'clock on Sunday evening by Special Gill br was taken to the station house and Fehr was taken to the s ation house and he immediately related the services of Benj. F. Davis and John Fry, equ., as his counsel. The numerous charges of false pretense before Aldermen Deen and Spurrier, with which the gay and festive "Kid" is charged, grew out of his visit to Lancaster last summer, when he got advertisements for hotel registers, etc., pocketed the money for the advertisements, etc., ranging from $2 to $10, and then skipped town without delivering the books. Wm. H. Roy, the bookbinder, remembers his descripted $20 worth town without delivering the books. Wm. H. Roy, the bookbinder, remembers his departure $20 worth. The result of the female bicycle riders has week. Fehr revealed his identify to the officer, and when Gill failed to make any more money with the bicyclers Fehr assumed the management. He met with disaster, and was compelled to pawn his overcoat and an alloged diamond. He for York, leaving an indebtedness behind him, and went to Columbia. He was arrested there by Officer Gill on awar-mat from York. He got out of the diff-ently by partly paying the claim and then outdy until the arrival of Gil. Minough In jail the kid is just as fresh as we which was his only companion in a cell last evening, gave him a good appear-ing him out of these scrapes.

One was sent to the workhouse for 20 days. The Christmas trees made their appear-ance in great shape to-day and a dozen firms have been dealing them out in Centre Square all day. There is also a great quantity of evergreens, moss, crow-ford, &c., and the prices, as yet are some-what high. Services of policemen were required at the Western hotel on Saturday night. A ter dible "racket" was in progress there for some time.
