Origin o 'the Word "Bumper."
From the Washington Post.

A correspondent who seemed to be very much elated at having "caught Webster in an error," calls our attention to that lexice grapher's etymology of the word "bumper, as used in the sentence "a bumper of wine." The correspondent informs us that the word did not come from "Bumbard," as Webster has it, but "had its origin with the Catholica, who usually drank the pope's health every day after dinner in a full glass, with the expression in French—au bon pere (to the good father); hence the term 'a bumper.' Yes; we may have seen the story before. It is one of the many faked up yarms told by Henry James Loaring in his book of "Common Sayings."

The fact is, we find on comperison that

Loaring in his book of "Common Sayings."

The fact is, we find on comparison that our correspondent has used the exact words of Loaring, so he doubtless relies on this testimony to make his case against Webster. All we have to say of Mr. Loaring is, that he knows some French, and whenever he comes upon an English expression, which sounds somewhat like a French one, he invents a story to prove that the French expression is the parent of the English one, and relies on the popular ignorance of etymology to make his invention stand. Welster makes a good case in favor of his elymology of the word, and we begour correspondent to look into the literature of the lifteenth and sixteenth centuries, where, if pondent to look into the interature of the infleenth and sixteenth centuries, where, if he looks deep enough, he will find that Shakespeare's use of "bumbard" (a large mug or can,) was well authorized, and he will probably not hold that "bumbard" came from "bon pere."

It takes a loud baby to wake up a sleening car; but it takes but little of Dr. Bull's Baby Svrup to quiet thas bady, and it requires only 25 cents to buy a bottle of that well known remedy.

The longer the apology the "lively young man" makes for his morning headache, the worse matters will appear. Slience and Laxador are the sovereign remodies for this peculiar kind of headache.

Grave Cause for Anxiety
Exists when the kidneys lose their activity.
Prompt measures should be taken to renew it, otherwise Bright's disease, diabetes, or some other organic trouble, is to be apprehended as a consequence. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a most desirable diuretic, as its stimulative ac-tion upon these organs never crosses the border line of safety and merges into irritation, as do many stimulants used for the same purpose by the careless and uninstructed. The stimul of commerce, flery and unmedicated, are not suitnble corrective agents in a case like this. They excite without producing a permanently de-sirable result. The "just medium" between them and an ineffectual diuretic is the Bitters. which is also a specific for malarial complaints dyspepsia, constipation and rheumatism.

Why continue the use of irritating powders, snuffs or liquids. Ely's Cream Balm pleasant of application and a sure cure for catarrh and cold in head, can be had for 50c. It is easily applied into the nostrils, is safe and pleasant, and is curing the most obstinate cases. It gives relief at once, The proprietors of Ely's Cream Balm do not claim it to be a cure-all, but a sure remedy for catarrh, colds in the head and hay fever. It is not a liquid or snuff, but is easily applied into the nostrils. It gives relief at once,

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the exeruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINSso, go at once and get a bottle of MRS. WINS-LOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mother on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother, and relief and health to the child, operating like magic. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases and pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. CUTICURA REMEDIES.

Baby One Solid Rash Ugly, painful, blotched, malicious. No rest by day, no peace by night. Boctors and all remedies falled. Tried Cuticurs. Effect marvellous. Saved his life.

Cured by Cuticura

Our oldest child, now six years of age, when in infant six months old was attacked with a inclest, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physican, who attempted to cure it; but it spread with almost incredible rapidity, until the lower services of the little fellow's person, from the cian, who stienipted to cure it; but it spread with atmost incredible rapidity, until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malicious, we had no rest at night, no peace by day. Finally, we were advised to try the Curicura Remanies. The effect was simply marvellous. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life, and to-day he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred.

Boy Covered With Scabs

My boy, aged nine years, has been troubled all his life with a very bad humor, which appeared all over his body in small red blotches, with a dry white scab on them. Last year he was worse than ever, being covered with scabs from the top of his head to his feet, and continually growing worse, although he had been treated by two physicians. As a last resort, I determined to try the Curturas Remenies, and am happy to say they did all that I could wish. Using them according to directions, the humor rapidly disappeared, leaving the skin fair and smooth, and performing a thorough cure. The Curturas Remenies are all you claim for them. They are worth their weight in gold.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down: to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or sche; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter deflies the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste, and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond most human enjoyments. To purchase humanity from such a faise should be the object of all sufficted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical and rarely failing.

Sanford's Radical Cure Consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and one IMPROVED INHALER, all (wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.
