THE GIFT SEASON

CHRISTMAS"!

How the quaint old po-calls back the memory of Christmas days of the old time! How the stockings w wont to be hung up by the fireplace in the firm belief t Santa Claus was coming do the chimney to fill them !

Have times changed? we have grown older and vi life differently now, but of children and grandchildren a going through the same joye experiences as we once did. is well that they do so. Let make this Christmas a me one for them all.

How can this best be dor By giving them presents, use in character, which will rem them of the glad Christm days for a year to come.

Have you a boy? Think all the suitable gifts you buy for him in a hardware sto Every well-regulated boy show have a Pocket Knife. It he him in beginning a mechani knowledge, and is handy wh father and mother want to b row it. Then how it opens eyes to the wonders of ma Closing out Ladies' Linen Collars and Cuffs All at one price, 5c. handiwork and makes him wi later on for a Tool CHEST. Have you a wife? If s gladden her Christmas by bu ing a Grand Rapids CARP SWEEPER, which removes t dust and dirt from a room wit out destroying the nape of the carpet. Don't let her run th risk of spraining her arms ar back over the wash tub wringing out clothes by han but present her this Christma with a CLOTHES WRINGER. C if you wish to touch her keen desires as a housekeeper, bu her a nice assortment of Again WARE for the kitchen. Yo will not go amiss, if you ser home on Christmas Eve a Umbrella Stand, Set CARVERS, BIRD CAGE, or a pal of Andirons.

Then look at the variety SLEDS and SKATES that we offe you in your hunt for Christma Presents. In SLEDS, there ar the low runners, which are buil for rough usage, and the lighte high ones for girls. In SKATES we have fifteen varieties, an are particularly well equippe in our assortment of LADIE SKATES.
